

BEAR IN MIND THAT THE BIG CHALLENGE SALE AT THE DEPARTMENT STORE IS ON

and for the next few weeks you will be able to purchase your needs from this large line of New Fall and Winter Goods at almost your own price. No matter what the former selling price was, we are offering you the unrestricted choice of all our Women's Coats, Suits, Skirts and Millinery at a Great Sacrifice!

We are more than thankful for the splendid patronage which has enabled us to greatly increase the volume of our sales during the past few months, and you will be thankful if you take advantage of the many chances we offer you at this time, the Christmas season are going at Challenge Sale prices. Don't fail to call and see the magnificent bargains we are offering you. Many of our patrons will profit by the very special offerings of this store during the next month. Be one of them, by calling and make your selections early. Our prices have been the sensation of the town, and during the next month we are going to drive the knife a little deeper, and the cut in prices will be still greater.

Men's and Boy's Clothing, Overcoats, Gent's Furnishings, Hats, Caps, Shoes and Underwear

We have a Large Line of Furs that are Included in this Sale!

Try Us First Fanger's Department Store, Try Us First
"THE HOME OF GUARANTEED VALUES"

V. ZUCKER, Manager

Plattsmouth, Nebraska

Remember that this Store can Dress Every Member of Your Family in the Latest Style!

MURDOCK.

Special Correspondence.

Miss Georgia Moon of Ashland spent several days here last week with her sister, Mrs. Edna Jones and family.

The Elmwood High school basketball team came over and played our High school team last Friday afternoon. A large number witnessed the game, which was a good one. At the end the score stood 14 to 12 in favor of Murdock.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Marie Scheweppe to Will Leutchens, which will take place Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Harry Davis left Saturday morning for Liberty, Neb., where she visited a short time. Mr. Davis accompanied her as far as Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Koenig and son, Elton, of Plymouth, Neb., were guests of the Branckle home over Sunday.

Charles Kupke is building a fine large farm residence on his place northeast of town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Amgwert and daughter, Marvel, spent Sunday with home folks near Alvo.

Many ills come from impure blood. Can't have pure blood with faulty digestion, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens stomach, bowels and liver, and purifies the blood.

Frank Platzer, from near Cedar Creek, was in the city last Saturday, and while here called at the Journal office and requested us, through the columns of this paper, to extend his thanks to the voters of Road District No. 2 for their support and interest taken in his recent election as overseer. He is very thankful to each and everyone of you, and takes this method of expressing himself.

For coughing, dryness and tickling in the throat, hoarseness and all coughs and colds, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Contains no opiates. For sale by Fricke & Co.

Misses Catherine and Edith Dovey were Omaha passengers this morning to meet their brother, George, who has been attending school at Grand Island. He will spend his Thanksgiving vacation with the home folks.

Everybody's friend—Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. Cures toothache, earache, sore throat. Heals cuts, bruises, scalds. Stops any pain.

Rev. Father M. A. Shine, with his guest, Father O'Brien, of Dawson, Neb., departed for Steinaur, Neb., this morning, where Father Shine will deliver the Thanksgiving day sermon tomorrow.

Injured at Shops.

Gus Kupp had the misfortune yesterday afternoon while employed on the freight car repair track to receive a fall which put him out of business for a time, and will place him on the disabled list for some days. He was working on a freight car when he lost his footing and fell upon the beak-rods of the car, bruising him badly.

Al Renner, one of the firemen at the boiler house, while at work Monday collided with the end of a boll, puncturing his left eyelid and disfiguring that organ badly. He is in the hands of the relief doctor and will be on the disabled list for a few days.

After a heavy meal take a couple of Doan's Regulets, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulets bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

The Journal extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Walcott of Elmwood on the arrival at their home recently of an eight-pound baby daughter. May the little lady live long to be a great comfort to Pa and Ma Walcott as down Time's rugged pathway they glide.

Good Boy.

The Journal extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Walcott of Elmwood on the arrival at their home recently of an eight-pound baby daughter. May the little lady live long to be a great comfort to Pa and Ma Walcott as down Time's rugged pathway they glide.

Mark! Listen! Attend!

The ladies of St. Mary's Guild of St. Luke's Episcopal church will hold their annual sale of fancy work at Nemetz's old stand on Friday, December 8, and their market on the day following. Those who are discriminating will do their Christmas shopping early. Furthermore, they will do their shopping at this sale, where they can get the most for their money. Don't forget the sale.

Many friends of E. H. Booth, who has been quite sick, will be pleased to learn that there is a slight improvement in his condition today.

Itching, torturing skin eruptions disfigure, annoy, drive one wild. Doan's Ointment brings quick relief and lasting cures. Fifty cents at any drug store.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets do not sicken or gripe, and may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate woman or the youngest child. The old and feeble will also find them a most suitable remedy for aiding and strengthening their weakened digestion and for regulating the bowels. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Meet With Mrs. Charles Troop.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church held a very pleasant meeting at the pretty home of Mrs. Charles Troop yesterday afternoon. On account of the very cold weather there was not so many of the ladies present, but those in attendance did have a very nice time, as Mrs. Troop is a splendid entertainer. The regular business session was held, after which the ladies indulged in a social time. Mrs. Troop served a dainty luncheon, which was very much appreciated.

Buff Orphingtons.

We still have several fine pullets and cockerels for sale. First buyers have picking choice at 50c each. Try one for Thanksgiving. Remember eggs are selling at 2 1/2c each. J. M. Young, Upper Chicago Ave.

President Appoints Committee.

President Pollock of the Commercial club has named the committee provided for at the meeting of the club last Thursday night. The following-named business men constitute the committee: C. A. Rawls, chairman; C. C. Parmele, E. H. Westcott, R. B. Hayes, Carl Fricke, M. S. Briggs and J. P. Falter, seven of the most progressive hustling men of the town. The committee will meet soon at the call of the chairman and no doubt arrange for the canvass of the city for membership tickets. The proposition we feel sure will meet with hearty response from the citizens of the city and vicinity. One gentleman, who is temporarily in the city, will contribute $25 toward the enterprise and maybe more before the canvass is finished. A live Y. M. C. A. in the town will be one of the best enterprises as an inducement for young men to locate that we could set going, and we expect to see the list of members grow rapidly from the commencement of the canvass.

Some of our boys that took in the Cornhusker-Wolverine football game, seem to have come away with a little extra cash and a little jag thrown in.

It appears that chickens are out of the market, as no quotations are being sent our merchants.

While moving his sheller to John Graham's last Friday Arthur Gunn was thrown from his water wagon by a span of fractious mules and rendered unconscious for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hayden of Wallace, Neb., spent a few days with Dr. Jones and family last week. Then Mrs. Jones and her little daughter, Eleanor, accompanied them to Newkirk, Okla., where they will spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Hayden and Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Houston. They will also meet their two other sisters there.

School closed Wednesday for Thanksgiving vacation.

Thomas Paine has been on the sick list the past week.

We are having plenty of wind and a variety of weather.

Our town well is still a thing of the future. Better hurry up, John.

Mr. and Mrs. Mudd were calling on friends in this vicinity last week.

Mrs. Leonard Anderson visited last week with her parents at Bethany.

Van Gunn fractured his right radius last Thursday while cranking his auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulmer of Ashland are visiting their son, A. D. Fulmer, of this community.

Dr. E. L. Jones reports a fine young son at Peter Mockenhaupt's home, which was born on November 29.