

Our Big CHALLENGE SALE Continues!

The Satisfied Customers Increasing

and the Great Sale Grows More Interesting Every Day!

Bear in mind that the Closing Days of this great buying opportunity are numbered, and only a few more days remain for you to select your Fall and Winter goods, at these unheard of prices—prices that mean a great saving to you. Make it a point to visit this store within the next few days; it will pay you to buy a Suit or Overcoat, even if you do not need it at the present time. This opportunity will not be offered you again this season. Come in and compare our quality with the price, and you will see we are speaking the truth.

Bear in mind that we have almost unbroken lines in New Coats, Suits and Dresses for Ladies, Misses and Children; New Clothing for Men, Young Men and Boys; New Shoes for Men, Women and Children; Furnishings of all kinds. All that remains of our New Fall Millinery IS GOING AT ALMOST YOUR OWN PRICE.

TOYS! Christmas Gifts TOYS! FOR ALL!

We have just unpacked and placed on display one of the largest lines of Holiday Goods to be found in Plattsmouth this season. Christmas Boxes, Toys of every description, and handsome presents for every member of the family, from the baby to grandmother, and all are included in this Great Sale and are going at Challenge Prices.

Remember We Clothe Every Member of Your Family

TRY US FIRST FANGER'S DEPARTMENT STORE TRY US FIRST

"THE HOME OF VALUE GIVING PRICES"

V. ZUCKER, Manager

Plattsmouth, Nebraska

ALVO DEPARTMENT

Items of interest to Journal Readers Will Be Received at the Drug Store

J. H. Stroemer returned from Omaha Tuesday morning on No. 13.

Charles Snavelly went to Lincoln Monday evening to witness the wrestling match.

S. C. Boyles was the recipient of a fine Thanksgiving turkey. It came by express incog.

Mr. John Miller returned Monday evening from Omaha, where he had been on business.

Miss Grace Foreman took sick the first of last week, but is reported much improved at this writing.

Mrs. Ivan Clites and baby came in Tuesday evening from Scribner, Neb., to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary Skinner.

James Cook of Beaver City, Neb., is visiting his Aunt Bina Kitzel and other relatives here and at Plattsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stone entertained Sunday William Kitzel and family, Aunt Bina Kitzel and son, Bert, and Grandma Stone.

T. N. Bobbitt was a passenger for Lincoln on No. 17 Monday to visit his wife, who is sick at the home of their son, Charles Bobbitt.

J. A. Shaffer was in Lincoln Monday evening to attend a meeting of the Lincoln Poultry association. He returned home Tuesday on No. 18.

Mrs. Dan Williams was quite sick Wednesday. Her mother, Mrs. Henry Suders, of Clatonia, came up and stayed several days with her. She is better at present.

William Bobbitt and family of Tekamah, Neb., autoed to Lincoln Friday to see his mother, returning home Sunday, stopping a few moments in Alvo. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bobbitt of Lincoln accompanied them to Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jordan autoed to Ashland Monday.

Mrs. George Curyea went to Lincoln Tuesday on No. 13.

Grandpa Keefer is visiting his son, Chris Keefer and family, this week.

Mrs. Ella Prouty and daughter, Bessie, visited in Lincoln a few days last week.

Henry Snoko went to Lincoln Saturday morning, returning Tuesday morning.

Harry Parsell and family ate Thanksgiving turkey with Joe Parsell and family.

Miss Stella Swacker and Walter Marshall of Greenwood were married Wednesday at Lincoln.

Arl Prouty of Falls City is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ella Prouty, this week.

The M. W. A. will give a supper Friday evening to the members and their families at the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Rasp went to Omaha Saturday morning to visit their sons for several days.

Miss Floss Strain and brother, Elmer Strain, spent Thanksgiving with their aunt, Mrs. D. A. Vincent.

C. C. Bucknell and family spent Thanksgiving in Lincoln with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Boyles. Mrs. Bucknell remained until Sunday.

Harry Vickers came in from Omaha Saturday evening to visit until Monday with his mother, Mrs. Mary Vickers.

Harvey Rasp returned Monday evening from Omaha, where he visited his brothers, Albert and John Rasp and wives.

The Alvo school gave a program and box social Tuesday night at the hall. The proceeds, which amounted to $24, will be used for purchasing necessary school equipments.

Mrs. E. M. Stone and son were in Lincoln Saturday.

Albert Foreman of Lincoln is spending this week at the home of his parents.

Miss Mae Prouty of Dunbar, Neb., visited her mother, Mrs. Ella Prouty, last week.

Mrs. Alice Riner of University Place spent Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. Joe Parsell.

Mrs. Joe Prouty of University Place spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Skiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cashner of University Place spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dreamer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mares of Bennett visited last week with Mrs. Mares' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hite.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parsell and daughter visited a few days last week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parsell.

Mrs. Alex Skiles returned Monday from University Place, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joe Prouty.

Miss Alta Linch visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Linch, last week during her Thanksgiving vacation. She returned to York Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick received a telegram Sunday from Craig stating that her brother had passed away. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick left Monday to attend the funeral.

Mrs. William Newkirk went to Greenwood Tuesday of last week to visit her daughter, Mrs. Paling, remaining until last Sunday. Mr. Newkirk and Miss Cecil spent Thanksgiving there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker entertained at dinner Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. William Frank of Bennett, Miss Pearl Woodard and Messrs. Guy Shrews, H. L. Clapp, jr., of Elmwood, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Johnson and children and Miss Grace Bailey.

James Jordan went to Omaha Tuesday.

Mrs. Oscar Snavelly was a Lincoln visitor Tuesday.

Sam Cashner had business at the capital city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Casey were trading at Lincoln Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick were in Lincoln last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Casey were in Lincoln Thanksgiving day.

John Skiles of Mount Rose, Ia., is here visiting his brother, Alex Skiles.

Miss Mary Suders is here from Clatonia visiting relatives this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Moss at Eagle.

Mrs. William Higgins went to Lincoln last Wednesday evening to visit relatives.

Chat Morney of Murdock, with his force of men, were in the railroad yards at Alvo Tuesday.

Mrs. George Bobbitt went to Lincoln Tuesday evening on No. 17.

Miss Genevieve Horsh of University Place visited from Friday until Sunday with Miss Pearl Keefer.

Mrs. George Condra, Miss Cordelia Condra and Mrs. Billmeyer of Lincoln visited Friday at the home of Mrs. S. C. Boyles.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Boyles entertained at dinner Thanksgiving Miss Russell of South Dakota, Mr. Somerville of McCook, Neb.; Mrs. Joe Prouty of University Place, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Skiles and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Keefer and family.

The A. O. U. W. elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Charles Ays, P. M. W.; A. I. Bird, M. W.; Charles Snavelly, foreman; Bob Johnson, overseer; J. A. Shaffer, R. F.; Harry Parsell, R.; Harley Wolfe, guide; Dean Kamm, I. W.; Henry Hanson, O. W.; Ed Hurlbut, W. W. Bird and A. J. Friend, trustees.

Mrs. Joe Richardson is visiting in Iowa.

Mrs. Charles Shelton went to Lincoln Monday evening.

Harry Parsell was in Greenwood Monday on business.

J. H. Miller was in Lincoln Wednesday on business.

J. P. Rouse was attending to business at Lincoln Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wolfe were trading in Lincoln Wednesday.

Mrs. McCurdy is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bud Grove and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Foreman were in Lincoln Saturday on business.

Miss Orpha Mullin was calling on friends at Murdock on Saturday of last week.

Mrs. E. D. Friend and daughter are visiting this week with her mother, Mrs. Mary Skinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cook of Ord are visiting with Aunt Bina Kitzel and Frank Cook and family and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dreamer and Mrs. Ed Stone autoed to Lincoln Tuesday, spending the day there.

J. H. Quellhorst went to Octavia Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving with his daughter, Mrs. Birkholder and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bird and his brother, Clark Bird, of Indiana, took dinner Saturday with A. I. Bird and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cashner of University Place and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cashner, sr., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stone.

Mrs. Bina Kitzel entertained on Thanksgiving day her brother, J. D. Cook and family of Ord, Neb.; her nephew, Frank Cook, of Havelock, and James Cook of Beaver City, Neb.; her children, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Weichel of Elmwood, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stone and son, William Kitzel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kitzel, Bert Kitzel and Mrs. M. P. Stone.

The Brotherhood of American

Yeomen elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Foreman, George D. Bobbitt; M. C., J. E. Parsell; C., Mrs. Clo O. Shaffer; M. A., Ed Stroman; chaplain, J. H. Stroemer; overseer, A. J. Foreman; watchman, Alfred Stroemer; sentinel, Henry M. Hanson; guard, A. H. Klyver; Lady Rowena, Mrs. W. E. Newkirk; Lady Rebecca, Mrs. A. J. Foreman.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cole spent Thanksgiving day with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Foreman, returning Thursday evening to their home at Havelock.

Visit Hospital.

Mrs. Hans Seivers, Mrs. Jacob Tritsch and Mrs. John Albert went to Immanuel hospital at Omaha this morning to visit Miss Emma Albert and A. R. Roessler for a few hours. John Albert called on these patients yesterday and found his daughter improved considerably, the inflammation of the wound being considerably reduced and it is hoped that Miss Emma is now on the way to recovery. Mr. Roessler is able to sit up and his physician allows him to go about with a crutch, but not far as yet.

Injured at the Shops.

Frank Slatinsky, an employe of the Burlington, working on the freight car repair track, had the misfortune to step on a nail while working on his job this morning, resulting in quite a painful wound. His injury was dressed by the company physician and Mr. Slatinsky will lay off for a short time.

Without opiates or harmful drugs of any kind Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops coughs and cures colds. Do not accept any substitute. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.