Ends Winter's Troubles.
To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost-bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold-sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of Burns, Boils, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Bruises, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at F. G. Fricke & Co.
Uncle Jimmie Hickson Here.
From Wednesday's Dally.
Uncle Jimmie Hickson came down from South Omaha yesterday and gave testimony in the case of Wanderholm vs. the C., B. & Q. Uncle Jimmie was one of the men that was on the job when the water works were first put in and stayed with it until a few months ago. He was with the company when only three of the force were on salaries, being the superintendent, the manager and your Uncle Jimmie. Twenty-two years for one concern, 365 days in the year was the time Uncle Jimmie was in for, according to his own statement to the court yesterday.
Tom Sherwood and Ralph, his brother, were Lincoln passengers this afternoon.

PASSES CUT OFF FOR RAILROAD EMPLOYES
Who Will Have Hard Time Securing Passes Over Other Roads Than Their Own.
The Interstate Commerce commission is out with a ruling that makes it pretty hard for even railroad people to get transportation on lines other than their own.
In the past most any person connected with most any railroad in the country could go to an official of most any other railroad and upon making a showing of employment secure a pass to any point on that line. After the first of the year this is all to be changed. From that time on, if any official or employe of one road desires to travel over some other road, that person must make application through the general passenger agent of the road for which that employe works. Then the general passenger agent will make the request upon some person connected with the road from which the pass is desired. This person must be one connected with the passenger department and designated by the Interstate Commerce commission.
Railroad people, especially those who are not far enough up to carry titles, are grieved over the ruling, as they see in it a curtailing of their vacation and other trips, contending that their superior officers will not want to be annoyed by being asked to make requests upon other roads for transportation.

Pollard's Decision Final.
E. M. Pollard of Nehawka, who was elected as secretary of the Taft permanent organization in this city Tuesday, reaffirms his early decision not to serve in that capacity. According to word received from Mr. Pollard yesterday, there is a general impression abroad that he does not intend to resign, but will continue with the work during the coming preferential campaign. In this connection he says: "I stated on the convention floor that I thought it would be impossible for me to act further. My decision was reached after mature deliberation and is final."
Business reasons are assigned by Mr. Pollard as the cause of his inability to continue in the fight as an official of the new organization. He does not expect to stay out of the primary fray entirely, however, and will devote whatever time he can to the furtherance of the Taft cause in the state.—Lincoln Journal.
Married by Judge Beeson.
Last Saturday afternoon at the county judge's office in this city occurred a very pretty wedding, the contracting parties being LeGrand B. Tucker of Fort Morgan, Colo., and Miss Glen Dora Haley of Illinois. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the groom's sister, Miss Tucker, and his uncle, Lig Brown. The ceremony was performed by Judge Beeson and was very impressive. The happy young couple went to Kenosha, where they will be guests of their Uncle Lig Brown over the holidays, after which they will go to Fort Morgan, where the groom is engaged in business.
Miss Virgie McDaniel returned from Lexington, Mo., last evening, where she has been attending a ladies' seminary, and will spend the Christmas vacation with her parents, J. E. McDaniel and wife.

Lived in Ward 50 Years.
Mark Buttery, the genial engineer at Heisel's mill, enjoys a distinction which no other resident of the city does, and maybe no other native of the state. On Thanksgiving day Mr. Buttery celebrated his fiftieth birthday, and the remarkable thing about the event was that he was born in the ward, being the Second ward of Plattsmouth, in which he has resided ever since. He was married in the same ward, and his children were also born in the ward. Mr. Buttery, while not the oldest inhabitant in the ward, has resided there much longer than any other citizen in it.
