CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

January 1, 1912, Ends the Fiftieth Year of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eikenbary's Wedded Life.

The marriage record in the office of Judge Beeson of fifty years ago, the same being yellow with the elapse of half a century, is the record of the marriage of Henry Eikenbary and Miss Elizabeth M. Arnold. The record states that the ceremony was performed January 1, 1862, by R. M. Clark, probate judge, at the house of Moses Stocking, in the presence of Hon. Samuel Maxwell, A. Tutt and others.

The fiftieth anniversary of this marriage was celebrated New Year's day at the residence of Henry Eikenbary and wife, the bride and groom of fifty years ago, a number of their relatives and friends being entertained in honor of the event. Mr. Eikenbary was born January 10, 1835, in Union county, Indiana, and his wife was born August 9, 1844, in Kalamazoo county, Michigan. After their marriage, January 1, 1862, Mr. and Mrs. Eikenbary moved to their home south of this city, where they have resided since. Five children were born to them as follows: Mrs. Charles A. Vallery of St. Joseph, Mo.; Mrs. Joseph J. Johnson of Denver, Colo.; Miss Emma Eikenbary; two sons died in infancy. In their early married life they endured many hardships during the war, and were deprived of many of the luxuries which they now enjoy. In 1860 Mr. Eikenbary freighted across the plains to Denver with oxen.

Among those present Monday to assist Mr. and Mrs. Eikenbary in the celebration of their golden wedding were: Oscar Gopen and wife, Floyd Gopen and wife, Geo. Snyder and wife, Winfield Swan and wife, James Pittman and wife A. W. White and wife, Frank Moore, Miss Mary Moore, Mrs. Maria Gopen, Mrs. Fannie Eikenbary, Mrs. Mattie Wiles, Mrs. Jacob Vallery, jr., and Mrs. Edith Donelan. The out-of-town guests were: J. C. (Prof.) Eikenbary, Lincoln; Charles Moyer and wife, York, Neb.; Dr. and Mrs. Harris, Auburn; Mrs. J. C. Thygeson, Nebraska City; Sarah Latta, Lincoln, and Lydia Henton, York, sisters of Mr. Eikenbary, could not attend. Mrs. A. W. White of this city, Mrs. Maria Gopen of near Mynard, sisters, and J. C. Eikenbary of Lincoln, brother, were the only near collateral relation that could attend. One grandchild, Joseph Henry Johnson of Denver, was present. The following lines explain themselves:

1862. Golden Wedding.
Just fifty years have passed away
Since you and I were wed,
How swiftly since that bridal day
The fifty years have sped.
God providence on us hath shone,
His gracious hand hath led,
And ne'er in before his throne
We've said our daily bread.

1912.
Golden Wedding.
Just fifty years have passed away
Since you and I were wed,
How swiftly since that bridal day
The fifty years have sped.
God providence on us hath shone,
His gracious hand hath led,
And ne'er in before his throne
We've said our daily bread.

Together struggling up the hill
Of life's uneven way,
Our hearts are knit more closely still;
We've reached this golden day,
We've known the bliss which joy imparts,
Life's raptures and its tears;
But God has let us youthful hearts
Bring into ripened years.

In children God to us hath given,
We love our youth anew;
Some wait for us today in heaven,
They all to us are true.
And yet, by silvered threads entwined
Among the threads of gold,
And furrows down our cheeks we find
That we are growing old.

Just fifty years ago we wed,
Just fifty years today;
We two are one the preacher said,
And so we've held our way;
The ties of love which bound us then
Today are golden thread;
And this will never break till when
We're numbered with the dead.
Sister Lydia E. Henton.

LEGAL ADVERTISING.

The following section of a law regarding the disposition or placing of legal advertising in newspapers was passed by the Nebraska legislature of 1909, and we desire the friends of the Journal to make a note of its provisions and govern themselves accordingly:

"That from and after the passage and approval of this act it shall be the lawful right of any plaintiff or petitioner in any suit, action or proceeding, pending or prosecuted in any of the district courts of this state, in which it is necessary to publish in a newspaper any notice or copy of an order, growing out of, or connected with such action or proceeding either by himself or his attorney of record, to designate in what newspaper such notice or copy of order shall be published. And it shall be the right of the widow, widower, or a majority of the legatees or devisees of lawful age, of the estate of deceased testator to designate the newspaper in which the notices pertaining to the settlement of the estates of such deceased persons shall be published. And it shall be the duty of the judges of the district court, county judges or any other officer charged with the duty of ordering, directing or superintending the publication of any of such notices, or copies of orders, to strictly comply with such designations, when made in accordance with the provisions of this act."

We want the friends of the Journal throughout Cass county to understand that when they have district court notices or county court notices to publish they are empowered with the right to designate the paper in which such notices shall be published.

Wedding at Elmwood.

On Wednesday evening, December 28, at 5 o'clock, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. H. Sickman, near Eagle, occurred the marriage of Miss Lizzie Nickel to Mr. Lloyd Eidenmiller, both of this city. Rev. Gumm of the Eagle M. E. church performed the ceremony, which was a strictly private affair. Mrs. Eidenmiller is a daughter of the late Mrs. Mary Nickel, and is a young lady of many graces of mind and character. The groom is classed among Elmwood's best young men. He is the eldest son of John Eidenmiller and is now very profitably engaged with his father in the blacksmith and wagon-making business here.—Leader-Echo.

C. D. Clapp of Elmwood was a Plattsmouth visitor today, looking after business matters in the county court.

GREENWOOD.

Donald Sheffer has had a very severe cold this week.
Mrs. Pete Mockenhaupt is suffering from influenza.
Al Etheridge is here visiting his mother, Mrs. Etheridge.
Homer Kimmerer was unfortunate enough to lose $10 while in town Saturday.
The watch services at the M. E. church were given up on account of the very severe weather.
Mrs. Robert Kyles' mother, Mrs. Rager, from Murdock, is here visiting relatives and friends.
Last Friday evening a reception was held at the M. E. church in honor of Rev. Reynolds and his bride.
The Southland Jubilee Singer quartet will be at the Christian church Saturday evening, January 6.
Mrs. P. L. Harper of Lincoln and her mother, Mrs. Stewart of Chariton, Iowa, are visiting relatives here.
Dr. Jones and family spent Sunday in the country with Mr. Zeigler and family, it being the celebration of Mrs. Zeigler's and Mrs. Jones' birthdays.
Pearly Clymer had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse this week as a result of being cut on the barb-wire while fighting the horses in an adjoining pasture.
The dentist, Dr. Lamb, did not make his regular visit this week, as during the preceding night his office in Lincoln was robbed. The extent of the robbery is not known. He will be here next Wednesday as usual.
Mr. Elwood went to a dentist's in Lincoln Saturday morning and had a couple of teeth extracted, which caused a severe hemorrhage. Upon returning to Greenwood he was obliged to call upon Dr. Jones to stop it for him.

YOU RISK NO MONEY

Our Reputation and Money Are Back of This Offer.

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obligated to us in any way whatever, if you accept this offer. Could anything be more fair for you? Is there any reason why you should hesitate to put our claims to a practical test? A most scientific, common-sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. They are very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. They do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping, or other inconvenience. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

We urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Three sizes, 10c, 25c and 50c. Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. F. G. Fricke & Co.

William Bornemier, a prominent young farmer of near Elmwood, was a county seat visitor today attending to business matters at the court house, and he dropped in at the Journal office and entered his name on the list of the Journal family. Mr. Bornemier is a pleasant gentleman to meet and has made a fine success of farming and stands high in the community in which he lives.

At a session of the county board of commissioners Tuesday James Robertson filed the appointment of his daughter, Miss Jessie, to be deputy clerk of the district court, and the board fixed her compensation at $800 per annum, to be paid out of the fees of the office.

January Clearance Sale!

We start with this first week of January to clear the decks for the new Spring season. To do this the first thing is to close out all left over lines of Winter goods and as it happens this year it comes at a time when these goods are most needed. Everything in the house not contract goods and belonging to winter stocks, will be closed out at genuine reductions. All middlemen's profits are entirely eliminated in this sale, and you buy goods right here at your door for less than manufacturer's cost. We are busy arranging these stocks and getting them in convenient form for quick selling, but here are a few items that will indicate the low prices which prevail:

- Men's Overcoats..... $5, 7, 9, 10 and $12
- Men's Winter Suits in good reliable fabrics and well made.... 7, 9, 10, 12 and $14
- Men's Fleece Lined Underwear..... 39c
- Men's Fine Jersey Overshirts..... 50c
- Men's Flannel Shirts with collars attached..... 95c
- Men's Fine Wool Sox..... 19c
- Men's Pants in strong durable fabrics..... $1.90, $2.25 and $3
- Men's Fleece Lined Coats..... $3.90

Watch our Space for further Items and prices. C. E. Wescott's Sons Men's Fur Caps $2.65
