

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Plattsmouth, Neb., Feb. 6, 1912. Board met pursuant to adjournment. Present, M. L. Friedrich, C. R. Jordan and C. E. Heebner, County Commissioners; D. C. Morgan, County Clerk.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Includes entries like 'Cann, Doud and Lytle', 'C. H. Taylor, State vs. McCann', 'E. C. Robey, assigned C. E. Johnson, State vs. McCann', etc.

FUNERAL OF LATE JOSEPH KOUBEK

The Last Sad Rites Over the Remains of a Highly Esteemed Citizen.

The funeral of Joseph Koubek occurred yesterday afternoon at 2:30 from the residence, to the Holy Rosary Catholic church, where the last sad rites were performed. The funeral was conducted by Father John Vleck, pastor of the Holy Rosary church.

Card of Thanks. To the kind neighbors and friends who so generously assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father, we wish to express our sincere thanks, and especially do we desire to express our gratitude to the St. John's lodge, Red Men, Eagles, the Burlington shop men and others who sent floral tributes.

THE LADIES MINSTRELS PLAY AT LOUISVILLE

The Ladies Minstrels returned from Louisville Saturday night well pleased with their reception and generous treatment by the Louisville people, and speak in the highest praise of the hospitality of the Louisville people.

Operated on for Appendicitis. Miss Alice Lewis, who has been spending some weeks with her brother, John W. Lewis, at Craig, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital at Omaha yesterday, where she will be operated on this morning at 10 o'clock for appendicitis.

Died at Council Bluffs. Mrs. Lou Gammon of Pacific Junction died at a Council Bluffs hospital last night, after a brief illness with pneumonia.

Funeral of Mrs. Short. The funeral of Mrs. Short occurred yesterday from the Burlington station on the arrival of No. 24, due at 1:12. The service was held at Omaha at 10 a. m.

Visited August Roesler. William Budig and his men in the upholstering department of the Burlington shops went up to call on August Roesler Saturday afternoon.

Died at Council Bluffs. Mrs. Lou Gammon of Pacific Junction died at a Council Bluffs hospital last night, after a brief illness with pneumonia.

Funeral of Mrs. Short. The funeral of Mrs. Short occurred yesterday from the Burlington station on the arrival of No. 24, due at 1:12.

Visited August Roesler. William Budig and his men in the upholstering department of the Burlington shops went up to call on August Roesler Saturday afternoon.

Died at Council Bluffs. Mrs. Lou Gammon of Pacific Junction died at a Council Bluffs hospital last night, after a brief illness with pneumonia.

Funeral of Mrs. Short. The funeral of Mrs. Short occurred yesterday from the Burlington station on the arrival of No. 24, due at 1:12.

Visited August Roesler. William Budig and his men in the upholstering department of the Burlington shops went up to call on August Roesler Saturday afternoon.

Died at Council Bluffs. Mrs. Lou Gammon of Pacific Junction died at a Council Bluffs hospital last night, after a brief illness with pneumonia.

Funeral of Mrs. Short. The funeral of Mrs. Short occurred yesterday from the Burlington station on the arrival of No. 24, due at 1:12.

Visited August Roesler. William Budig and his men in the upholstering department of the Burlington shops went up to call on August Roesler Saturday afternoon.

Died at Council Bluffs. Mrs. Lou Gammon of Pacific Junction died at a Council Bluffs hospital last night, after a brief illness with pneumonia.

Funeral of Mrs. Short. The funeral of Mrs. Short occurred yesterday from the Burlington station on the arrival of No. 24, due at 1:12.

Visited August Roesler. William Budig and his men in the upholstering department of the Burlington shops went up to call on August Roesler Saturday afternoon.

Died at Council Bluffs. Mrs. Lou Gammon of Pacific Junction died at a Council Bluffs hospital last night, after a brief illness with pneumonia.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

we will offer you an extra special price on short lengths. You will find Embroideries, Laces, (Trimming-Braids) Ribbons, All-Overs, Gingham, Muslins, Dress Goods, Silks, Damask, and in fact we have short lengths in most anything you will ask us for, and the price will be LESS than the goods are worth.

Monday and Tuesday, February 12th and 13th, will save you money if you do your shopping HERE.

PAY-DAY SPECIALS!

MONDAY and TUESDAY February 12 and 13

we will offer you an extra special price on short lengths. You will find Embroideries, Laces, (Trimming-Braids) Ribbons, All-Overs, Gingham, Muslins, Dress Goods, Silks, Damask, and in fact we have short lengths in most anything you will ask us for, and the price will be LESS than the goods are worth.

Monday and Tuesday, February 12th and 13th, will save you money if you do your shopping HERE.

NEHAWKA. News.

Miss Olive Whiteman is reported as quite seriously sick this week, being threatened with an attack of appendicitis.

T. E. Fulton has a new blacksmith in the person of C. F. Adams, lately of Tecumseh. Mr. Adams is a No. 1 horseshoer and a good all-around blacksmith.

Mr. and Mrs. William Newman and son, who are here from Colorado visiting, went to Murray on the Saturday evening train, where they expected to visit for a few days.

Mrs. William Troop shipped a half dozen of her fine Plymouth Rock chickens to George Young at Alva, Okla., the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox and son, Earl, and Mrs. Elizabeth Dietz, left Tuesday morning for Alva, Okla., where they will visit with friends and relatives.

George Hansen was in town Tuesday evening blowing his head off over the fact that he got from one to two dozen eggs a day.

Mrs. J. M. Palmer left Monday evening for Oskaloosa, Iowa, where she will undergo surgical treatment in the hopes of relief from enlarged glands on her neck.

A wedding of interest to many Nehawka people took place at Long Beach, Cal., on Wednesday, February 7, 1912, when Mrs. Emma Pollard Wallace and H. A. Hillborn were united in marriage.

William Budig and his men in the upholstering department of the Burlington shops went up to call on August Roesler Saturday afternoon.

Rue Frans spent Sunday with his parents at Union, returning on the evening train yesterday.

LOUISVILLE. Courier.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ackles, Tuesday, February 6.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carlson, January 28, a girl. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Urwin, February 7, a boy.

Mrs. Sam Stribling was called to Portsmouth, Iowa, this week on account of the death of her youngest daughter.

Born—February 1, to Mr. and Mrs. Denis Gardner of Mullen, Neb., a girl. Mrs. Gardner is a former Louisville girl and was Miss Blanch Rathbun.

Mr. and Mrs. Ami Hoover came up from Plattsmouth Tuesday evening. Ami is agent for the Singer Sewing Machine company, and is doing a good business.

Mr. T. Hartman received word Sunday evening of the death of her sister in Iowa. She was unable to leave home, but Rev. Hartman left Tuesday.

Mrs. Henry Bluma, son and daughter, George and Louise, left Monday for Oklahoma, where they were called by the death of Mrs. Bluma's daughter, Mrs. Panscover.

Since our last issue, in which we announced that Amos Keiser had sold his land in Canada, we have learned that Mr. Keiser will move to Oregon, going first to Portland.

George and Will Lohnes were at Omaha Monday to call on their brother, who was in the Presbyterian hospital, the latter has recovered sufficiently to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grimes of San Francisco have written to friends in this vicinity that they expect to be in Louisville in the near future for a short visit, on their way to Iowa, where Mr. Grimes father is ill.

Ed Lohnes Home From Hospital. Ed Lohnes, who has been in the hospital at Omaha for the past few weeks, where he was operated upon for appendicitis, has recovered sufficiently to return to his home near Cedar Creek.

Commander of the Plattsmouth Post Edwin Bates and Quartermaster T. M. Carter were selected as delegates to meet with representatives from the G. A. R. posts in this district at Omaha today and boarded the morning train for that city.

Do You want an AUCTIONEER? If you do, get one who has Experience, Ability, Judgement.

Ira Bates, 8 Miles South of Plattsmouth (the Old Martin Farm) has installed a Saw Mill on his place, and is prepared to furnish hard lumber of all kinds, posts and chunk wood.

Ed Lohnes Home From Hospital. Ed Lohnes, who has been in the hospital at Omaha for the past few weeks, where he was operated upon for appendicitis, has recovered sufficiently to return to his home near Cedar Creek.

Do You want an AUCTIONEER? If you do, get one who has Experience, Ability, Judgement.

Ira Bates, 8 Miles South of Plattsmouth (the Old Martin Farm) has installed a Saw Mill on his place, and is prepared to furnish hard lumber of all kinds, posts and chunk wood.

Ed Lohnes Home From Hospital. Ed Lohnes, who has been in the hospital at Omaha for the past few weeks, where he was operated upon for appendicitis, has recovered sufficiently to return to his home near Cedar Creek.

Do You want an AUCTIONEER? If you do, get one who has Experience, Ability, Judgement.

Ira Bates, 8 Miles South of Plattsmouth (the Old Martin Farm) has installed a Saw Mill on his place, and is prepared to furnish hard lumber of all kinds, posts and chunk wood.