LID ON KNOX INCIDENT

News of Ospina's Action Kept From Colombian Public.

Bogota, Colombia, Feb. 22.—The action of General Pedro Nel Ospina, Colombian minister to the United States, in notifying the state department at Washington that the visit to Colombia of Secretary of State Knox would be inopportune has not become known to the general public.

The Colombian government has the matter under consideration, but either the newspapers are ignorant of the occurrence or else comment has been suppressed.

FIRE IN HOUSTON COSTS $7,000,000

Hundreds of Houses and Many Factories Are Burned.

Houston, Tex., Feb. 22.—In the wake of the most destructive fire in the history of Houston, smoldering wreckage today covers an area about one and one-half miles in length and varying in width from 200 yards to one-half mile in the northeastern section of the city. More than a dozen of the city's most important industrial enterprises are in ruins, 200 or more dwellings and store buildings are in ashes and approximately 1,000 persons are homeless.

An accurate statement of the monetary loss is not yet possible, but the most conservative is that it will reach at least $7,000,000. The insurance carried will not exceed 40 per cent. Except for a few who suffered minor burns and bruises, no casualties attended the fire.

ANARCHY IN MEXICO

Robber Bands Are Operating Without Interruption in Several Sections.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Advice from Mexico to the state department indicating widespread anarchy south of the Rio Grande, caused much uneasiness in official circles. Several cities and towns are reported to be in the hands of rebels, protests by Americans against robberies are multiplying and robber bands are operating without apparent interruption throughout the republic.

It is feared here that all that is needed to plunge Mexico into civil strife is the appearance of a leader, who can harmonize the factions and bring the rebellious elements together.

WOODMEN INSURGENTS MEET

Head Consul Talbot's Camp Has Delegation at Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Feb. 22.—Prepared to make a strenuous fight against the so called Mobile bill and its increase in rates recently adopted by the Modern Woodmen of America, scores of delegates from all parts of the United States arrived here to attend the national Modern Woodmen assembly, which begins today.

Among the "insurgent" delegates who are here are F. E. Priest of Lincoln, Neb., representing Lincoln camp No. 969, of which A. R. Talbot, head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, is a member.

Iowa has sent the largest number of delegates of any one state.

Convict Runs Guantlet of Bullets.

Leavenworth, Feb. 22.—H. C. Logan, a convict at the state penitentiary, ran unharmed through a hail of bullets in an attempt to escape, only to be recaptured by an unarmed guard, after he had reached cover. Logan eluded guards in the prison hospital, where he was confined with a broken right arm, and hid behind a shack near the west gate. When the gate was opened he made a dash.

MY HAT IN RING, SAYS ROOSEVELT

Reply Made to Friend Who Asks if He is Candidate.

PROMISES ANSWER MONDAY.

Politician at Cleveland Demands Direct and Immediate Reply—Colonel Makes Four speeches in Ohio—Reiterates Belief in Progressive Policy.

Cleveland, Feb. 22.—"My hat is in the ring."

That is what Theodore Roosevelt said here when an admiring Cleveland friend sought to learn whether he was a candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency.

During the brief stay of Colonel Roosevelt in Cleveland W. F. Eirick, well known locally in politics, greeted the former president, whom he knew well.

"I want a direct answer, Colonel," said Mr. Eirick. "All your friends want to know and want to know now whether you are to be a candidate."

"My hat is in the ring," replied Colonel Roosevelt. "You will have my answer Monday."

Makes Four Speeches.

Belief in the political doctrines of the "progressives" was reiterated by Mr. Roosevelt, who made four speeches in Ohio. It was his first trip of the kind since the series of journeys shortly after his return from Africa in 1910. A mixture of snow and rain fell steadily, but Colonel Roosevelt was welcomed by crowds wherever he went.

On the train between Columbus and Cleveland Colonel Roosevelt conferred at length with a number of politicians leading the Roosevelt movement in this state. Among them were A. L. Garford of Elyria, member of the Roosevelt national committee; Nathaniel C. Wright of Cleveland, chairman of the Roosevelt national publicity committee, and Judge R. M. Wana-maker of Akron.

James R. Garfield, secretary of the interior in the Roosevelt cabinet, and Frank C. Knox, chairman of the Republican state committee of Michigan, also talked with Colonel Roosevelt, and in Columbus he saw Walter Brown, chairman of the Ohio Republican state central committee.

Here Colonel Roosevelt was asked what he thought of his reception in Ohio.

"Bully, by George," was the reply. Addressing the constitutional convention, he several times turned aside from his prepared speech long enough for an epigram or two. When he came to the subject of control of corporations, he said:

"Big business always shudders slightly when I speak of it."

The colonel's speeches in the rotunda of the capitol and in Gallor were devoted largely to an exposition of his well known views upon the baby question. At Cleveland he paid his compliments to the wife of the "average American," saying that though he thought highly of the man he thought more highly of the man's wife.

MORE TELEGRAMS READ

Packers Scold Branch Managers Over Wire for Poor Prices.

Chicago, Feb. 22.—Scores of telegrams alleged to have been sent by Louis H. Heyman, manager of the dressed beef department of Morris & Co., urging eastern representatives to obtain higher prices were read in the packers' trial.

The object of the government in introducing the telegrams was to show the test case, the basis used by the packers in fixing the selling price.

In one message sent to Boston, Heyman said: "What are you trying to do, put us out of business with your low selling prices?"

One telegram addressed to a New York representative read: "This is awful and we cannot stand for it. Hold beef for better price, if you don't sell another carcass this week."

Another message to a New York agent read: "If you don't get prices up we will have to reduce your shipments."

Takes Fourth of the Bank's Deposits

Los Angeles, Feb. 22.—Earl Standard, the missing bookkeeper of the American National bank of Pomona, whose alleged defalcations were found to amount to $149,000, is said to be in hiding here. His arrest is expected soon. The entire surplus and half the capital stock of the bank are said to have been swept away by the shortage, which amounted to one-fourth of its total deposits.

Jealous Negro Wounds Two.

Waterloo, Ia., Feb. 22.—James Brown, a negro, shot his best girl, Miss Myrtle Thornton, and stabbed his rival, Ulysses Williams, with a paper knife because his girl danced the "turkey trot" with the rival. Both victims may die. Brown is under arrest.

Earthquake is Cabled From San Jose

Washington, Feb. 22.—Senor Calva the Costa Rican minister, received a cablegram from San Jose with a single word, "earthquake," in it. He fears another catastrophe has taken place.

Buy Your Oranges at Home.

A representative of the Journal noticed a stranger in the city with a wagon-load of oranges this morning, the city special price kind, that are usually placed on the wholesale markets for what they will bring. They are usually culls from a large or over-shipment received by the commission men of the city and leavings from what cannot be shipped out of the city again. This individual will probably make the rounds of the city tomorrow with this stock of fruit and offer them to you at a very low price, which at the same time will be no less than what you can buy a better quality from the home dealer. We have firms in the city offering a good grade of the popular Sunkist oranges as low as 15 cents per dozen, and even lower in quantity lots. When this strange individual calls on you tomorrow give him the go-by until you see your home dealer and get his price. You will be better satisfied with the quality of the fruit and the price also.

The Slow Answer!

Did you ever hear your telephone bell ring and ring again, when you were busy and did not answer?

If you did the operator probably finally reported to the party calling you, "They do not answer." (Note she never says, "They are not there.") Then she disconnected your line.

Perhaps five seconds later, just six seconds too late, you answered. You got no reply. You, no doubt, exclaimed, "My bell rang."

Yes, your bell did ring, but you did not answer promptly. Your delay caused either the loss of a customer or inconvenience to a friend.

Our constant endeavor is to give the quickest and best telephone service that human ingenuity can devise.

Your attitude in calling or receiving calls will hinder or aid our best efforts. Won't you help us?
