D. J. Pitman shipped a carload of corn Wednesday.

H. G. Todd was on the South Omaha market Tuesday with a car of hogs.

Mrs. Levi Rusterholtz has been numbered with the sick for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown attended the dance in Plattsmouth Monday night.

The roads are in very bad condition, and almost impassable in some places.

Mrs. Nix, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, is on the improve somewhat.

Glen L. Rhoden shipped a carload of cattle to the South Omaha market Sunday evening.

Mrs. Peter Smith, who has been sick for the past six weeks, is feeling some better the past few days.

Oscar Campbell, little son of Andy Campbell, is on the sick list, but nothing of a serious nature.

Paul Richter came in from Ness City, Kansas, last week, and expects to remain here during the coming season.

David Murray's little child, which has been quite ill with pneumonia, has been on the improve for several days.

Miss Marie Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meek Davis, has been quite ill with a threatened attack of pneumonia, but is up and around again.

Elmer Boedeker and Ben Dill were in Lincoln Tuesday looking after the purchase of a threshing machine for a company of farmers in their vicinity.

Miss Fay Oldham spent a week with her aunt, Mrs. Dora Moore, in Plattsmouth, while her uncle, George Oldham, attended the funeral of his brother at Beaver City, Neb.

George R. Berger, who spent the greater part of the winter in Murray and vicinity, returned to Ness City, Kansas, Sunday night. He also shipped a carload of hedge posts to his farm for the purpose of fencing.

Miss Ethyl Bayne of Plattsmouth has accepted a position in the Murray State bank as an assistant to Cashier Boedeker, and has entered upon the discharge of her duties. She is a fine young lady and very competent for the position.

When you look at the photos which you can see smiling at you from every shop window in town, it no doubt reminds the youngsters of the town that this is leap year. And if those photos don't draw a crowd, there is no use in advertising. Don't forget the date—March 2—and don't forget the price of admission—25 cents. And, also, don't forget the dance after the entertainment. Gents' tickets to the dance, 25 cents; ladies free. And, most of all, don't forget to come.

Mr. V. A. Kennedy is among the sick this week.

W. C. Brown was an Omaha visitor Thursday.

Mrs. Alva Long has been slightly ill for several days.

Considerable sickness in this vicinity at the present time.

Miss Elsie Stokes was visiting in Lincoln a few days last week.

James Loughridge has been numbered with the sick the past few days.

Miss Mary Moore came home from Cedar Creek to spend Sunday with her parents.

Miss Lena Young of the Cedar Creek schools, visited over Sunday with her parents.

Ray Davis and family of Eight Mile Grove were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Davis Wednesday.

Lorine, the little 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hatchett, has been quite sick for a few days.

Charley Spangler and James Hatchett went to Omaha Wednesday evening to take in the automobile show.

A. M. Holmes returned home Tuesday, after a few days' visit with his daughter, Mrs. C. A. Rawls and family, in Plattsmouth.

Miss Clara Young was home from Weeping Water to spend Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tison returned home, after a week or ten days' visit with relatives and friends at Plainview and Coleridge, Nebraska.

H. R. Manspeaker, living three miles southeast of Murray expects to remove next week to Anderson county, Kansas, near Garnett, the county seat.

Mrs. Baumaster of Plattsmouth is spending the week with Mrs. W. E. Dull and assisting in the care of Mr. Dull, who seems to not gain strength as fast as he should.

Demie Hiatt, of the firm of Hiatt & Tutt, is suffering from a sore heel, which has been a source of considerable annoyance. He kept to his room Wednesday in consequence.

The Missionary Society met with Mrs. W. S. Smith Friday of last week. The weather was bad, but there was a good attendance. After the business session dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. E. M. Burger returned from Long Pine, Brown county, Nebraska, Wednesday morning, where she went to visit her daughter. Mr. Burger was taken sick there and was not able to return with his wife.

The person who swiped the laprobes from a buggy at the barn of Mr. Brown will save some trouble by returning them. The party who took them is well known, and if returned nothing will be said, but if not, then look out.

Walt Vallery returned from Kansas City Wednesday morning, where he went to consult Dr. Minor in reference to his ailment. The Doctor diagnosed his case and sent him home very much encouraged as to the state of his ailment.

Glen Davis returned to his home in Wolbach, Nebraska, Tuesday evening, after finishing up his business in this town and vicinity. Glen was quite popular in this town, and there is said to be more than one young lady that regretted his departure.

Saturday evening, March 2, Mr. Dickerman will likely accompany his pupils here, as he is anxious that they do their best in this performance. Miss Sass is giving recitals in most all of the churches in Omaha and her ability as a reader is above the average. Miss Lucas sings beautifully, and to hear her will be a treat to all of us. At the Jenkins' hall, Saturday night, March 2. Admission price is only 25 cents. Don't fail to be there.

Death of J. G. Oldham.

Mr. L. H. Oldham returned from Beaver City Tuesday morning, where he was called on account of the death of his brother, J. G. Oldham, who passed away Friday morning, February 16, 1912, at his home in that city.

Jackson Goodman Oldham was born in Charitan county, Missouri, January 23, 1843, coming to Missouri and Cass county in 1866, where he lived for a number of years, and about seventeen years ago removed to Beaver City. His first wife, the mother of Mrs. H. A. Snyder, formerly of this city, died a number of years ago, and he married again. To this last union was born several children, all the children of both unions being present at the funeral, together with his two brothers, L. H. and George Oldham. The deceased was also a brother of Mrs. Dora Moore of this city, who was unable to attend the funeral.

The funeral occurred last Sunday and was one of the largest attended that ever occurred in Beaver City, which was a demonstration of the high esteem in which the deceased was held by his neighbors and those who know the worth of his excellent citizenship. He was known in Cass county for his many good qualities, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. The deceased was at one time a business man in Plattsmouth, where he was loved as a good citizen and honorable gentleman.

The Journal will endeavor to give a more detailed account of the life of the deceased in some future issue of this worthy gentleman, who has passed over to the Great Beyond.

Family Reunion.

M. G. Churchill, wife and little daughter, Clara; Mrs. Frank Wiles and Mrs. Thomason went to Lincoln on Thursday morning of last week to attend a family reunion at the home of their sister, Mrs. Minor. The gathering was in honor of their two brothers, David and Albert Churchill, the former living at Central City and the latter at Davenport, Neb., and they soon expect to make their homes in other states—David in Twin Falls, Idaho, and Albert in Los Angeles, Cal. The family were all present except one brother, John, who lives in the state of Washington. This is the first time in nine years that the brothers and sisters have all met together in family reunion, and it is proper to remark that it was a gathering long to be remembered and one where joy and happiness reigned supreme. The Journal hopes they may live to enjoy many more such happy events.

Serious Accident.

Frank Vallery, who was quite seriously injured by being jerked out of a buggy by a mule he was leading, one week ago last Monday, and who was thought to be dangerously hurt at the time, is improving. Mr. Vallery, in being jerked from the vehicle, lit on his head and shoulders, causing his relatives and friends considerable uneasiness for several days. The Journal is glad to learn that Frank is much improved and is in a fair way to permanent recovery. It was a very narrow escape from instant death.

Platte River Booming.

The Platte River has been rising very rapidly for the past few hours, and is now out over the bottom land nearby. The new residence erected by the Platte River Auto and Bridge company is entirely surrounded by water at the present time, but is not in any danger. The bridge is all safe at this time and every effort is being exerted to remove the ice gorge below, which is the cause of the high water. Mrs. James Tipton will come to Plattsmouth this evening to remain until the water moves. She will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steinhauer. Mr. and Mrs. Tipton live in the bridge company residence and Mr. Tipton looks after the bridge.

Big Prices for Stock.

At the sale near Union of M. G. McQuinn, held at his farm, cattle, hogs, horses and mules sold at high prices. A large crowd was in attendance and the bidding was spirited. One 5-year-old mare sold for $240, cows as high as $65 and hogs considerably above the market price. The total amount of the sale was nearly $4,000. Mr. McQuinn will move to his residence in Union and shortly thereafter he and his wife will make an extended trip. Mr. H. Fahlander, from near Council Bluffs, Iowa, bought the farm about a month ago and will immediately take possession.—Nebraska City News.

For a sprain you will find Chamberlain's Liniment excellent. It allays the pain, removes the soreness, and soon restores the parts to a healthy condition. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Social Dance at Murray.

The Murray Dancing club will give another one of their social dances at Jenkins' hall on Saturday evening, February 24. The music will be furnished by the popular Jacobs' orchestra of Omaha and a good time is assured all who attend.

Do you know that more real danger lurks in a common cold than in any other of the minor ailments? The safe way is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a thoroughly reliable preparation, and rid yourself of the cold as quickly as possible. This remedy is for sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.
