

Murray Department.

PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS.

If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will mail same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest.—Editor Journal.

Murray State Bank

MURRAY, NEBRASKA

Capital $10,000 Surplus $5,000

CHAS. C. PARMELE, President
F. L. NUTZMAN, Vice-President
W. G. BOEDEKER, Cashier

We Solicit Your Banking Business

Our Deposits are protected by the Depositor's Guarantee Fund of the State of Nebraska.

You Can Pay Your Taxes Here

The Journal office carries all kinds of typewriter supplies.

Dr. Gilmore has been having a siege of the grippe for the past few days.

L. D. Hiatt was looking after some business matters in Omaha Tuesday.

Mrs. A. J. McNatt has been numbered with the sick for the past week.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Beverage has been quite sick the past week.

A large number of Murray people attended the auto show in Omaha last week.

Dr. B. F. Brendel was looking after some business matters in Omaha Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Grace Chambers went to Plattsmouth Wednesday evening for a few days visit with friends.

John Rutherford of Plattsmouth was in Murray Wednesday to spend the day with W. E. Dull.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chalfant is suffering with a siege of the grippe this week.

Herman Reike, from near Union, was here Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Farmers' Elevator Co.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lem Bates on Friday morning of last week, a baby girl. The mother and little one are doing nicely.

Good music, good acting, good time in store for you Saturday evening if you will come out and hear the Dickerman entertainers.

Mrs. Frank Hoagus, residing on the Countryman place, west of Plattsmouth, has been numbered with the sick for the past week.

F. L. Rhoden, who was injured some time ago by falling, is gaining strength slowly, but is still unable to use the injured leg to any advantage.

The dance given by the Murray Dancing club last Saturday evening was not very largely attended, owing to the bad weather, and they have decided to give another on the night of March 9.

The heavy snow storm last Sunday evening made traffic almost impossible last Monday. It was almost impossible for the farmers to get to town, so business has been very quiet thus far this week.

Lucille Young, who has been in Lincoln for the past few weeks, came home last Saturday to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rice, west of Murray. She returned to Lincoln Tuesday.

A snowball battle royal took place in Murray Tuesday, in which Harve Gregg, B. A. Root and Albert Young engaged in a terrific battle with the school boys, the latter winning on points. Harve Gregg received the greatest amount of punishment at the time that he was thrown head-first into the largest snow bank in town and completely covered with the earth's white mantle.

Andy Campbell has been quite sick for the past few days.

Mrs. Lee Allison has been quite sick for the past few days.

Grandma Campbell has been very sick for the past few days.

Have a good laugh at Jenkins' hall Saturday evening, March 2.

C. H. Harris was in Plattsmouth Wednesday evening attending the Woodmen meeting.

Miss Clara Young and classmate, Miss Smith, spent Sunday with Miss Clara's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young.

The Dickerman entertainers will be here next Saturday evening. Come out and hear them. Admission, 25 cents.

Frank Purdy went down to Leavenworth, Kansas on Thursday of last week to attend a social dance given in that city.

A. L. Baker went to Omaha Wednesday morning to attend the M. W. A. convention, being a delegate from the Murray lodge.

Mrs. James Allison, who has been spending the winter at Union, went to Plattsmouth Wednesday evening, for a visit with friends.

If the snow lasts until Saturday evening, why not get up a sleighing party and spend the evening with Dickerman's pupils at Jenkins' hall?

Mrs. Baumeister went to her home at Plattsmouth Sunday evening, but was called back, owing to the backset Mr. Dull had Sunday evening.

H. G. Long, who fell and broke his leg a few weeks ago, is getting along nicely, but it will be some time yet before he is able to look after his farm duties.

Miss Cleo Applegate and Miss Verna Cole of Plattsmouth were guests of Mrs. W. C. Brown Saturday and Sunday, coming down to attend the dance at Jenkins' hall.

James Loughridge is in receipt of a card announcing the wedding of his brother, Dr. W. K. Loughridge, to Miss Clara Lester. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's brother in Walla Walla, Wash., on Friday evening, February 16, at 7:30. They immediately took their departure for Portland, Oregon, where they will make their future home, and the doctor will practice medicine.

The Murray central of the Plattsmouth Telephone company have requested us to ask the patrons of the various lines to please refrain from making use of the lines or calling central for social conversation between the hours of 7 in the morning and 9 in the evening. The rules of the company are that no calls are to be made between these hours only upon very urgent cases, where there is sickness and medical aid is needed. The patrons will please be governed accordingly and not disturb the central at all hours of the night.

G. M. Minford shipped a car of hogs to South Omaha Wednesday evening.

W. S. Smith and Bert Young went to Plattsmouth Wednesday evening to attend the meeting of the Woodmen.

Mrs. M. E. Manspeaker of Plattsmouth was in Murray Wednesday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Manspeaker before their departure for Garnet, Kansas.

In regard to the recent snow storm Sunday evening, Murray was in no way contrary to the balance of the southeastern Nebraska towns, and was almost lost from view by the immense snow banks on all sides.

While in Murray Wednesday we met our excellent friend, Charles Schwab, from over east of Murray, and in conversation with him he tells us that the hog industry at his place is progressing nicely this winter, and at the present rate in the increase he will have more than he wants to feed, and is offering a number of fine animals for sale.

The directors of the Farmers' Elevator company met in Murray Tuesday of this week at a called meeting for the purpose of selecting upon a new manager to take the place of W. E. Dull, who, on account of his recent sick spell, was compelled to resign the position. Mr. Dull was just beginning upon his second term as manager and his services had given the very best of satisfaction and it was with the deepest regrets that the company was compelled to select a new manager. J. W. Edmunds was elected to succeed Mr. Dull, and immediately assumed charge of the business. Mr. Edmunds is a gentleman of a great deal of business ability and no doubt will fill the place of manager to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

Elevator Meeting.
The directors of the Farmers' Elevator company met in Murray Tuesday of this week at a called meeting for the purpose of selecting upon a new manager to take the place of W. E. Dull, who, on account of his recent sick spell, was compelled to resign the position. Mr. Dull was just beginning upon his second term as manager and his services had given the very best of satisfaction and it was with the deepest regrets that the company was compelled to select a new manager. J. W. Edmunds was elected to succeed Mr. Dull, and immediately assumed charge of the business. Mr. Edmunds is a gentleman of a great deal of business ability and no doubt will fill the place of manager to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

Move to Garnet, Kansas.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Manspeaker and family loaded their goods here Wednesday and took their departure for Garnet, Kansas, where they will make their future home. Mr. Manspeaker has been living on the Brinklow farm, east of Murray, for some time, but has rented a larger place down in Kansas. They are an excellent family, and a large circle of friends in and near Murray, who join with the Journal in wishing them success and happiness in their new home.

Try a sack of Forest Rose Flour the next time you need flour. Ask your dealer what he thinks of it.

Home From Texas.
E. G. Hansen and brother-in-law, H. B. Obernalte, from Tam Raek, Minn., were in Plattsmouth yesterday morning, en route to the home of Mr. Hansen, near Nehawka, returning from a sight-seeing trip down in Texas. Mr. Obernalte thought pretty well of that part of the country and purchased a farm. Mrs. Obernalte and family have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Hansen for the past few weeks.

W. E. Dull Improving.
Mr. W. E. Dull, who has been confined to his home for the past few weeks with stomach trouble, passed a very bad night last Sunday, rallying from his weakened condition the following day, and has since been improving very rapidly. He is still very weak, but does not suffer at all.

Social Dance at Murray.
The Murray Dancing club will give another one of their social dances at Jenkins' hall in Murray on Saturday evening, March 9. The music will be furnished by the ever popular Jacobs' orchestra, and a good time is assured all who attend.

McFadden Farm Sold.
C. F. Harris closed a deal today whereby he becomes the owner of the McFadden farm of 150 acres in Liberty precinct. The purchase price is $15,000. This is one of the best farms in the vicinity and Mr. Harris is fortunate in securing it.

For Sale.
An excellent unimproved 80-acre farm, all under cultivation, 3 miles from Murray. No waste land. Price $120.00 per acre. Apply to A. L. Baker, Murray, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Rhoden and Mrs. Ray Davis, from near Murray, were in the city today, driving in from their homes, for some trading and visiting.

A Farewell Party.
Last Saturday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Rhoden, a farewell party was given in honor of Miss Hazel and Lucille Davis. The day was spent in social conversation and music. At the usual hour a dainty dinner was served. Later the merry visitors departed for home, wishing their young friends much happiness and joy in their new home. The guests were: Misses Lucille and Hazel Davis, Doris, Martha and Majory Valley, Carrie Thomason, Ella and Elsie Lohnes, Myrtle Mossbarger, Mildred, Henry, Ralph, Marion and Russell Satchell, Gladys and Harold Rhoden, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Galen Rhoden and Miss Elsie Thomason.

Opening of New Livery Barn
On Saturday, March 2. My New livery barn has been completed and I wish to inform all my patrons that the opening of the same will take place on the above date. Many new turnouts have been added to my line, and I am better prepared than ever to serve the public in their livery and hack line needs.

I also will be very much pleased to meet all my old patrons and many new ones who are desiring feed and stable quarters. Hack service a specialty.
M. E. Manspeaker.

Moving Today.
Charles Dill and family are loading their goods into the B. & M. car today preparatory to moving to northern Nebraska, where Mr. Dill has rented a farm, and they will make their future home. Nine neighbors brought Mr. Dill's goods to the county seat today, among whom were R. C. Bailey, Ben Dill, Walter Jenkins, Charles Trecker, Lee Brown, Lloyd Gilmore, Elbert Philpot, Frank Dill and Emmet O'Brien. The car will probably leave tomorrow.

Home From Texas.
E. G. Hansen and brother-in-law, H. B. Obernalte, from Tam Raek, Minn., were in Plattsmouth yesterday morning, en route to the home of Mr. Hansen, near Nehawka, returning from a sight-seeing trip down in Texas. Mr. Obernalte thought pretty well of that part of the country and purchased a farm. Mrs. Obernalte and family have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Hansen for the past few weeks.

W. E. Dull Improving.
Mr. W. E. Dull, who has been confined to his home for the past few weeks with stomach trouble, passed a very bad night last Sunday, rallying from his weakened condition the following day, and has since been improving very rapidly. He is still very weak, but does not suffer at all.

Social Dance at Murray.
The Murray Dancing club will give another one of their social dances at Jenkins' hall in Murray on Saturday evening, March 9. The music will be furnished by the ever popular Jacobs' orchestra, and a good time is assured all who attend.

McFadden Farm Sold.
C. F. Harris closed a deal today whereby he becomes the owner of the McFadden farm of 150 acres in Liberty precinct. The purchase price is $15,000. This is one of the best farms in the vicinity and Mr. Harris is fortunate in securing it.

For Sale.
An excellent unimproved 80-acre farm, all under cultivation, 3 miles from Murray. No waste land. Price $120.00 per acre. Apply to A. L. Baker, Murray, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Rhoden and Mrs. Ray Davis, from near Murray, were in the city today, driving in from their homes, for some trading and visiting.

A Farewell Party.
Last Saturday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Rhoden, a farewell party was given in honor of Miss Hazel and Lucille Davis. The day was spent in social conversation and music. At the usual hour a dainty dinner was served. Later the merry visitors departed for home, wishing their young friends much happiness and joy in their new home. The guests were: Misses Lucille and Hazel Davis, Doris, Martha and Majory Valley, Carrie Thomason, Ella and Elsie Lohnes, Myrtle Mossbarger, Mildred, Henry, Ralph, Marion and Russell Satchell, Gladys and Harold Rhoden, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Galen Rhoden and Miss Elsie Thomason.

Opening of New Livery Barn
On Saturday, March 2. My New livery barn has been completed and I wish to inform all my patrons that the opening of the same will take place on the above date. Many new turnouts have been added to my line, and I am better prepared than ever to serve the public in their livery and hack line needs.

I also will be very much pleased to meet all my old patrons and many new ones who are desiring feed and stable quarters. Hack service a specialty.
M. E. Manspeaker.

Moving Today.
Charles Dill and family are loading their goods into the B. & M. car today preparatory to moving to northern Nebraska, where Mr. Dill has rented a farm, and they will make their future home. Nine neighbors brought Mr. Dill's goods to the county seat today, among whom were R. C. Bailey, Ben Dill, Walter Jenkins, Charles Trecker, Lee Brown, Lloyd Gilmore, Elbert Philpot, Frank Dill and Emmet O'Brien. The car will probably leave tomorrow.

Home From Texas.
E. G. Hansen and brother-in-law, H. B. Obernalte, from Tam Raek, Minn., were in Plattsmouth yesterday morning, en route to the home of Mr. Hansen, near Nehawka, returning from a sight-seeing trip down in Texas. Mr. Obernalte thought pretty well of that part of the country and purchased a farm. Mrs. Obernalte and family have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Hansen for the past few weeks.

W. E. Dull Improving.
Mr. W. E. Dull, who has been confined to his home for the past few weeks with stomach trouble, passed a very bad night last Sunday, rallying from his weakened condition the following day, and has since been improving very rapidly. He is still very weak, but does not suffer at all.

Social Dance at Murray.
The Murray Dancing club will give another one of their social dances at Jenkins' hall in Murray on Saturday evening, March 9. The music will be furnished by the ever popular Jacobs' orchestra, and a good time is assured all who attend.

McFadden Farm Sold.
C. F. Harris closed a deal today whereby he becomes the owner of the McFadden farm of 150 acres in Liberty precinct. The purchase price is $15,000. This is one of the best farms in the vicinity and Mr. Harris is fortunate in securing it.

For Sale.
An excellent unimproved 80-acre farm, all under cultivation, 3 miles from Murray. No waste land. Price $120.00 per acre. Apply to A. L. Baker, Murray, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Rhoden and Mrs. Ray Davis, from near Murray, were in the city today, driving in from their homes, for some trading and visiting.

A Farewell Party.
Last Saturday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Rhoden, a farewell party was given in honor of Miss Hazel and Lucille Davis. The day was spent in social conversation and music. At the usual hour a dainty dinner was served. Later the merry visitors departed for home, wishing their young friends much happiness and joy in their new home. The guests were: Misses Lucille and Hazel Davis, Doris, Martha and Majory Valley, Carrie Thomason, Ella and Elsie Lohnes, Myrtle Mossbarger, Mildred, Henry, Ralph, Marion and Russell Satchell, Gladys and Harold Rhoden, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Galen Rhoden and Miss Elsie Thomason.

Opening of New Livery Barn
On Saturday, March 2. My New livery barn has been completed and I wish to inform all my patrons that the opening of the same will take place on the above date. Many new turnouts have been added to my line, and I am better prepared than ever to serve the public in their livery and hack line needs.

I also will be very much pleased to meet all my old patrons and many new ones who are desiring feed and stable quarters. Hack service a specialty.
M. E. Manspeaker.

Moving Today.
Charles Dill and family are loading their goods into the B. & M. car today preparatory to moving to northern Nebraska, where Mr. Dill has rented a farm, and they will make their future home. Nine neighbors brought Mr. Dill's goods to the county seat today, among whom were R. C. Bailey, Ben Dill, Walter Jenkins, Charles Trecker, Lee Brown, Lloyd Gilmore, Elbert Philpot, Frank Dill and Emmet O'Brien. The car will probably leave tomorrow.

Home From Texas.
E. G. Hansen and brother-in-law, H. B. Obernalte, from Tam Raek, Minn., were in Plattsmouth yesterday morning, en route to the home of Mr. Hansen, near Nehawka, returning from a sight-seeing trip down in Texas. Mr. Obernalte thought pretty well of that part of the country and purchased a farm. Mrs. Obernalte and family have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Hansen for the past few weeks.

W. E. Dull Improving.
Mr. W. E. Dull, who has been confined to his home for the past few weeks with stomach trouble, passed a very bad night last Sunday, rallying from his weakened condition the following day, and has since been improving very rapidly. He is still very weak, but does not suffer at all.

-FEED-

We are now ready to deliver to all parts of the city wheat, oats, corn and mixed chop of all kinds for feed.

Ind. Telephone 297

Nelson Jean & Co.

MAPLE GROVE.
(Special Correspondence.)

Thomas Tilson, and bride returned from the north Saturday.

Ruth Beverage returned to her school duties after spending Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Miss Vivian Fitzpatrick returned to Weeping Water Sunday evening to resume her studies at the academy.

Miss Clara Copenhaver of Murray and Miss Birdie Johnson spent Saturday and Sunday with Misses Vivian and Adele Fitzpatrick.

A number of young people gathered at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Murray Wednesday evening and a jolly good time was had.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship than Lincoln." The affirmative was taken by Morris Bailey and Roy Fitzpatrick; the negative by Eva Bailey and Vera Vronan. The young people all represented their sides well and great interest was created in the school in regard to these two great American leaders. The judges could not come to a conclusion, as each side presented their facts so well.

On Thursday afternoon, Washington's birthday, a very interesting program took place at Pleasant Hill school. The salute to the flag was given by the school and "America" was sung. A recitation was given by Lola Fitzpatrick, and the primary department gave selections from Washington. The main feature of the afternoon was a debate: "Resolved, That Washington did more for American citizenship