After the arrest of Elmer Gray at Nebraska City a few days ago several Murray people who had been losing property went to that city in search of the same. ### Birthday Celebration.

There are not a great many people in this world who can boast of celebrating their birthday on the 29th day of February, but such is the case with our excellent friend, W. W. Hamilton, and this is the year that he has a celebration coming, and it was held at his home Thursday of this week. Many of the friends of Mr. Hamilton have been wondering just how old Will was; he acknowledges that this is the fortieth birthday that he has seen, but does not look to be 160 years old, but if he has a birthday every four years, and he has seen forty, he is surely 160.

Mrs. Hamilton invited in a number of friends to assist in the celebration. The invitations called for a 6:30 luncheon, and at that hour they began to arrive, and promptly at 7 a delicious luncheon was served. After the lunch hour the visitors engaged in numerous old-time games, such as button, button, fruit basket and Bobety, Bob, Ran Minford was sure there in the "Bobety Bob" game, and "Bill" Hamilton played them all like a 10-year-old. Following were those present: Messrs. and Mesdames O. A. Davis, Dr. J. T. Brendel, M. G. Churchill, Dr. G. H. Gilmore, W. G. Boedecker, O. V. Virgin, G. M. Minford, Miss Pauline and Fay Oldham and Albert Hunt.

R. G. Collins, Postmaster, Barnegat, N. J., was troubled with a severe laryngitis cough. He says: "I would be completely exhausted after each fit of violent coughing. I bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and before I had taken it all the coughing spells had entirely ceased. It can't be beat." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Harold Morton Kramer, Lecturer.

At Christian church Thursday evening, March 14, fourth number on Lyceum course. Subject, "Here or Nowhere." Harold Kramer is a lecturer whose eloquence arises from a heart beating in sympathy with his fellow men. He grips the attention of his audience and sways his hearers because he is true to himself and to them; because he knows what it is to feel wounds in life's battle and to keep fighting.

"Here or Nowhere," a striking, earnest and valuable message, original in thought and courageous in treatment. It contains the broad sympathy, the soul depth, the optimistic philosophy that have characterized all of Mr. Kramer's novels. Many of each audience will go away clinging to the cheering message, and from that hour find new possibilities in life. The value of such a lecture to a community cannot be estimated. And with all his Carlyle-like philosophy, his arguments are dressed pleasingly, flashes of wit and humor not only adding to the enjoyment of the address, but also adding to its effectiveness.

BACKACHE ALMOST UNBEARABLE

Is an almost certain result of kidney trouble. D. Toomey, 803 E. Olive St., Bloomington, Ill., says: "I suffered with backache and pains in my kidneys which were almost unbearable. I gave Foley's Kidney Pills a good trial, and they done wonders for me. Today I can do a hard day's work and not feel the effects." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.
