Spring Millinery Opening!

COMMENCING WEDNESDAY,

March 27!

March 27!

WEDNESDAY
Souvenir Day!

Everything New in Shapes and New Shades of Colors!

WEDNESDAY
Souvenir Day!

-PRICES ARE RIGHT!

Wednesday is Souvenir Day, and everybody visiting the store on that day will be presented with a handsome carnation.

Our Spring Opening provides many new attractions. Gathered here throughout the store, is the pick of fashions and most famed styles. Each is authentic, correct in every detail. Fashions that are certain to appeal to people of discrimination and good taste. We are confident that you will be satisfied with both the goods and their making. All we await now is your inspection.

HATS THAT ARE A POSITIVE PLEASURE TO WEAR!

It is style that costs in a hat. Our hats have undeniable style. They are correct, beautiful and becoming. Fine in quality and skillfully put together, yet they cost no more than is ORDINARILY asked for the ORDINARY production of the ORDINARY milliner. Let your new hat be one of distinction—a hat which will prove an important asset to your appearance; a hat which will make its wearer, in an assemblage, as a woman of superior taste in dress.

Anything that you buy here and it is not entirely satisfactory, your money will be gladly refunded.

Ledger.

W. D. Wheeler of Rock Bluffs precinct made a short stop at this place Tuesday forenoon, and went to Lincoln on business.

William Sitzman and wife of Weeping Water changed cars here Tuesday, returning from Omaha, where Mrs. Sitzman spent several weeks in a hospital.

Misses Angie McCarroll, Leota Barton and Grace Mougey, who are attending high school in Plattsmouth, came home yesterday for a few days' vacation.

Mrs. Charles Wolfe came home Sunday from Rock Bluffs precinct, where she had been visiting for a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shrader.

Mrs. Myron Lynde departed on the Tuesday morning train, going to Rushville, Neb., to interview a new grandson which recently arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freiburghouse.

David Pittman of Murray changed cars here Tuesday, on his way to Hastings to attend a meeting of delegates from Nebraska Modern Woodmen camps for a discussion of the rate proposition.

Mrs. Fannie Eikenbary, the accommodating local manager of the Plattsmouth Telephone company office, is somewhat proud of the rooms she occupies, on account of the improved appearance, due to the very artistic interior painting done by Tom and Ralph Sherwood.

Miles Chilcott has sold his farm northeast of town and will have a public sale March 29, to dispose of his personal property. Soon as he can wind up business affairs here he and his wife will move to Boyd county to make their home.

W. C. Hopkins, the barber, was made happy this week by the arrival of his daughter, Miss Edith, and his sons, Claude, Glenn and Harold, who have been making their home with relatives in Grand Island. They came to make their permanent home here.

George W. Olsen was a business visitor to the county seat Tuesday. Mr. Olsen is one of our hustling insurance agents, and has decided to seek the democratic nomination for representative in the legislature, and if he should succeed in being nominated and elected no doubt he will make a record as a lawmaker.

ELMWOOD.

Leader-Echo.

Misses Katie and Maggie Meisinger of near Cedar Creek visited Plattsmouth this morning, coming down on No. 4 to look after some shopping.

W. H. Seybert of Cedar Creek was an over night Plattsmouth visitor, having come down from Omaha last night, where he witnessed the go between Frank Gotch and an Omaha athlete in an exhibition match. Mr. Seybert left for his home on No. 29 this morning.

Mrs. E. E. Monroe and daughter, Miss Ruth, of Pacific Junction were in the city for a time this morning, doing the weekend shopping.

Guy Morgan and Miss Dorris Nelson, who have been visiting Miss Nelson's parents south of the city for a few days, departed for Glenwood yesterday afternoon.

Walter Schneider and wife arrived from Cedar Creek on the morning train today and visited friends in this city for a time.

Henry Sanders and wife came in from their home this morning on No. 4 and looked after business matters at the county seat.

Harry Prall went to Gretna yesterday afternoon for a visit with friends.

Mrs. F. A. Raker returned Tuesday night from a visit with Lincoln relatives.

Word was received from New Bremen, Ohio, this week that Ed Langhorst is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lorenz and child of Council Bluffs, Iowa, have moved here and will make their home with William Lorenz, southwest of town.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Robb of Verdon arrived Tuesday for a visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Tyson. While "killing" time at Lincoln on their way here Mr. Robb witnessed the return to the penitentiary of Convict Morley, with his dead comrades, who were captured Monday afternoon near Gretna.

Sturz & Lorenz have sold their hardware and implement business to A. J. Johnson of Avoca, possession being given Monday. Mr. Johnson recently purchased the entire stock of the Avoca Supply company at Avoca, and the name of the firm was thereafter changed to Johnson Hardware, Furniture and Implement company, which also now applies to Mr. Johnson's business in Elmwood.

Roy Blunt, the young man shot Monday afternoon during the capture of the three escaped convicts from the state penitentiary, near Gretna, was a cousin to Mrs. John Lean of this place. Considering the manner of death and the fact that Mr. Blunt was a husband of only two months, makes the tragedy doubly sad. Whenever the story is told much sympathy is expressed for the loved ones of the young man. Mrs. Lean and her son, Roy, left Tuesday morning for Springfield to be in attendance at the funeral.

FREE HOMESEEEKERS' EXCURSION.

I have arranged to get a rate of $30.60 round trip to Dermott, Arkansas, on the second day of May, where we have 15,000 acres of fine farm lands for sale. Those buying land while there will have their railroad fare returned. For further particulars apply to or write,

T. L. Amick, Mynard, Neb.
See the exhibit at J. L. Russell's Riley Hotel Bar.

Len Burdick has been quite sick the past week, but is slowly improving.

We are glad to note that there is great improvement in the condition of Ben Root.

ChCharles Renner and family returned Sunday night from St. Louis, where they had spent a week seeing the sights.

Mrs. Henry Ruhga has returned to her home at Weeping Water, after spending a week visiting with her parents and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. A. W. Norris arrived home on Thursday of last week from Temple Hill, Kentucky, where she was called several weeks ago by the death of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen are the proud parents of a brand new son, which arrived at their home Friday morning, and the little man informed them that he had come to stay.

Division Superintendent Russ and Engineer Siefert of Falls City, and Roadmaster Bell of Omaha were here last Saturday and Sunday overseeing the work of clearing the Missouri Pacific tracks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Finke were made happy last Saturday afternoon by the arrival of a baby daughter at their home, but like a tender bud withered in a frosty atmosphere before a season of sunshine should develop it, the infant sank into endless sleep Monday morning and on Tuesday the tiny form was laid to rest below the snowy sods of earth. In their hour of sorrow the grief-stricken parents have the profound sympathy of the entire community.

NEHAWKA.

News.

Two of the Kearns families loaded an immigrant car this week and shipped their effects to some point in Kansas.

E. A. Kirkpatrick was a passenger to Plattsmouth Tuesday evening, where he went on business. P. Ruffner, who has been here for the past ten days, picked the strawberries for Ed during his absence.

J. M. Stone and M. G. Kime went to Lincoln Tuesday evening, where they were participants in the Bryan birthday banquet. No more loyal admirers of the great commoner could have attended from this place.

Wes Kivett, who works for Ern Young, was kicked on the breast by a mule Tuesday evening, and although no bones were broken it was feared he was injured internally. The doctor was called, but is unable to say yet just how seriously Wes was injured. The next few days determining whether there is any internal injury.

The Fiddlers' contest Saturday night, given under the auspices of the local Commercial club, was one of the most pleasing entertainments held in Nebraska in many a day. The roads were blocked, many of the country roads were impassable and yet the house was packed with a good-natured audience that gave liberal applause to each number.

L. C. Todd and his two boys came to town Friday with a home-made snow-plow and a four-horse team and broke a good road from here to his place north of town. It was an A-shaped contrivance made of heavy bridge plank and cleared a path about nine feet wide, leaving a good road behind. Mr. Todd said they had all four of the horses down at one time and had to shovel several of them out.

Rue Frans, one of the Plattsmouth high school basket ball players, spent Sunday with his parents at Union, returning on the belated M. P. train last evening.
