M. S. J. T. Porter and Mrs. Blair Porter were county seat visitors Monday of this week. John remained at home to look after the big crop of spring chickens.

Mr. and Mrs. James Loughridge are moving this week to the old Loughridge homestead, east of the railroad tracks, where they will make their home for the future.

Frank Rhoden, who has been suffering with an injured limb for the past few months, was in Murray Wednesday. He is able to get around among his friends, but is compelled to employ the third limb in doing so.

Miss Ella Thomason has been sick this week.

Grandma Campbell has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Schafer Brothers shipped a car of cattle to South Omaha Monday evening.

C. N. Beverige shipped a car of hogs to South Omaha Wednesday of this week.

The little girl of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitch has been on the sick list for the past few days.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Perry has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Mrs. B. G. Watkins has been quite sick for the past few weeks, suffering from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deitl on last Sunday. Both mother and little one are doing nicely.

Elmer Boedeker is another of our local hunters who has made good on the goose hunt. He succeeded in landing a fine one this week.

William Troop went to Omaha Wednesday morning to see Dr. Gifford in regard to his eyes, which have been troubling him considerable of late.

W. E. Dull, who has been so ill for the past few months, remains about the same as last week. He is not suffering a great deal, but his condition is very weak.

The following pupils were neither absent or tardy in the Murray schools during the month of March to the 22d: Helen Todd, Martin Sporer, Opha Baker and Everett Spangler.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore is in receipt of a message this week from his brother, J. E. Gilmore, at Hay Springs, to the effect that he is suffering with a severe attack of typhoid fever. J. E. Gilmore is one of the leading attorneys of Hay Springs.

A. B. Becker, the hustling stock man, from Union, passed through Murray Wednesday morning, en route home from Omaha, where he had been with a car of stock. Mr. Becker is one of the leading farmers and stockmen of Liberty precinct and also one of the most successful buyers in Cass county.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Shrader are rejoicing this week over the arrival of a new baby girl at their home Monday. The addition to the Shrader family makes the happy father's fondest desire complete, having a baby boy a few years old and now the little girl gives them a family of four. Under such circumstances the father has cause for being happy. Both mother and little one are doing nicely.

Our good friend, Henry Long, who has been confined to his home for the past three months with a broken limb, is getting along very nicely at this time, being able to get out and around the house some. As soon as the roads will permit he will be able to travel over the country and visit with his friends, even though he is unable to perform many of his farm duties.

Smith, and father, Mr. A. M. Holmes. After spending the night at the home of another sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawls, she departed Thursday for Twin Falls, Idaho, where Mr. and Mrs. Churchill will make their future home.

John Urish was in Murray Wednesday, accompanied by E. J. Heisel of Fremont, who is in the fine horse business. Mr. Heisel is a breeder and importer of Percheron, Belgian and Clyde stallions, and has been trying to place one of his celebrated animals in Murray, and there is a probability that a stock company will be organized for that purpose. He sold one a few days ago to August Klemm, near Plattsmouth, weighing 1,950 pounds.

Land for Sale.

I have 320 acres of land in Rawlins county, Kansas, 100 acres on each quarter under cultivation; all nice, smooth land; one-quarter mile to church and school; located right at Linda postoffice and 13 miles from railroad station, five miles to country store. This land is in a good neighborhood. Will trade one quarter for good residence property in Plattsmouth or will trade all for eastern Nebraska land. What have you for trade? For further particulars write or inquire of H. C. Long, Murray, Neb.

Death of Aged Lady.

Grandma Thomas died on Wednesday of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davis, at 4 o'clock a. m. The deceased has been a resident of this county for a great many years, up to five years ago living near Louisville, at which time she returned to Murray, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Davis. The deceased was 91 years of age and had been sick for some time, but serious for only the past two weeks. She is the mother of Mrs. Davis. The funeral will be held Friday and interment made at the Otterbein cemetery. We will give a more extended notice next week.

Our New Stock Buyer.

John C. McDonald has arrived in Murray and is now a full-fledged citizen of our little city, and is ready to offer all the farmers the highest market price for all kinds of stock. Mr. McDonald will be here all the time and will buy anything you have from the largest to the smallest number you have ready for the market. We find him to be an excellent young man and bespeak for him a share of the patronage of the community.

For Sale.

One Success range and one combination china closet and sideboard. Both good as new. Call or address, Mrs. W. C. Brown, Murray, Neb.

A Pleasant Surprise.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Valley was the scene of much merriment Saturday evening, at which time they were made the recipients of a most delightful surprise party. This most enjoyable occasion had been very secretly and skillfully planned by their neighbors, Mrs. Verner Perry and Mrs. Charles Mutz. Consequently, when the guests began to arrive at the Valley home about 7:30, armed with well-filled baskets, Mr. and Mrs. Valley were completely surprised, but recovered and soon made their guests feel at home. The principal amusement during the fore part of the evening was derived from social conversation and the latter part was spent in various games. At the usual time a delicious supper, consisting of oyster soup, celery and coffee, was served, which was hugely enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to be present. At a late hour all departed for their various homes, wishing this excellent couple great success in their new home. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of this worthy young couple were: Messrs. and Mesdames Adam Kraeger and family, Bert Satchell and family, Gale Rhoden and daughter, Gladys; Louie Meisinger, Verner Perry, Guy Kiser, Charles Mutz, Tom Tilson, T. W. Valley, Mrs. Jake Lohnes, Misses Grace Valley, Lou Valley, Doris Valley, Martha Valley, Ruth Beverage, Manota Perry, Marjorie Valley, Mildred Satchell, Elsie Lohnes, Ella Lohnes, Margaret Satchell, Helen Valley, Messrs. George Mutz, Alph Beverage, Charles Valley, Everest Macart, Archie Shepherdson, Harry Satchell, Russell Satchell, Marion Satchell, Hershel Pelly, Walter Kraeger.

You can say goodbye to constipation with a clear conscience if you use Chamberlain's Tablets. Many have been permanently cured by their use. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Sciota Bottom Overflow.

Word reaches us this morning that the Sciota bottom, east of Union, is all covered with water, occasioned by the high water in the Missouri river backing into the Weeping Water at the mouth of that stream, but no damage so far is reported.

Dyspepsia is America's curse. Burdock Blood Bitters conquers dyspepsia every time. It drives out impurities, tones the stomach, restores perfect digestion, normal weight and good health.

S. L. Lawton and wife and babe, who have visited Mrs. Lawton's parents, Dave Young and wife, for some time, departed for their home at Okaton, South Dakota, today.
