In Charge of the News-Herald.

L. J. Mayfield came down from Louisville yesterday morning and will look after the management of the News-Herald for a few days while his brother, O. M., is on the sick list. The latter is getting along nicely at this time, but is very weak from his recent illness. L. J. is one of the veteran newspaper men of Cass county and will sure conduct the affairs of the News-Herald in a business-like manner.

Reading for Women's Club.

On Monday afternoon the current events department of the Lincoln Women's club gave an extensive program to a crowded house at the Temple theater in that city. Miss Marie Douglass of Plattsmouth gave a reading, concerning which the State Journal of March 26, says: "The music was followed by a fine dramatic reading from 'If I Were King,' by Miss Maie Douglass."

Miss Mary Clark of Corning, Iowa, who has been paying a visit to the A. E. Todd home for a few days, departed for her home this morning on No. 15.

Hold Annual Feast.

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church entertained their husbands and children to the number of fifty at a 7 o'clock dinner last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George DeLong. A short program was given of music and readings, and a male chorus sang impressively "There Is an Apartment in the Bottom of the Sea," with D. C. Morgan as director and Dr. Cummins accompanist. The chorus went so well that a consideration had to be paid to stop it. Mrs. Gregg, Mrs. DeLong's sister, of Havelock, sang two fine solos, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Anderson, also of Havelock. Miss Anderson gave readings that were highly appreciated by the company. The dinner was served in cafeteria style, which greatly reduced the expenditure of labor, while it added to the enjoyment of the feast. The company stayed until a late hour and the evening was a very enjoyable one to all present.

Platte River Wagon Bridge Safe.

James Pollock returned from the Duff-Pollock wagon bridge yesterday afternoon, firmly of the opinion that the ice was going out nicely. The current on the north end of the bridge is open. The Burlington has a large force of men blasting out the thick ice between the Burlington bridge and the wagon bridge, so as to make a clear channel when the river breaks up, which the company officials expect to occur today. T. H. Pollock has men guarding the wagon bridge, and each man, with a long pike, steers the blocks of ice out into the moving current and it quickly floats down the river.

Returns From Plainview.

Allie Meisinger of Cedar Creek was a visitor in this city today and was a pleasant caller at this office. Mr. Meisinger says he returned from Plainview, Nebraska, last night, at which point he has been visiting his sister, Mrs. George W. Horn and family, for the past four weeks, and reports a very nice trip and a most enjoyable visit.

LETTER FROM MISSOURI PACIFIC OFFICIAL

Law Would Not Let Him Offer Special Train to Sheriffs Free of Charge.

A few days ago the Press contained a story about the transportation of a trainload of sheriffs and soldiers to the scene of the tragedy in Sarpy county, when the penitentiary troubles were culminated.

The Press mentioned, after a conversation with Sheriff Fisher and others, that the Missouri Pacific had not fairly treated the sheriffs of Otoe, Nemaha and Richardson counties in their manner of charging heavily for the train, and in other ways.

As a matter of fairness to the road and its officials and to give the public the other side of the matter, the Press cheerfully and pleasantly publishes the following letter, a copy of which was also sent to the Plattsmouth Evening Journal, which copied the Press article: Editor Nebraska Press:

I noticed an article in the Evening Journal of Plattsmouth, copied from the Nebraska City Press, headed—

"Sheriffs Feel Rather Sore," criticising us for collecting from the sheriffs for the special train run from Falls City to Union, and return.

I am very sorry that any criticism or adverse feeling should be engendered against the Missouri Pacific on this account, as we are positively held up by the law and cannot furnish a train for state authorities under any other terms than those given to private citizens. This matter is regulated wholly by law and we could not do otherwise than collect the full amount.

Sheriff Fenton is a personal friend of the writer and I wish to assure you that we would have done anything in our power to assist him in catching the criminals that the law would permit us to do.

We learned the officers' special was at Union, that the escaped convicts had been caught and im-
