EAGLE BOACON.

Lena, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Trunkenholz, has been a very sick child the past few days, but is slowly improving.

Miss Ella Peterson departed last Friday for Sickles, Okla., where she will spend about two weeks visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Mike Spahnle and daughter, Lena, went to Hickman Wednesday to make a visit with the families of Herman and Ed Oelschlager.

Miss Lena Trumble returned to Lincoln Monday morning, after visiting several days with her parents and other relatives and friends.

Ed Wachter and Oscar Wells departed Wednesday noon for Bertrand, where they will spend a few days duck hunting.

Miss Zetta Venner came down from Lincoln last Sunday morning and spent the day visiting with P. F. Venner and family.

Dene Scouten, who has been visiting the past few weeks with G. W. Peterson and family, departed on the noon train Friday for his home at Sickles, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Herman Swanson, who has been visiting with her parents and other relatives and friends, went to Walton Sunday to load their household goods and ship them to Julian, where they will make their future home.

Monday's Lincoln Journal contained the news that John Rudolph of Eagle and Miss Lena Speth of Alvo had obtained a marriage license and were married in that city. As but few knew the object of their visit to the capital city, the news came as a pleasant surprise to their many friends here. The young couple returned to the home of the bride's parents near Alvo and on Tuesday a large reception was given in their honor.

Alfred Gansemer, Fred Lutz and Otto Puls were spectators at the Ruby land sale Saturday afternoon, having driven in from their home in Mt. Pleasant precinct.

MYNARD.
(Special Correspondent.)

Miss Anna Snyder is here for a time from Peru, where she is attending the state normal.

Mrs. Fern Gruber of the precinct visited with friends in town for a short time Thursday.

No more cold feet in Mynard. We have plenty of coal at this time and no coal famine is expected.

D. McCroskey of Denebrog, Neb., is visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, John Livingston. His stay is indefinite, owing to the high tide.

Philip Horn, living six miles west of town, after transacting business here, drove to the county seat to see how our sister town was getting along.

Chris Parkening, living four miles west of Plattsmouth, spent a few hours in town one day last week. We were glad to see you, Chris. Come again.

Professor Jean is visiting his parents and friends for a few days. He is one of the faculty for the state normal at Peru, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Jean, residing one mile east of town.

Gillespie & Snyder shipped a car of hogs to the South Omaha market Wednesday. The price of porkers has made an advance of about 1 cent a pound during the last month.

Mrs. Irene Ingersall of Arkansas City, Kansas, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Boyd Porter, for a few days, after which she will go to Plattsmouth and visit her mother, Mrs. John Lessley, before returning home.

Railway traveling is very uncertain. Conditions are such that it is proper to remain at home until the railroads have again resumed their regular service. The high water in the Platte river is causing all the trouble.

On account of sickness our rural mail carrier has not been able to attend to his duties. Adam Meisinger has been acting as carrier for several days. It is hoped that Uncle Jap will soon fully recover and again take up his line of work.

Forest Rose Flour. The next time you need a sack of flour try a sack. You will find it the best on the market.

NEHAWKA.
News.

Mrs. Otto Schacht has been on the sick list this week, but is improving.

Zack and Joe Shrader each shipped a carload of cattle to South Omaha Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Ruffner, who have been visiting at Kirkpatrick's for the past two weeks, returned to their home in Plattsmouth Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Delles-Denier, who had been visiting from Saturday at the J. E. Banning home, returned to their home at Elmwood Tuesday.

Carl Stone had three hens hatch Sunday and from 45 eggs 36 healthy chickens. Pretty good job of setting for the kind of weather we have been having.

Tom Smith, a former resident of this community, is moving in from Havelock this week, having unloaded his car of household goods and stock Tuesday. He will occupy the farm recently vacated by Pete Smith.

Alvin McReynolds came in on the midnight train from the Lincoln Business college last Thursday to visit home folks, and took dinner with his grandmother, Mrs. Alford, it being his 21st birthday. He returned to his studies Monday.

Melvin Sturm and Jimmie Stone reported the discovery yesterday of the first 1912 grasshopper. The boys confined their proof in a box, but during the noon hour he escaped, and they will probably have to furnish affidavits as to what they had.

Rev. Van Buren went to Omaha on the evening train Tuesday, where he may have to undergo an operation and have one of his eyes removed. He is blind in one eye and this one has been inflamed and troubling him for some time. The doctors have recommended its removal before the other one becomes involved. He will not be home Sunday, but has made arrangements whereby his pulpit will be filled.

For Sale.

One Success range and one combination china closet and sideboard. Both good as new. Call or address, Mrs. W. C. Brown, Murray, Neb.

A Delightful Surprise Party.

Friday, March 22, Mrs. George Wiles was very pleasantly surprised by a number of friends, who had gathered at her home to assist her in celebrating her fiftieth birthday anniversary.

Each guest brought a well filled basket and the day was most thoroughly enjoyed by all. Mrs. Wiles received several useful gifts, which will often remind her of this delightful occasion. Those present were: Mesdames Frank Ronne, Charles Spangler, Frank Pankoning, Frank McNurlin, J. Gregory, Ed Ruby, J. Enbury, Earl Wiles, George Wiles and Pearl Gregory.

Democratic Banquet.

In its report of the banquet held at Syracuse last week, the Democrat of that city, in speaking of the addresses made on that occasion, has the following to say of Judge Travis of this city: "District Judge H. D. Travis of Plattsmouth has been present at former banquets, but he was at his best Tuesday evening, speaking from the subject of 'Corporations,' he delivered a splendid speech. His remarks concerning the need of reform in our judiciary was particularly well received and met with the hearty approval of his audience.

Sensations in the Air.

Reports from Louisville that a very sensational affair occurred there last Friday night, the participants being a young doctor and his wife, who recently located there, and another party. More particulars will be forthcoming as soon as the matter is shaped to take into court. It is also rumored that some of Plattsmouth's young men and women were surprised at one of the popular turner halls Saturday night, more particulars of which will come out later.

Returns From Fremont.

Miss Mary Foster returned from Fremont yesterday, where she was tied up with the rest of the unfortunates who went to attend the educational meeting. Miss Foster came away on the first train that got out of that city and was eleven hours running from Fremont to Lincoln.

Has Foot Injured.

While following the daily round of employment in the Burlington planing mill recently William Smith had the misfortune to drop a chisel, with the sharp edge of the tool downward, the force of gravity plunging the sharp instrument through his shoe and into his foot, severing an artery, and for a short time the wound seemed dangerous. A surgeon was consulted as quickly as possible and the wound dressed. By reason of the wound Will laid off the last days of the week.

Eaton's Houn' Is 'Roun.

The tracing houn' dawg recently lost by D. E. Eaton of Union, has been foun' and returned to the owner, all because the houn' was advertised in the Journal. Mr. Childers, living near the Platte, took the critter in and notified the owner, who came for his dawg today.
