A beautiful baby daughter appeared at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Fitch on Thursday night of last week. Mother and daughter are doing nicely, and we judge from the expression of Fourth as he told us "it's another girl," that there is no father more proud than he at this time. May the little daughter live long and be a blessing to its parents is the wish of this paper.

There are few towns boasting of a juvenile band, but Elmwood does so justly and proudly. Those who were on our streets Saturday night heard a few popular airs rendered in a very able manner. Many expressions of surprise at the proficiency attained by these youngsters were heard from the spectators. The efforts of the boys is very commendable and should have the hearty support of every citizen.

LOUISVILLE.

Joe Spence has framed up with A. W. Valley of Plattsmouth for a wrestling match there next Saturday for the lightweight championship of Cass county.

George Ossenkop was out with his new team and turnout Tuesday. It is a dandy lay-out and should go a long way toward making George "solid" with the fair sex.

Agent Foreade wishes to extend in this way on behalf of the Missouri Pacific most hearty thanks to the citizens of Louisville, who so kindly volunteered assistance in unloading material and protecting railroad property against ice and high water.

Word was received by Mrs. F. W. Schleifert this week of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Kohlruh, at Pipestone, Minn. The deceased was for many years a resident of Louisville and was quite old, death being due to natural infirmities of old age.

Mrs. John Grimes came here this week from David City, Iowa, where she has been visiting for some time. Mr. Grimes has been here about three weeks, at the store of John Ahl. Mr. and Mrs. Grimes will live at the Drake hotel for a while. They have many friends here and all are glad to have them return after an absence of four years.

All of the three quarries have opened up during the past week, the weather being favorable and the demand for riprap and heavy stuff being urgent on account of washout and flood damage. Hugh Murphy did not put on a very large force and has stopped temporarily. C. D. Woodworth has about thirty-five men at work and about forty are employed at the National quarry, the season's work being permanently opened at the latter two places.

Excavation was commenced Monday morning on the lot owned by Robert McCarty, on the west side of Main street, between the Twiss market and the Nichols store building. Mr. McCarty will push the erection there of a fine new store building, for rental, to be constructed of stone and with white enamel front, which will be an ornament to the street and unlike any other building now here. It is expected to be completed about July 1.

County Superintendent Miss Mary Foster, County Attorney C. H. Taylor and Frank Smith of the Journal spent Easter in Union, returning on the afternoon train Sunday.

Stuck in the Mud.

William Jonas Brown, the genial Singer sewing machine man, had a serious time in Rock Bluffs last week. He was driving along the far-famed summer road whistling one of his favorite airs, when he came to a low, wet place in the road; in fact, it was much lower and wetter than William Jonas ever expected to get into. When the bronchos got well started in Mr. Brown found that there was two feet of water on top of over two feet of very soft mud. When the vehicle and ponies were well in it was discovered that they could never wiggle through. He left his fractious team stand while he went to a near-by saw mill to get timbers to bridge the distance from firm dirt to the team and buggy, so that they could be gotten out. The ponies are high spirited and will not stand without hitching, but they were there when Mr. Brown returned with the timbers. William Jonas then got back to the buggy, walked out on the tongue, unhitched the fractious steeds and rode one of them out. A farmer then hitched his team on the buggy, and with the aid of the boards William Jonas Brown was soon on his way, after about six hours' delay.
