GOVERNOR HARMON SPEAKS IN OMAHA

Democratic Representatives From Every Section of the State Present.

From Saturday's Daily.

Quite a number of Cass county democrats attended the Harmon meeting in Omaha last night, and had the pleasure of not only meeting and shaking hands with the Buckeye governor, but also had the pleasure of listening to one of the most able and entertaining addresses ever delivered in Nebraska. Governor Harmon was preceded by Senator Hitchcock, in which the senator clearly presented the questions at issue between himself and Mr. Bryan.

It was an immense gathering of representative democrats from nearly every county in Nebraska, who came to pay tribute to Senator Hitchcock, as well as to the Ohio governor, who paid particular attention to the differences between him and Mr. Bryan. He urged strict compliance with the primary law, both as to the choice of delegates and as to instructions to those delegates according to the law. The reception tendered Senator Hitchcock was a most enthusiastic one and his speech was met with rounds of applause.

Governor Harmon is a big man, as evidences of this fact were fully demonstrated in every word he uttered. He is not an orator and does not make any pretensions in that direction, but is a most pleasing talker and one who commands the attention of his hearers from start to finish. He is a very modest appearing gentleman, but one who immediately captures the confidence and respect of those who chance to meet and hear him. He fully answered his detractors, and presented his record, both in President Cleveland's cabinet and as governor of Ohio for two terms, as complete evidence of his fitness to serve the people.

Governor Harmon stated that no matter whether he was nominated for president or not, he would be found supporting the successful nominee with all the vim and energy he could possibly command. This assertion was met with great applause and clapping of hands.

The meeting was most enthusiastic in its entirety and Governor Harmon was greatly pleased with his reception in Nebraska and the large audience that listened to his able address was greatly pleased with Governor Harmon.

Entertains Past Chiefs.

From Saturday's Daily.

The Past Chiefs of the Degree of Honor were entertained in a most delightful manner at the home of Miss Teresa Hempel at her home on South Third street yesterday afternoon. The majority of the members were present and they held a short business session during the early part of the afternoon. Following this business session they devoted the time to the playing of various games, conversation and the like. An elegant luncheon was provided by the hostess at an appropriate hour, she being assisted in serving by Mesdames Joseph Droege and F. G. Egenberger. A little later the guests dispersed, indebted to the hostess for the splendid afternoon's entertainment.

John Meisinger, jr., and son, Raymond, drove in from the farm this morning so that Mr. Meisinger could have some dental work attended to and also visit his father, Jacob Meisinger and wife, for a time.

Had a Royal Good Time.

From Friday's Daily.

Plattsmouth Council No. 123, Loyal Mystic Legion of America, met in regular session in the council chambers last evening and initiated a class of sixteen. Field Manager J. W. Doran of Omaha has been in the city for the last week, and with the assistance of the local secretary, has written 28 applications, 24 of which have passed a first-class medical examination. The Loyal Mystic Legion of America needs no introduction in this locality, having been instituted since June, 1895. This organization has the highest financial standing of any fraternal or old line insurance company in Nebraska today, having a large surplus fund per capita than any two other fraternal orders in the state, or for that matter, in the United States. Their plan being as near equitable as it is possible for insurance of this character to be. Plattsmouth Council feels proud of its members and invites the inspection of the public, soliciting your consideration and connection.

After the heavy stunt of initiation was over a general love-feast in the way of speechmaking, was had and was enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Kate Remington of Omaha, who is also state manager of the Woodman Circle for the state of Nebraska, spoke very flatteringly of the Mystic Legion and fully endorsed the plan and workings of the order. Field Manager Doran gave a lengthy talk to the newly-made members in particular, which was both pleasing and instructive. The Council then adjourned to the banquet hall, where the social committee introduced the members to delicacies of the season. Instrumental music was rendered during the partaking of the ice cream and cake, after which the room was cleared and the crowd for a short time tripped the fantastic and otherwise enjoyed the social hour.

Very Much Elliot.

The Journal office has just completed the primary election ballots, to be voted by all the parties at the primary election next Friday, and it has sure been a pretty much ballot week with us, too. The republican ballot is almost five feet in length, while the democratic one is but a few inches shorter. The people's independent comes next with three feet in length, followed by the socialist and prohibition, measuring almost the same. This makes a total of nineteen feet of ballot if they were all in one. Can it be any wonder that so many voters are somewhat confused when they come to select their favorite candidate among so many? The republican and democratic ballots have every office represented by a candidate, except county attorney, on the latter, Calvin H. Taylor on the republican ballot being the only candidate for the office of county attorney. The Journal has printed the ballots for several years past, but the one this year has been the longest that we have ever had any experience with. The total number printed for all parties was almost 15,000, including both sample and official.

A Kensington.

The home of Mrs. Harry Johnson was the scene of a most enjoyable Kensington Thursday afternoon, when she entertained the members of the "W. Y. T.," an organization of the Christian Science church. There were fourteen members in attendance, all of whom brought their fancy work and spent the hurry moments in stitching with the busy needle. Another pleasing feature of the afternoon was a program of music, both instrumental and vocal, which was very much appreciated. A delicious luncheon, which Mrs. Johnson knows best how to serve, was provided at the proper time, she being assisted in serving by Miss Christine Soenichsen.

Buys New Car.

J. E. McDaniel last Wednesday purchased a fine $3,300 Stoddard-Dayton automobile, 1912 pattern, with 45 horse-power engine. He has a machine he can well be proud of and one that will go with any of them. He has an excellent garage just back of his place of business, made fire-proof and up-to-date in every respect.

Catalogue of Summer Session.

Secretary of the School Board E. H. Wescott has just received a catalogue of the summer session of the state university, containing the course for the summer months, commencing June 14 and continuing to August 9. Anyone wishing to consult the book can see it at Mr. Wescott's store.

AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED UPON FRIDAY

Is the Only Manner in Which Our Antiquated Constitution Can Be Changed.

At the coming election there will be five constitutional amendments submitted to the people. This is the only manner in which our antiquated constitution can be changed. The people must vote intelligently in order to secure the necessary changes. The first amendment is in regard to the initiative and referendum. On this question we believe that nearly all the people will vote in the affirmative. It affords the people the right to pass upon all laws.

Amendment No. 2 is in regard to the salary of members of the legislature. On this question the people will care but little, but all will agree that our legislators are not paid sufficiently. But they get the honor.

No. 3 is one that should appeal to almost every person in the state. It provides for the creation of a board of commissioners that will have charge of all the state institutions. This means that the various institutions will be taken out of politics and placed under the control of competent men.

No. 4 provides for a general election every two years. Those who are compelled to mix in politics will favor this amendment. We are not prepared to say whether we favor it or not. At present there are too many elections, and when we have the recall and special election it will keep one busy voting.

No. 5, the amendment permitting cities of more than 5,000 inhabitants to frame its own charter has some good features and many bad ones. The charter that would apply to York, Grand Island or Hastings would not be suitable to this city. It would make such a mix-up in regard to law that no one could tell where the city stood.

Restaurant Reopened.

Sam Henderson has reopened the Collins' restaurant in the Hotel Riley basement, and will be pleased to have all those desiring regular meals or short orders call and see him. Mr. Henderson has had considerable experience in the restaurant business and knows just about what the people desire when tired and hungry, and he will always try to please them. He intends to carry everything the market affords in the line of good "eatins," and every effort will be exerted to prepare them to suit your taste. A cordial invitation is extended to all, especially those who are looking for the best to eat.

Making the Roads Good.

From Saturday's Daily.

Walter Byers, road overseer from the Kenosha district, and Will Baker were county seat visitors today, driving up this morning for the transaction of some business matters. In conversation with numerous farmers driving in from the south they stated that the roads are in excellent condition all the way to Plattsmouth, and especially is this true in Mr. Byers' district. Mr. Byers is exerting every effort to make the roads in the very best condition, which is certainly appreciated by all who are compelled to travel them at this season of the year.

Lig Loses His Hat.

From Saturday's Daily.

Our friend, L. B. Brown, lost his hat while in town today and has not seen it since. He started for home, and in passing the B. & M. shops the high wind lifted his "lid" with such force as though it was carried right up to the clouds and never came back. He says it was done so suddenly that he never caught sight of it from the time it left his head. He is of the opinion that it blew over the fence at the shops. He came back to town to buy a new one, and left an ad in the Journal for the lost top-piece to be left here by the finder.

F. M. Baumgart drove in from his farm yesterday and looked after business matters in the city. Mr. Baumgart reports his wheat as looking fine, being in better condition than last year.

GREENWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

The Easter bazaar Saturday was very well attended and $110 was taken in.

The last number on the lecture course is the impersonator, Robert Bowman, who will entertain at the M. E. church Saturday evening, April 13.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hayden returned to their home in Wallace Tuesday afternoon.

The Rebekah convention will be held at Greenwood April 25.

The last meeting of the Literary society for this season was held Thursday evening, April 11.

The meetings at the M. E. church commenced last Monday evening and will continue for several weeks. The services of Rev. Buffum, the evangelist, have been procured for the meetings.

Mrs. F. A. Mason, wife of our hardware merchant, was here Saturday. They expect to take up their residence here soon.

The Easter program at the M. E. church was very good and was very well attended, many persons having to stand up.

F. E. Byers and family moved into Mrs. Gullion's house a week ago last Monday.

Eleanor, the 6-year-old daughter of Dr. E. L. Jones, is quite sick.

Mayor Gorder in Town.

From Saturday's Daily.

Mayor Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water was a Plattsmouth visitor yesterday, having come over to the county seat the night before on a business trip. Weeping Water has recently installed an electric light plant, which is owned by the city, having 42-candle-power incandescent lamps on every block throughout the business section and many in the residence portion of the city. The city already owns its water plant and operates it. Mr. Gorder thinks the city as well lighted as any in the country, and the city maintains a twenty-four-hour service.
