

SOCIAL DANCE GIVEN BY DRAMATIC CLUB

The Catholic Sokol Club Will Give a Very Unique Entertainment on the Evening of May 1.

The Catholic Sokol Dramatic club is preparing to give a very pleasant dance at the K. S. hall on the evening of May 1. The program on which they are working and expect to carry to a most successful end, will be a little out of the ordinary and will no doubt prove a very pleasant affair. They are planning to make the event an annual affair, to be given about the same date each year. The gentlemen will be charged an admission fee of 50 cents, while all the ladies will be admitted free, but will be requested to prepare a luncheon box to be opened at midnight and to contain sufficient good things to eat for herself and gentleman escort. This box must contain her name, and upon arrival be placed in the custody of the society, at which time it is numbered. When the supper hour arrives this, or rather a corresponding number, is found in the possession of some gentleman, which is the result of a drawing. This gentleman takes the basket, and finding the young lady they proceed to investigate its contents and ascertain just how good a cook the young lady may be—that is providing her mother does not prepare the box.

The fore part of the evening and up to the hour of luncheon, will be gents' choice for the numbers of dancing, and after luncheon will be ladies' choice. After the supper hour the grand march will take place and the numbers will be placed in the order in which they were drawn from the lottery box, from 4 up remaining partners for the grand march.

Every member of the dramatic club is exerting every effort to make this occasion a grand success, and you will no doubt miss a rare treat if you fail to attend. Remember the date is Wednesday evening, May 1st.

Has Been Very Ill.

Mrs. Earl R. Blish, nee Miss Ida Weidman, of Conrad, Montana, has been very sick for the past few days, and while she has greatly improved at this time, her condition was very critical for several days. She was taken to the hospital a few days ago, where she submitted to a very serious surgical operation, which has proved quite successful, and the patient is gaining strength very rapidly. Her brother and sister, Fred Weidman and Mrs. Fred Ebinger, were summoned to her bedside from Plainview a few days ago, and they write to home folks that Mrs. Blish is getting along nicely at this time. This news her many Plattsmouth friends will be pleased to learn and sincerely hope that she may continue to gain strength.

Dance in Murray.

The Murray Dancing club will give another dance in Jenkins' hall in Murray on Saturday evening, April 27. The music will be furnished by the Jacobs' orchestra of Omaha. You know the good time that is in store for you, so make up your mind to attend right now.

C. L. Graves, editor of the Union Ledger was a Plattsmouth visitor today, having come up on the early M. P. train to look after matters of business in the county seat.

Services at St. Paul's Church.

A large congregation assembled at St. Paul's Evangelical church in this city yesterday to witness the solemn confirmation exercises. The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies, palms and ferns. The address of Rev. Steger to the confirmands was most eloquent and touching and was given in both German and English. In substance, Rev. Steger told his auditors that the step taken at this time was the most important one in life. The following is the list of names of those confirmed yesterday: Olga Thiekoetter, Francis and Thomas Heinrich, Fred and William Nolling, and Florence and John Rummel.

Weeping Water Loses Debate.

In a debate between South Omaha High school and Weeping Water High school Friday night team that the Magic City was won the decision. In the South Omaha department of the Omaha Bee of Saturday appears the following:

"South Omaha High school debating team last night proved in the debate with the Weeping Water team that the Magic City was a laboring man's town when it downed the visiting team on the question of closed shop. The home team won the decision unanimously and it was agreed that the closed shop should receive the support of the public.

Judge A. L. Sutton presided and the judges of the debate were: E. U. Graff of Omaha, George Marlin of Nebraska City and Principal Marshall of Council Bluffs. The debating teams were: "Weeping Water, negative, Edwin Hunter, Jeanette Teegarden and William Williams.

"South Omaha, affirmative, John Orchard, Winthrop Lane and Edgar Kiddoo."

Why "Champ" Clark.

James Beauchamp (pronounced Beecham) Clark was known in his early life as James B. Clark. Soon after leaving law school he found that a J. B. Clark was getting mail at nearly every postoffice in the country. Sometimes they got his letters and sent them back to the writers.

"I tried lopping off the James and traveling as plain Beauchamp Clark, but my friends insisted upon pronouncing it 'Bo-champ,' or abbreviated it to 'Bo Clark,'" said the speaker, telling me how he made the change. "I thought I would save them trouble by abbreviating it myself and began to write it 'Champ Clark.' It has been a good asset. It is enough to be usually printed in full. Look at any list of 'those present' in the paper. Others are mentioned by surnames only, but my name is printed 'Champ Clark.'" From this it may be inferred that the speaker is alive to the value of advertising.—World's Work.

Put in Copper and Glass.

Two skilled mechanics arrived this morning from Niles, Mich., to put in the copper and plate glass at Wescott Son's store. These men are expert plate glass setters from the Kawneer Front Construction company, which furnished the material for putting in the front.

Returns From Vacation.

"Sport," the Burlington employe, who assists C. S. Johnson in looking after the trains in the local yards, returned from a week's vacation Sunday morning on the M. P. It seems that "Old Sport" had some way of getting next to the company's rule that every employe should take a lay-off during the year, and last Monday he boarded the M. P. and went to South Omaha, where he spent several days. Returning he stopped off at Fort Crook for two days and visited the military post there and boarded the M. P. for Plattsmouth Sunday morning, and was back at his post this morning ready for switching cars in the Burlington yard.

Rock Creek School Closes.

The Rock Creek school closed last Saturday with a day of pleasure to the scholars, the teacher and the parents. Miss Dovey Barkhurst of Union, the teacher, planned a very pleasant program for the last day. The parents of the scholars were present with well filled baskets, and an excellent dinner was enjoyed at the usual hour. Miss Barkhurst has enjoyed a very successful term at Rock Creek the past winter, and it is with the deepest regrets to both the scholars and the parents that she was unable to accept the school for another year, which was offered her. She has accepted a position in her home district.

Walter Street Likes West.

Mrs. W. L. Street is in receipt of a letter from her son, Walter Street, who has just accepted a fine position as advertising manager for the Pantan-London company, a large dry goods house in Seattle, Washington to the effect that Walter is highly pleased with the climate and country, as well as the business he is engaged in. Walter has been head clerk in one of the largest dry goods stores in Hastings for the past 6 years and is well equipped for his new position. His son, Merrill, a few days ago departed for Seattle to join his father.

Work on Eridge Commenced.

Work of repairing the Pollock-Duff Platte river auto and wagon bridge commenced in earnest last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Pollock began to move material from Cedar Creek to the bridge Friday, and Saturday Glen Smith moved his outfit to the bridge, and today the steel was being unloaded and taken to the bridge. Steel piling forty feet in length will be driven into the sand for the two steel spans to rest upon. It will require two steel spans and one wooden one to repair the portion that went out.

FIRST CIRCUS IN PLATTSMOUTH IN FIVE YEARS

Cole Brothers United Shows Will Visit Plattsmouth on Saturday, May 4, Day and Night.

Flaming posters in all the colors of the rainbow throughout this section, proclaim the fact that the world famed Cole Brothers United Shows are to be seen in Plattsmouth on Saturday, May 4. Already the small boy and his elders are happy in anticipating the coming of this mighty tented amusement enterprise and its countless wonders. For this season the Cole Brothers enlarged their shows in every department and their greatly augmented list of performers, feature acts and menagerie exhibits made it necessary to add several more railroad cars. Today three special trains are required to transport the huge tents, ponderous wagons, cages, dens, chariots, tableau cars, elephants, camels, horses, ponies, men and women.

In the triple zoological gardens, combined under one vast spread of canvas are to be found the finest living specimens of rare, strange and curious animals from every quarter of the globe. Prominent in this collection is a full grown yellow obnoxious moschatus, positively the only one ever seen by man. Captured north of Great Slave lake at latitude 64, it was only by exercising the greatest diplomacy that Cole Brothers' agents were enabled to get the animal out of the country. Covered with a heavy coat of pure golden yellow hair, the beast was regarded as sacred by the natives, not one of whom could be induced to aid in its capture. There are other exhibits of animal life equally as rare, making a visit to Cole Brothers' menageries of far greater educational value than will ever be gained by the deepest study of all the books at hand on the subject of natural history. Inside the vast canvas amphitheater are three great rings and as many elevated stages, encircled by a monster modern hippodrome track. Over-capping all is a veritable maze of trapeze and horizontal bars, flying rings, ropes, wires and other aerial rigging. From the beginning to the end of the performance hundreds of men, women and animal performers cover the ground and fill the air in the rendition of a program, the like and equal of which have never before been seen. There are forty-one clowns and meriment rules supreme.
