

TWO BUILDINGS THAT COULD BE PURCHASED FOR A CITY HALL

The Building Owned by H. M. Soennichsen Could Be Purchased at a Very Reasonable Figure by City, Also the Old Livery Stable on Pearl Street Is Offered to the Council.

Since the committee, acting for the Y. M. C. A., purchased the Wetenkamp block, the city council has been looking for a suitable place for a city hall and an office for the police judge. They contemplated purchasing the building directly east of the Wetenkamp block, but they were too slow in their maneuvers and it was sold before they "got to it." The council and police judge have occupied their present quarters for a good many years, but have to give way just as soon as possible so that the building can be put in shape for the Y. M. C. A. They have now an opportunity of the refusal of two propositions, and they should consider the surroundings and the location of both properties before they invest in either.

The old livery barn on Pearl street, west of the new Woodman building, is one proposition, and the present building of H. M. Soennichsen in the Waterman block is another. Mr. Soennichsen has for some time contemplated building a brick store room on the lot he purchased a year or more ago west of the Journal building, and desires to sell his present building to aid him in erecting his large new quarters. Mr. Soennichsen has offered this property, we understand, at a very reasonable price, and if the city buys it it will be money well spent, and at the same time aid a worthy citizen and business man in more extensive improvements, which will add considerably to the appearance of the city. And another thing which the council should take into consideration is that the Soennichsen building is centrally located and in the next block west of the quarters the council and police judge have so long occupied and in close proximity to the court house.

It is the Journal's opinion that the council should consider well the location of both propositions and the amount of money to be expended for each in the way of repairs, etc. The Soennichsen building is 100 feet long by 28 feet in width. The upper story would make plenty of room for a city hall and give the police judge a nice office to himself, if so desired. We believe if the committee will investigate properly the location and surroundings of both it would have no trouble in deciding in favor of the Soennichsen building. A city building is the property of the taxpayers of the city, and the councilmen who are presumed to carry out the wishes of those for whom they serve, we believe they will come directly to the conclusion that the Soennichsen proposition is the most available.

Wm. Ferguson's Barn Burned.

William Ferguson, who resides near Rock Bluffs, had the misfortune to lose his barn by fire yesterday during the high wind. Mr. Ferguson was absent from home, having driven to Plattsmouth, and his wife was at one of the neighbors at the time. He had been trimming his orchard the past few days and burning the brush, but supposed the fire was all extinguished, and he is at a loss to know how the fire got started.

Mr. Ferguson's neighbor, John Gochenour, discovered the fire after it started and hurried to the spot, and finding his neighbor's hogs all under the barn drove them out. Sparks were flying toward the corner and dwelling house. Mr. Gochenour prevented these from catching by whipping out the brands. A small crib in which Mr. Ferguson kept his seed corn caught fire and the seed corn was burned.

The barn was valued at $250 and was insured for $100. Mr. Ferguson feels very grateful to his neighbor, Mr. Gochenour, for watching his dwelling and corner crib and for driving out the stock from under the barn, as there is little doubt but the whole would have been burned had it not been for the timely work of Mr. Gochenour.

FOUR YEARS FOR HIS CHILDREN.

Convocation at High School.

The convocation hour at the High school was occupied this morning by the freshman class, and the program was of the usual interest and many visitors were there to enjoy the treat. The program included a vocal solo by Mrs. Edna Eaton entitled "My Task," a reading by Mrs. A. J. Beeson, "Aux Italians," and was accompanied by Miss Ione Dovey with piano. The reading was followed by a piano duet by Misses Sophia Hild and Ola Kaffenberger, and a trombone solo by Ralph Marshall, "Love's Polka," composed by the player. Each one was encored and gracefully favored the students with a second number.

Jos. McCaffery, Mgr. Schlitz Hotel, Omaha, and Vice President in Nebraska of "Greeters of America," writes: "I recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. I have used it myself with good results, and have recommended it to many others, who have since told me of its great curative power in diseases of the throat and lungs." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

DEATH OF MRS. P. H. MAHONEY AT HAVELOCK

Former Plattsmouth Lady, Her Husband Being an Employee of the Burlington Shops Here.

Mrs. P. H. Mahoney, whose funeral occurred Tuesday afternoon at Havelock, was for years a resident of Plattsmouth, Mr. Mahoney being a boilermaker in the Burlington shops until the locomotive works were removed to Havelock, when he removed with his family to that city.

Mary Thayer was born in North Hudson, Essex county, New York, January 2, 1860. Her father died when she was very small and her mother remarried to Sanford Calkin, and at the age of 7 years, with her stepfather and mother, she came to Cass county, where she grew to womanhood. For some time before her marriage Miss Thayer taught in the schools of the county. She was married to P. H. Mahoney in July, 1881, and with her husband resided in this city for thirteen years. Eighteen years ago the family removed to Havelock, where they have since resided.

Mrs. Mahoney is survived by four children—Edwin of Valley Junction, Iowa; Mrs. Jessie Hawksworth of Chicago, Harry Mahoney of Chicago, and Miss Lynell, at home; also one sister, Mrs. R. L. Propst, of Mynard, and two half-brothers and one half-sister, namely, W. W. Calkin of Diller, Neb.; Frank Calkin of Brookfield, Neb., and Mrs. Olga Gopen of Stamford, Neb. Mrs. Mahoney was a consistent member of the Episcopal church, a devoted Christian lady, kind and gentle in her treatment of everyone, and winning the love and respect of all with whom she was associated. She was also a member of the Eastern Star, and during her last sickness her sisters in the lodge were ever near to minister to her slightest need. She died at St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln, following an operation. Her sister, Mrs. R. L. Propst and husband, reached her bedside on Saturday afternoon about an hour before she breathed her last. The funeral was conducted by Rev. A. H. Brooks, Episcopal minister of Lincoln, and was held Tuesday afternoon in the Methodist church at Havelock. The floral tokens brought by loving friends entirely covered the casket. Interment was made in Wyuka cemetery.

In order that every reader of the Journal who needs treatment may have an opportunity to test this celebrated medicine, the now famous Indiana scientist has come to the front with an offer to give absolutely free a large proof package to five hundred readers of this paper to prove the wonderful claims which have been made for it. In making this offer the scientist said: "I know that there are many people who have been suffering for years with some chronic disease and many of them have spent large sums of money seeking a cure. I know that these people hesitate about investing money in medicine because they have despaired of ever getting well. Thousands have told me that story and many thousands of the same people have told me afterwards that my treatment had cured them after doctors and everything else had failed. I want to show these despairing people that all the newspaper talk about my treatment is absolutely true. I want to prove to a limited number—no matter what the disease, no matter how long they may have suffered, no matter how blue and discouraged—that my treatment really and actually does accomplish the wonderful results that have been reported."

People who suffer from Rheumatism, Kidney Trouble, Stomach Trouble, Liver or Bowel Disorders, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Chronic Coughs, Weak Lungs, Lumbago, Piles, Urinary Disorders, Female Weakness of any kind, the weak, worn-out, broken-down and despondent will be delighted at the effect of a few doses. This wonderful treatment creates a fine appetite and helps the digestive organs to carry on their functions as they should. Celebrates First Birthday.

Mrs. Alice E. Sherwood entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Budig, Wednesday afternoon in honor of her little son, Arthur William's, first birthday. A number of small tots were present, accompanied by their mothers. The mothers plied the busy needle, while the little ones enjoyed all sorts of games, the smaller ones rolled on the floor. The parlors were decorated with sweet peas and smilax. A dainty two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. Walter Green and children, Howard and Helen, of Weeping Water; Mrs. William Gray and son, Harry, of South Omaha; Mrs. I. W. Hamburg and daughters, Alice, Hallie and Ethel, of Gretna; Mrs. Nell E. Sherwood and children, Margaret and Charles Wilbur; Mrs. P. F. Budig and sons, Floyd and Ralph, and Miss Ida Cording.

What Is the Use?

Miss Teresa Hempel is wondering this morning what is the use to expend money in beautifying her home premises when the town cows are allowed to roam over her lawn and disfigure and dig up the sod. Miss Hempel has just had McMaken & Son sod her terrace, on the advice of the park committee, to beautify the home premises, and the work was no more than completed than three or four of the town herd took possession of the lawn, and when driven off scrambled over the bank, taking the sod down with them. To say that the lady feels discouraged is putting it too mildly, and she has a right to feel indignant at the carelessness of the owners of the cattle. Someone is liable for the damage, and Miss Hempel proposes to find out who it is and the party will be requested to pay the damage.
