DON'T FORGET THE BIG COLE BROS. SHOW

In Plattsmouth Saturday, May 4—
And Don't Fail to See Great Thrilling Free Act.

No matter what engagements you have made for Saturday, May 4, the day and date that Cole Brothers United Shows will exhibit in Plattsmouth, both day and night, break them now. Even if you cannot attend the afternoon or evening performance you can ill afford to miss viewing the gorgeous street parade at 10 a. m. and the thrilling free out-of-doors exhibition to be given immediately afterwards on the show grounds and again at 6:30 p. m. If necessary, miss former, but not latter, which will prove the biggest surprise treat of the year. Mlle Zizzi, one of the fairest daughters of France, has been especially engaged by Cole Brothers to "span death's arch" upon a slender bicycle and this she does twice daily. This is an act which has never been attempted before by any woman, even the most fearless of whom gasp with horror every time they witness it. What no other lady cyclist would ever dream of trying, Mlle Zizzi accomplishes every week-day morning and evening with as much unconcern as the average person would exhibit when partaking of dinner. Ascending a tall fragile wooden incline plane to the top, mounting a light bike and riding toward the earth at terrific speed, then arching a 55-foot death gap and landing upon the other side in safety is the frightful feat executed by this intrepid beauty. There is absolutely no charge made, it is presented in the open air as stated above, free to all who visit the show lot. Remember the date—Saturday, May 4.

THE WEATHER.

The readings below are taken at the Burlington depot, where the thermometer is placed under conditions similar to those used by the United States weather bureau:

8 a. m.	48	1 p. m.	55
10 a. m.	50	2 p. m.	57

Forecast.
For Nebraska—Fair Monday, Tuesday, increasing cloudiness; probably followed by showers.

Carnation Ball Great Success.

The grand ball given by the Cosmopolitan club at Coates' hall Saturday night was a great success, socially and otherwise. The committee on arrangements looked after every detail necessary to the comfort and enjoyment of the dancers. The hall was handsomely decorated with red and white streamers suspended from the center to the balcony from side to side, making a beautiful canopy above the merry dancers. The floor was perfect and the music inspiring, being furnished by the M. W. A. orchestra, and was up to the high standard long ago made by this popular musical organization. Many out-of-town guests were present, Omaha, Glenwood, Pacific Junction and other surrounding towns being represented. Beautiful carnations were presented to each lady and gentleman participating in the dance.

Trouble With Track Over.

The K. C. trains, which have been running via Plattsmouth for a week, resumed their track on the east side of the river yesterday, the danger at Folsom having temporarily been averted. The track was never so that the trains could not run over it, but the work trains taking material to the washout were in constant need of the track. The danger of the change of channel is past for the present, and the company will no doubt use the month which is to elapse before the June rise in ripping a mile or more of the bank at that place. The bank has fallen away to within a few feet of the track, but it can and probably will be stopped where it is.

Receives Nice Present.

Ed Brantner, the Angora cat fancier, presented R. A. Bates, publisher of the Journal, with a fine Angora kitten a few days ago. The kitten is as fine a specimen of this beautiful species of cats as one would see in many a day. Her fur is long, white and silken and Mr. Bates prizes the kitten very highly, as it comes from distinguished ancestry, the sire of the kitten being sold for several hundred dollars. Mr. Brantner has raised several Angoras during the past two years which he has sold for from $25 to $50 each. In fact, this species is valued very highly by the city folk who desire something for a pet.

Miss Rose McGuire and Miss Olsen of Glenwood returned to their homes last evening on No. 2, having visited friends over Sunday.

The Breckenridge Stock Company.

The Breckenridge company was greeted by a large audience last evening to witness the rendition of "The Political Boss." The characters were all well taken and presented in a most pleasing manner. The company is a strong one and the specialties were exceptionally good. This evening the company will present "Down Where the Cotton Blossoms Grow." It is one of the strongest plays presented by this company. Tomorrow evening the company will close their engagement in this city and at that time will present a most interesting play with all specialties.—Nebraska City News.

Clerk of the District Court James Robertson and wife were Omaha passengers on the morning train today, where they visited friends for the day.
