THE DEATH OF WILLIAM E. DULL

Occurred at His Home in Murray
After a Lingered Illness of Several Months.

It is with the deepest sorrow that the Journal is called upon to chronicle the death of another one of Cass counties most highly honored citizens in the person of William E. Dull, which occurred at his home in Murray on Monday morning, May 6th, at about 11:30 o'clock, from cancer of the stomach, after a lingering illness of several months.

W. E. Dull was born in Milfin county, Ohio, December 25, 1844, at which place his parents died when he was a very small boy. Later he moved to Clarksville, Pa., where he grew to manhood, and where he worked for a number of years at his then chosen profession, that of a carriage and wagon maker. At Harrisburg, Pa., in the year of 1861, he enlisted in the army, joining the First Regiment Veteran Volunteers and Battery E Light Artillery, serving between two and three years in the civil war. On the 5th day of February, 1875, he was married to Miss Mary E. Rutherford at Clarksville, Pa., and in 1877 they came west and settled at Plattsmouth, where they resided for one year. After one year in the county seat they moved to the farm that they have owned ever since, two miles southeast of Murray. Mr. and Mrs. Dull resided upon this farm since 1878, up to about one year ago, when the deceased's health failed him and he moved to Murray, accepting the management of the Murray elevator, which position he resigned only a few months ago.

He became a member of the Presbyterian church December 25, 1894, and was a member of the Murray Camp M. W. A., in which order he held the position of clerk for twenty years. W. E. Dull was a man whom everybody liked, and in all these years that he has resided in and near Murray he has been one of the most highly respected citizens. He was a kind and loving husband and ever faithful and loyal to his friends. He leaves a good and faithful wife and a host of kind and loving friends to mourn his death.

The funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church in Murray on Wednesday afternoon, May 8th, at 1 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Ransom, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. Gade of the First Presbyterian church of

URGES INVESTIGATION

Representative Nelson Wants Bureau of Animal Industry Probed.

Washington, May 9.—"I want to discover the connection between the pork and beef packers and the men we have put in positions of trust to enforce the meat inspection law," declared Representative Nelson (Wis.) to the house agriculture expenditures committee.

Mr. Nelson urged the committee to investigate the bureau of animal industry. Dr. C. B. Crane of Kalamazoo investigated the packing houses and furnished Mr. Nelson with the basis for his charges against Secretary Wilson, A. D. Melvin, chief of the bureau of animal industry, and George P. McCabe, solicitor of the department. Packing companies and Texas cattle interests were represented.

Mr. Nelson contended that congress had the right to inquire into the way the $2,000,000 appropriated annually for meat inspection was being used and to see if the health of the people is guarded. Of greater importance, he said, was the question whether the law was being honestly enforced, or if there was collusion between the packers and officials.

TWO-YEAR-OLD BOY KIDNAPED OR DROWNED

Posses Searching for Trace of Missing Tot Near Burt.

Burt, Ia., May 9.—Posses numbering between 200 and 300 men and boys have been beating the woods, searching streams and ponds for a trace of the little two-year-old son of Hugh Marlow, who disappeared from his home while his parents were absent. The wildest of stories are afloat. One is that the child was kidnaped. Some weight is given to this possible clue for the child's disappearance, as a stranger was seen driving alone by the Marlow farm with his horse on the run.

Other stories are that the child has wandered into some of the sloughs, bayous, creeks or ponds and been drowned, while still another is that the child has been killed by a reckless auto driver and his body hidden.

Not a trace of the child has been found, and no sign had been discovered that might point to what had become of him. Every foot of ground within a mile and one-half of the house has been beaten over, but the search has developed nothing. The parents of the child are both prostrated with grief and anxiety.

BRYAN HOT AFTER HARMON

Says Ohio Governor Is Candidate of Wall Street.

Findlay, O., May 9.—William J. Bryan in his speech here said that since coming into the state he has obtained a letter in evidence that Governor Harmon is favored by Wall street. He said:

"I have stated that as late as February, 1908, Governor Harmon still hoped to be the Wall street candidate for president that year. I am now prepared to add that as late as June, 1908, his friends hoped to nominate him at Denver, notwithstanding that two-thirds of the delegates had been instructed for me. His friends tried to purchase delegates in Ohio who had been instructed for me.

"I do not say that Mr. Harmon authorized his friends to buy delegates, but I challenge him to deny in writing that his friends did not try to buy votes. If any one will furnish me with a written denial signed by him, I will produce the letter, of which I have a copy, showing that the money which was to have been used to purchase delegates was to come from New York, and the men who were to furnish it were prominent in Wall street. Mr. Harmon was then, as now, the choice of Wall street."
