Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Sheldon motored to Omaha Wednesday, where Mrs. Sheldon's father, J. F. Stout, of Lincoln, was operated on the day before for cancer. Mr. Stout is in a critical condition and but very little hope is entertained of his recovery.

The farmers are busy planting corn and say the ground is in fine condition. Alfalfa is almost ready to bloom and was never in finer condition for the first cutting. Wheat that escaped the ravages of the army worm last fall, is in fine shape and ought to make a bumper crop with anything like favorable conditions.

Frank Boedeker is building an outhouse in which he will house the forty-seven different varieties of machinery that he has accumulated. Frank doesn't believe in turning anything that gasoline can be made to do and thinks of some new thing every day that he can hitch his engine onto.

G. A. Duckworth purchased a Brush automobile of Troy Davis of Weeping Water and soon as he gets the necessary permission and a schedule will carry his mail route in it. The patrons on his route now have a chance to show him what good roads are and what a comfort it is to them, even in a Brush.

Morris Pollard returned Sunday evening from Strathmore, Canada, where he went some two weeks ago to make arrangements about improving his land up there. He was too late to put in any crops this year, but will have about 100 acres broken that he will crop next year. He reports things looking fine all through the north, especially Minnesota and the Dakotas, which he says are green with growing wheat, having had plenty of rain and a seasonable spring.

WEEPING WATER.

Mrs. Troy L. Davis arrived home last Sunday from Iowa, Kansas, where she has been attending her father, and left him much improved in health.

Dr. Hungate has been carrying his arm in a sling the past week. He says he sprained it in a fall last winter, and it has since affected the nerves of the arm.

There was quite a heavy frost Tuesday morning, enough to make the gardens wear a sorrowful look. Tomatoes, potatoes, beans and all early tender plants were nipped.

Mrs. Harry Kuhney and little niece, Clara Johnson, of Plattsmouth, has been visiting with F. H. Speck and family for a few days, departing for their home Tuesday on the fast mail.

Charles Bates of Tacoma, Washington, a nephew of the Misses Bates, arrived Monday noon. Mr. Bates is an electrician and if he concludes that Nebraska is more to his liking than Washington, will remain.

Edward Olander arrived last Friday from Cozad, where he has been assisting Oscar Johnson in the hotel. Edward likes the town and his job. He says Mr. Johnson is having a good business, and that Alfred Hogan is working on a farm there.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Valley and little daughter of Mynard, and Mrs. Jim Hill and family, W. K. Shepherdson and Miss Edna Shepherdson, all of Murray, with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Shepherdson, were called here on account of the illness of Mr. Shepherdson.

Mrs. Imogene Clinton Newton of Kansas City and Mrs. Clara Street Wescott of Plattsmouth were visitors here last Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Newton has been visiting in Plattsmouth with Mrs. Wescott, and both concluded to come over to the old home town to see their many friends. It was a pleasant visit for all.

Dr. E. E. Cone of Oxford came in last Thursday. He is a nephew of the Misses Bates. In company with Miss Lily Bates he went to Alvo Friday to visit the Bird relatives. Mr. Cone was in Lincoln attending the medical convention and also a meeting of the executive committee of insurgent Woodmen. He believes the large majority of the Woodmen will be successful in their fight in staying off the proposed raise in rates.

UNION.

Prof. John Branigan of Avoca was here Sunday, the guest of his friend, Prof. A. P. Stockdale.

Mrs. L. C. Walker of Lincoln spent several days here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Pearsley, returning home Tuesday.

Mrs. Laura Cunningham arrived Wednesday from Omaha for a few days' visit with E. L. Shoemaker and wife, southeast of town.

Mrs. Moss McCarroll departed yesterday for Lawrence, Kansas, to make about three weeks' visit with her parents and other relatives.

Miss Harriet Hershey and Carl Nelson of Nebraska City made a visit at the Larsh home northeast of town, returning home Tuesday.

Mrs. W. F. McCarroll and Mrs. Moss McCarroll visited a few days last week with Will A. Frans and wife in Omaha, returning home on Friday.

Prof. A. P. Stockdale and C. L. Graves were in Plattsmouth last Saturday on business. The Professor was an interested spectator while the operator worked the linotype in the Journal office, and received as a souvenir his name and address in a neat slug hot off the griddle. Any printer (and some others) will know what happened to his fingers.

Mrs. H. R. Willis (formerly Hattie Barnum) arrived Monday from Seattle, Washington, to visit some time with her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Cheney, and other relatives and friends here and at Nehawka. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Isaac Pollard, of Nehawka, who has been spending some time on the Pacific coast. Mr. Willis is expecting to come next month to visit his old-time friends for the first time since he left here for the coast county eleven years ago.

George Edmisten's son, Emil, 6 years old, suffered a painful injury near their home, three miles southeast of town, Wednesday, his left leg being cut by the gearing of a corn planter. The planter was being operated by John Ervin, who is employed on the farm, and the boy was riding. He lost his balance and fell off, and before the machine could be stopped his leg was badly lacerated. The wound was a very painful one, but the lad showed the grit of a little man while Dr. Walker was dressing it.

ELMWOOD.

Attorney DelesDernier was in Omaha Tuesday afternoon trying a divorce suit of Welch vs. Welch, and was again successful.

From all appearances the good roads movement is making a rapid growth in this locality. Graders and drags are being used with very satisfactory results. Contractor Uhley is building a large barn for Reinhart Panska, living one and a half miles south of town. The dimensions are 50x40, with 16-foot posts.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Penterman are the happy parents of a bouncing baby boy, born Saturday morning, May 4. Herman has since been staying pretty close at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vogt are mourning the death of their 4-months-old baby boy, Clarence George, the Grim Reaper having entered their home at about the hour of 8 o'clock Monday morning.

A goodly number of the local K. of P. boys attended a meeting at Weeping Water Monday night. A banquet was tendered the visitors and a right royal time is reported.

The First National bank has been supplying the farmers with plenty of good seed corn. Those lucky enough to get some of the seed will certainly be well repaid for any extra money expended. And the efforts of the bank in having the corn shipped in should be appreciated by all concerned.

EAGLE.

Fred Panquist and wife, living six miles north of town, are the proud parents of a new son, born Sunday.

George Reiter and J. H. Latrom went to Lincoln Wednesday morning to attend a convention of the K. of P. lodge.

Miss Celia Peterson departed on Monday morning for Defiance, Iowa, where she will make a visit with her relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvia Stall are the proud parents of twin daughters, born Monday. This accounts for the broad smile our good friend is wearing.

Miss Rose Peters arrived home Friday evening from Omaha, where she had been taking treatment at the hospital. We are glad to note that her health is somewhat improved.

Miss Jaunita Munger of Olewein, Iowa, arrived Tuesday afternoon to make a visit with her brother, Dr. I. C. Munger and family, also with her brother, Day, of Lincoln.

Dr. Munger, who has been going to Lincoln on Tuesday of each week to look after his class of medical students of the Cotner university, closed his work last week and will be found at his office on Tuesday afternoons.

James Dysart, one of our industrious farmers and stock feeders living southeast of town, departed last Friday morning for Chicago, shipping 67 head of fat cattle to the market. Reports received from Chicago say that Jim's cattle were of the "top-notch" and that he received a total of $8,905 for the shipment. Mr. Dysart is one of the most extensive feeders of Cass county, and he always has his stock in the best shape for the market, hence he always receives top price.

Band Royally Received.

The Burlington Route band and about forty enthusiastic young people went to Murray Saturday night for the concert and dance. The band and party were royally received and entertained by the good people of Murray. Director Schulhof was greatly pleased at the warm greeting the band received, as everything was done for the comfort and enjoyment of the party that could be done, and Mr. Schulhof speaks in the highest praise of the uniform courtesy extended to the members of the band and their friends. A very enjoyable time was had, as everyone was made to feel at home.

For Sale.

R. I. Red eggs for sale, 50 cents per setting, or $3.00 per hundred. Mrs. C. E. Schwab, Phone 3-H, Murray, Neb.

DO IT NOW! The Season for Cyclones and destructive wind storms is at hand!

Are you protected? I will write cyclone insurance for 75 cents per hundred for a term of five years. That means that you can carry $1,000 insurance for $1.50 per year. It is not wise for you to take the risk when others will take it for you at such a low rate.

Fire Insurance at lowest rates on stocks and dwellings. Special rates for long term policies.
