J. W. GRASSMAN

PASSES AWAY

Succumbs After Illness of Several Years—Funeral Wednesday Afternoon.

From Tuesday's Daily.

John Wesley Grassman born February 27, 1869, died May 27, 1912, aged 43 years, 3 months. He was born on his father's farm west of this city, the farm is now owned by Mr. Wiles. "Wes," as his friends familiarly called him, grew to manhood in this county. He was married about seventeen years ago to Miss Belle D. Ruple. Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Grassman, who, with his wife, survive him. The children are Hillard, Edith, Florence, Paul and Laura; also his father, Jacob Grassman and two brothers and one sister, namely, Charles Grassman of Alliance and Henry Grassman and Mrs. W. H. Mann of this city.

He was engaged as clerk in various stores in Plattsmouth and was a courteous and obliging man wherever placed; during the later years he was an employer of the Burlington in its bridge building department. His health had not been good for several years, but after a few months spent in Colorado Springs, he appeared to regain much of his waning strength and again went to work for the Burlington. His last sickness dates from March 4th, last, when he became too ill to longer continue work. He was a charter member of the Plattsmouth fire department, a member of the M. W. A., a good and loyal citizen, an accommodating neighbor and a good husband and father, and will be greatly missed in the community.

The funeral will occur at his late residence on South Tenth street tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. L. W. Gade and Rev. W. L. Austin will conduct the service. The funeral will be in charge of the M. W. A. Interment will be made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Posts and Wood for Sale.

A quantity of good bur oak posts, and a large supply of good block wood for sale. For further particulars see Bower & Kinomen, one mile south and one and one-half miles west of Callom.

32nd Wedding Anniversary.

From Tuesday's Daily. Yesterday being the thirty-second wedding anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barthold, Mrs. Barthold had invited all the ladies of the M. E. church to come to her home in the afternoon and assist her in commemorating the happy event. There were about fifty ladies in attendance, who were entertained in a most delightful manner. Upon their arrival each guest was presented with a white carnation as a souvenir of the occasion. During the afternoon some excellent vocal selections were furnished by Messrs. Jesse Perry, Andy Moore, W. J. Brown, Miss Ferris York and Muriel Barthold, Miss Ethel Leyda presiding at the piano. This pleasing feature of the afternoon's entertainment was interspersed with social conversation and other amusements. The ladies extended to Mrs. Barthold wishes for many more anniversaries of her wedding day.

NEHAWKA.

News.

The two telephone lines are one now, the change being made Wednesday.

The quarries are running full blast now and are shipping out a train load of crushed rock each day.

T. H. Pollock, the Plattsmouth capitalist, was in town a few hours Wednesday in his big Chalmers.

Mrs. Elmer Boedecker and baby of Murray came over Tuesday for a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Boedecker.

J. W. and G. A. Murdoch shipped a car load of hogs of their own raising to Omaha Monday. J. W. accompanied the shipment.

Mrs. George Holmes and children came in Wednesday morning from Rawlins, Wyoming, for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Humphrey, and other relatives.

It is reported that a couple of young men of this community locked horns after the show Wednesday night over who should have the right to lay siege to a lady's heart. We did not learn the decision.

Frank Sheldon and the Alford brothers, who fatten cattle on the community plan, were on the Omaha market the first of the week with stock and are all wearing a pleasant smile over the prices they got.

Lee Carper, wife and two children and Lee Carper, jr., of Fairfax, Missouri, were passengers to Lincoln on the early train Monday. Lee, jr., was on his way to York, where he will spend the summer with his aunt, Mrs. B. W. Pitman.

Joy Applegate, senior member of the show that played here this week, was once a resident of this town, his father being the village blacksmith years ago. Old-timers remember Joy as a freckled faced boy with a penchant for getting into trouble and out of his lessons. He has been in the show business for a number of years, and for the past four or five years has had a show of his own.

A copy of the Duvall Citizen, of Duvall, Washington, brings the information that Duvall is to have a new bank with a capitalization of $15,000. What makes it of interest to our readers is the fact that C. Beadon Hall is to be cashier of the new institution, and his sister, Miss Isadore, will be assistant. The people of Duvall are to be congratulated on securing the services of these two estimable young people.

Escapes an Awful Fate.

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left me with a dreadful cough," she writes. "Sometimes I had such awful coughing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment or other medicines till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I owe my life to this wonderful remedy for I scarcely cough at all now." Quick and safe, it's the most reliable of all throat and lung medicines. Every bottle guaranteed, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at F. G. Fricke & Co.

WEeping WATER.

Republican.

J. I. Corley has recently purchased the Lyman building, formerly occupied by J. R. Chandler. Mrs. George Vosburg arrived Tuesday evening from Kalamazoo, Mich., to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Vosburgh and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Andrus.

Charles Crew has taken the job of bagman at the Randolph street crossing. Mr. Garrison, in the railroad vernacular, has been "bumped."

A. S. Winchell moved this week to Webster City, Iowa, where his two sons are working. There will soon be a colony of Weeping Water people there.

George Gilmore came in last Friday from Burwell, where he is holding down a claim. He said crops were looking good and they were having frequent rains.

The City National bank has installed an electric clock. It is a nice piece of furniture and the electric current does the work. It will tell you the time to make a deposit, to borrow funds, to start a checking account or take the train.

Frank McMurlin has finished planting his corn and came in last Saturday to take the train for Lincoln and Havelock to spend Sunday visiting his daughter, Mrs. Barrett. He said the wheat looked fine out his way, but needed rain.

Jacob Meisinger returned from his farm near Cedar Creek on the morning train today.

Funeral of Little Child.

The funeral of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Parker was held Sunday afternoon at the home of the parents, Emily Theodosia was born August 19, 1910, and died May 25, 1912, at 11:30 a. m. Rev. W. L. Austin conducted the service. Little Emily was a member of the cradle roll of the Methodist Sunday school. The funeral service was very touching; the music consisted of solos by Misses Alice and Hazel Tucey. The hymns sung were: "I Think When I Read That Sweet Story of Old," "Precious Jewels" and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

Rev. Austin based his remarks on Matt. 19-14, and said in part: Parents brought their children because they wanted their children to know Christ; a child that is capable of knowing its parents and loving them may be taught to know and love Christ. It is not a good thing for a child to be ignorant of Christ. The disciples rebuked the parents; there are always those who oppose bringing the children to Christ. They are usually the unregenerate ones; these disciples were not born again until after Pentecost, therefore could not appreciate the spirit of Christ manifested towards children. One must have the spirit of Christ before he will give the child its rightful place; but when we are born again we get a new vision of the rights of the child. The day will come when men will see that the ultimate object of all effort will tend toward the education, training and saving of the child. Jesus said, "Suffer them to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom," and except we become like them, in the matter of innocence, purity, obedience and trustfulness, we cannot enter the kingdom of heaven. Jesus exalted and dignified child life. The welfare of the children who depart this life is in God's hands. He knows their frailties and the blight of sin that they escaped. It is a fearful thing to arise a child today in the presence of all the things that tempt and draw away the young life from the standards of purity.

In closing the pastor spoke comforting words to the bereaved in the thought that all that the Father did was in the interests of their best good. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery, and a large number of neighbors and friends followed the little casket to the cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

To the kind neighbors and friends who so generously assisted us during the sickness and death of our darling child, and to those sending flowers, we take this means of expressing our warmest and most sincere thanks. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Parker and Family.

The Demons of the Swamp are mosquitos. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the icy chills and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50 cents at F. G. Fricke & Co.'s.

Pleased With Investment.

From Tuesday's Daily. T. T. Wilkinson returned from Omaha last evening, where he had been looking after business matters. Mr. Wilkinson has some stock in the Commonwealth Insurance company, which he considers a good investment. In a conversation with the secretary Mr. Wilkinson learned that the company had about $3,000,000 at risk, and the annual premium income is something over $120,000. The business is growing nicely.

Visit Yellowstone Park This Summer

SEE AMERICA FIRST. Travelers from Europe visit Yellowstone Park and say there is nothing comparable with the wonderland. The season of 1912 offers still more attractive routes through the Park. For instance you will be able to go through the Park one way via Cody, the scenic entrance over Sylvan Pass, returning via Gardiner, North entrance, or vice versa. A complete system of automobiles and Park coaches is operated between Cody and the Lake Hotel, in connection with the Park hotels and stage lines.

You can buy round trip rail tickets to Gardiner or Cody for about $32.00 and make your own arrangements, including if you like, Wiley Permanent Camp six-days tours, or you can buy round trip tickets to Cody and there use the Frost & Richard sixteen day personally conducted camping tours through the Park. There are no such vacation tours in this country.

You can make the Park tour one way through Denver, Scenic Colorado and Salt Lake City, the other via Gardiner. Then there are side trip Park tours from Livingston on the main line of the Northern Pacific for those going beyond.

If you will consult with us we will be glad to show you the various attractive ways of making the tour of the Park and hand you folders.
