

Certain Facts Every Man and Woman Should Know About Buying at Fanger's Department Store

These facts should be of interest to you, as you can save from 20 to 25 per cent on every article that you buy in our store. Take the smallest item. For instance, if you buy a handkerchief for 4c in this store which will cost you only 5c elsewhere. It is only a difference of 1c, but we have 20 nickles to a dollar, the fact is proven to you that you can realize 20 per cent for your pocket by buying here than elsewhere. The same is with our Millinery, Cloaks, Suits and Dresses and all through our entire store you will find 25 per cent saved—makes no difference what you buy.

We have just received an up-to-date line of shoes for ladies and children in White Buckskin, White Canvas and Tan in Shoes, Oxfords and Pumps; also very fine Soft Sandals, at prices that you can save as mentioned above. We can hardly find space in the window to display them, but drop in and be thoroughly convinced.

NEW GERMAN HOME GETTING GOOD START

Corner Stone of New Hall of the German Turners Laid With Appropriate Ceremonies.

The corner stone of the new hall, which the German Turners are erecting on their property at Eighth street and Washington avenue, was laid last night with appropriate ceremonies. Mayor J. P. Sattler, president of the association, presided and made an eloquent address prior to the laying of the corner stone, as also did ex-Councilman William Weber and Herr Smith of the Journal. Emil Walters handled the trowel and placed the historic granite in the wall, depositing in the receptacle a copy of the Plattsmouth Journal and other valuable relics for the education of future generations.

After the ceremony the company of more than fifty members and guests adjourned to the interior of the original structure, where a banquet was enjoyed, refreshing beverages were quaffed and toasts responded to by everyone called upon save A. Wesch, sr., who did not feel in a toasting mood.

After-dinner speeches were made by J. E. McDaniel, William Weber, James Burnie, A. J. Schneider, Glen Rawls, Joseph Felzer, Councilman C. A. Johnson, Martin Johnson, Roy Holly, John Kirkman, James Rebal, Andy Kroehler, George Heisel, Emil Walters and Dave Wallengren, the last named making a very excellent speech and left the impression on his fellow craftsmen that he could have done much better had he been free from the hard cold which rendered his voice somewhat husky. At 11 o'clock the company dispersed, having spent a most enjoyable evening.

HELPED TO KEEP DOWN EXPENSES.

Mrs. J. E. Henry, Akron, Mich., tells how she did so: "I was bothered with my kidneys and had to go nearly double. I tried a sample of Foley Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I bought a bottle and feel that they saved me a big doctor's bill." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Married at M. E. Parsonage.

Mr. R. C. Bailey, the popular blacksmith of Eight Mile Grove precinct, and Miss Clara E. Stuart of Blackfoot, Idaho, tied themselves to this city yesterday, procured the necessary papers and then made their way to the M. E. parsonage about 3:30, where the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. W. L. Austin, pastor of the M. E. church. The ceremony was witnessed by O. V. Bailey of Nehawka, brother of the groom, and Miss Eva Bailey, the oldest daughter of the groom. After the ceremony the happy couple returned to their home near Murray, where a reception will be held this evening. Miss Stuart has been a resident of this vicinity for several months, being housekeeper for Mr. Bailey. Mr. Bailey has resided in this county for several years, being the blacksmith of Eight Mile Grove, also engages in farming and is a young man of sterling worth. He has a large circle of friends who will join the Journal in extending their best wishes.

Mrs. M. A. McLaughlin, 542 Jay St., LaCross, Wis., writes that she suffered all kinds of pains in her back and hips on account of kidney trouble and rheumatism. "I got some of Foley Kidney Pills and after taking them for a few days there was a wonderful change in my case, for the pain entirely left my back and hips and I am thankful there is such a medicine as Foley Kidney Pills." THE TEN THOUSAND DOLLAR SENSATIONAL SUIT WINDS UP TODAY

The Suit Brought by Henry Van Ackern, of Near Elmwood, Against George Brunhoeber, of Oklahoma, for the Alienation of His Wife's Affections.

The ten-thousand-dollar damage suit brought by Henry Van Ackern of near Elmwood against George Brunhoeber of Oklahoma, occupied the time of the district court yesterday and today. The plaintiff had introduced all of his evidence in chief by 3 o'clock yesterday, when the defendant's counsel began the introduction of evidence and had but two witnesses sworn, although three or four others had been subpoenaed, but for some reason went home before the defendant's side of the controversy had its inning.

At 5 o'clock the testimony was all in and both sides rested their case. As the taking of testimony did not take as much time as anticipated, the instructions were not ready and the court took a recess until 8 o'clock this morning. The defendant's attorneys expressed the hope that the case might be terminated and arguments made so they could go to their homes at Lincoln last night, and offered to waive the argument, but plaintiff's counsel declined to waive argument, and the Lincoln lawyers, Messrs. Berge, Louthan and Jeary, consented to remain and argue the case this morning.

The defendant's testimony was to the effect that he became acquainted with Mr. Van Ackern in 1905, while defendant was a resident of this county, they being neighbors. In January, 1905, the witness's wife died, leaving him four children, ranging from 5 to 14 years, the youngest, Bertha, being an invalid. At that time plaintiff was a single man, but was married to Mrs. Van Ackern during that summer. Mrs. Van Ackern, prior to her marriage, was a trained nurse, and after her marriage with Mr. Van Ackern defendant became acquainted with her, when in company with her husband they called at his home at various times. Both Van Ackern and his wife asked witness to allow his little girl, Bertha, to go to their home and Mrs. Van Ackern would care for her, and finally he contracted with them for $80 a year to take care of his sick child. Later on Van Ackern and his wife had trouble among themselves, and Mrs. Van Ackern visited at Newton, Kansas, where she formed the acquaintance of a man named Carter, whom she afterward called up over the long distance phone, after her return home from Newton, exciting the suspicions of her husband, who had witness ascertain at the central office at Elmwood to whom it was his wife was talking at Newton. After Van Ackern and his wife separated, the defendant, at her request, took a part of her belongings from her home to Lincoln, where they were shipped to Oklahoma. After the separation of Van Ackern and his wife witness was informed by plaintiff that the Kansas man had broken up his home. The witness testified to afterward being at several Oklahoma towns with Mrs. Van Ackern, but always with his little girl, Bertha.

Mrs. Cooper, the mother of Mrs. Van Ackern, testified in behalf of defendant, that she was a resident of Newton, Kansas; that Mrs. Van Ackern visited her home in September, 1908, where she formed the acquaintance of the man testified to by Mr. Brunhoeber; that this man and her daughter went automobile riding together several different times. The following December, having learned there was trouble between her daughter and husband, she visited her daughter in this county and attempted to affect a reconciliation. The Van Ackerns were yet living together, but were on the point of separating. Her daughter offered to make up and asked Henry, her husband, to forget the trouble and start over again. Van Ackern swore at her and told her to go to the Kansas man, Carter.

When the defendant's testimony was in, Van Ackern was recalled and contradicted the testimony of Mrs. Cooper as to swearing at his wife, or telling her to leave for Newton, Kansas. Letters were read by defendant's counsel, written by Van Ackern to his wife after they separated, asking her how he should send her property going to her in the division, and informing her that he was sending it in George Brunhoeber's car.

The forenoon was spent in arguing the case. After hearing the instructions the jury, after deliberating until 2:30, brought in a verdict for plaintiff for $1,700.

His Own Debtor.

Everybody has some duties. He owes something to the nation, to the community, to the family, and he owes much to his own body and mind. He should keep the body clean, healthy and strong and keep it from injury. He should therefore, at the first sign of an indisposition, remember his duty and do all in his power to restore the body to full health. If this indisposition comes from the stomach, he should at once use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. It will clean out the body, strengthen it and make it capable of work; it will create new energy. It will regulate the digestion, purify the blood, give new strength to the nerves and improve the circulation. It will compel the torpid liver to do its work; it will relieve constipation, even of old standing, and all its consequences. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Distinguished Visitors.

Hon. George W. Berge and Hon. E. J. Jeary of Lincoln, who were here attending to some matters in the district court, gave the Journal a very pleasant call this afternoon, and we were very much pleased to meet them. Mr. Jeary is one of the republican nominees for the legislature in Lancaster county, and of course will be elected. Mr. Berge is not only well known in Cass county, but he is very popular in Nebraska, coming very near being elected governor a few years ago.

Many Thanks.

Col. M. A. Bates of Plattsmouth, the veteran newspaper man, was 70 years old last Sunday. There are few writers today that can beat the Colonel to it in editorial work. We trust the Colonel will live to enjoy many birthdays, and retain his splendid working ability to the last.—Weeping Water Republican.

CROP PROSPECTS ALONG BURLINGTON

Burlington Crop Report Seems to Disclose Very Discouraging Conditions.

Spring crops are in fairly good condition, but the winter grains are almost completely killed in some sections of the state by the hot winds from the south, according to the Burlington crop report for the week ending June 1. Agents along the lines report that while the soil is in a satisfactory condition on the McCook division in Colorado, it is quite poor on the same division in Nebraska and Kansas. On the three eastern divisions the rain has put the ground in a fairly satisfactory condition.

Prospects for winter wheat are unfavorable, says the report. The estimates sent in by agents are from 9 to 30 per cent lower than they were the week previous. Spring grains are not so seriously damaged by the hot winds, the prospects for oats, barley and spring wheat being good. Corn is turning out satisfactorily, and many of the fields are far enough along to be cultivated.

Although the dry weather has not yet injured potatoes, the prospects are not encouraging. Sugar beets are in a satisfactory condition wherever they are raised. Pastures and meadows did not flourish especially well last week, but are not seriously damaged. Prospects for fruit continue good.

The temperature during the first two days of the week was very high for this season of the year, while for the other five days the thermometer was considerably lower.

River Causes More Trouble.

A three-foot rise in the Missouri river at Folsom in the last three days has started the river cutting into the bank near the railroad track again and preparations are being made for another fight to keep the track from going in. It is thought to be the beginning of the annual June rise. The river is cutting just below the big hole where it approached so near the track several weeks ago. It is cutting great slices from the bank in behind the new rip-rapping. One hundred men are working to stop it. Night work may be resumed soon.—Glenwood Tribune.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

The wonder of baking powders—Calumet. Wonderful in its raising powers—its uniformity, its never failing results, its purity.

Wonderful in its economy. It costs less than the high-price trust brands, but it is worth as much. It costs a trifle more than the cheap and big can kinds—it is worth more. But proves its real economy in baking.

Use CALUMET Baking Powder. At all Grocers.
