On account of the radical and sudden changes in styles and the many different varieties we are compelled to carry in Ladies' Shoes, results in large semi-annual losses, and also from many different causes the ladies' department is unprofitable, consequently we are determined to close out our Ladies' Department entirely, and discontinue it with the intention of substituting some other line of merchandise.

With this in view Every Pair of Ladies' Oxfords Must Go, and to do this and not have a pair left, we are deviding our Sale Oxfords into five classes and again putting the knife into our former low prices, and cutting not only the profit but also additional cost.

250 Pairs Ladies' Dependable Oxfords at Slaughter Prices of

$1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00

Never in the history of Cass County Shoe Merchandising were ever such marvelous values offered at these prices and we wish to make it impressive that these shoes are honest values, at marked down prices from our regular lines carried in the past, and not a lot of junk bought for the occasion.

NEBRASKA AND THE THIRD PARTY TALK

What Victor Rosewater Has to Say
About the Third Party in This State.

A special from Chicago, under date of June 23, says: The Tribune tomorrow will say: "Victor Rosewater, pale but calm, said today that he didn't see how the Roosevelt forces could command the republican organization in Nebraska, in spite of the plurality given Colonel Roosevelt in the primaries. But he was anxious to admit that he might be mistaken, and made it plain that he would not assume the role of prophet.

"The republican electors have been named in Nebraska," Mr. Rosewater said. "Under the circumstances these electors will have to vote for President Taft. Some of them may not do it, but I shall be astonished if they don't. Roosevelt electors may be named, and may be voted on in the election, but they will have to go under some other name than republican in Nebraska. The door is open for a new party in Nebraska and one can be formed by complying with a few simple conditions. I don't know just what success a new party will have in Nebraska, and I do not care to prophecy."

"Mr. Rosewater seemed to think conditions in Illinois were similar as far as the electors were concerned, and that a new party designation would be necessary in order to permit the Roosevelt electors to appear on the ballot.

"Governor Aldrich of Nebraska at one time indicated that he expected to support the man nominated by the republican national convention. He was one of the governors who issued the call for Colonel Roosevelt's candidacy, but he has not announced his intention since the Coliseum convention adjourned."

James Hunter and wife and daughter and son returned from Hitchcock, S. D., Sunday afternoon, where they visited Mr. Hunter's daughter for a time.

Had Time of Their Lives.

William Tritsch, residing eight miles west of the city, entertained a stag party at dinner yesterday, covers being laid for sixteen of his jolliest neighbors, including a few from this city. The dinner was superb and the guests were not a bit backward about putting on the aprons and rolling up their sleeves and aiding about getting the dinner. It was a fine dinner, such as one only gets a chance at in the country, and consisted of everything that goes to satisfy the appetite of a hungry mortal. The desert was German watermelon and refreshments on the side.

After the dinner dishes were cleared away and nicely shined and replaced in the cupboard, Henry Jasper "loved he could throw any man in the bunch." Henry is not so big as some, and the opportunity was quickly taken advantage of by Ernest Tritsch, but Henry was wiry and downed Ernest 2 best in 3. The game looked easy, so Louis Bechenbush stated to the crowd that he could sure throw Jasper, and at it they went. Again Jasper made good and succeeded in throwing his opponent two falls. After the wrestling matches some German songs were sung by a quartet composed of Henry Jasper, Al Lintz, Ignace Schenitz and Louis Bechenbush.

Those taking part in the pleasant affair were: William Tritsch, host; Henry Lasseran, Fred and Al Egenberger, Anton Nitka, Henry Jasper, Al Lintz, Louis Bechenbush, Ignace Schintz, Ernest Tritsch, Fred Hirz, F. Blatzer, George Blatzer, Johnnie Tritsch, Carl Tritsch and Ed Tritsch. The Plattsmouth men attending the dinner party arrived home about 8:30, having had the time of their lives.

Frank Dunbar, proprietor of the Riley hotel, who has been at St. Louis and other points during the past six weeks for his health, returned Saturday night looking considerably better than when he went away.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth of Omaha returned to their home this afternoon after spending Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker.

HOSTS FLOCK TO BALTIMORE

Maryland's Metropolis Filled With Convention Visitors.

GREAT CROWD GREET'S BRYAN

Baltimore Depot Jammed When Nebraskan Gets There—Reiterates Declaration to Fight Any but a Progressive for Temporary Chairman.

Baltimore, June 24.—Baltimore is in carnival spirit. Thousands of persons through the streets, buildings are arrayed in a riot of flags and bunting, and many souvenir vendors mingled with the passing crowd. Potential president makers, politicians from near and far, joined in what looked like mobs in the various hotel lobbies and like a parade of all Baltimore in the streets of the congested business district.

Baltimore gave the strangers splendid welcome. The city last night was illuminated as it had never been before. Up in the tower of the tallest building a great light shone all night, a landmark for those unfamiliar with the Monumental city. A quartet of searchlights played over the city while scores of structures contributed lavishly to the brilliant display. The Jackson Democratic emblem in Mount Royal square was illuminated, blending with the dazzling light from the 4,000 candle power searchlights mounted in the Mount Royal railroad building. Red, white and blue light searched into the clouds. Above the Masonic temple a large Masonic emblem was built of electric lights. More than a thousand electric lights and tops of light will send forth a masonic greeting each night during convention week.

Hotels Filled.

Hotel facilities naturally have been taxed to the limits, and the railroads had problems of their own in carrying the big crowds here into a station where normal traffic is heavy, and in maneuvering to provide trackage for the special trains and space for storing chartered cars. A small army of newspaper correspondents will have been mustered into convention service by this evening. The telegraph companies have made elaborate preparations for handling the business. The rebuilt city, which eight years ago was ravaged by one of the greatest conflagrations in history, is in readiness for the big gathering of the Democratic cohorts.

The Democratic national committee through Chairman Mack has left all the police arrangements immediate about the convention building to Marshal Farnan, the head of the Baltimore police department.

Inside the great structure all is ready. Colonel John I. Martin, sergeant-at-arms of the convention, has a multitude of doorkeepers, special officers, ushers, pages and messengers in leash.

Bryan's Welcome a Noisy One.

William J. Bryan was almost swept off his feet by the enthusiastic crowds that met him when he arrived from Chicago. The division over selection of a temporary chairman to sound the convention keynote has brought the Nebraskan into the center of the stage on the very eve of the Democratic gathering.

Mr. Bryan reiterated views in his telegram to the five candidates and declared he would fight any proposition to make anybody but a progressive chairman of the convention.

National Committee Meets.

The Democratic national committee met at noon to pass upon the selection of Judge Alton B. Parker for temporary chairman of the Democratic national convention.

The names of Senator Kern of Indiana and Representative Henry of Texas were most talked about as the likely opponents of the New York jurist in the second stage of the contest between the progressives and the so called conservatives.

Jenkins Murder Trial.

Cheyenne, Wyo., June 24.—The trial of Warren Jenkins, which begins in the district court tomorrow, is attracting great interest. Jenkins is charged with the murder of his wife, who was clubbed to death in her home one Sunday afternoon last March while Jenkins was supposed to have been visiting friends down town. Mrs. Jenkins left an estate valued at $30,000, and her husband was named in the will as sole beneficiary.

Mason City, Ia., June 22.—Arrangements have been completed here for the reception of the Sixth cavalry on July 3 and 4, when the regiment will be in camp here, en route to Sparta, Wis. Plans are made to bring a big crowd to attend the circuit races and see the soldiers encamped on the racing grounds.

THE WEATHER.

The readings below are taken at the Burlington depot, where the thermometer is placed under conditions similar to those used by the United States weather bureau.

Mill Stones.

If you put wheat under a millstone, it will be ground into flour; if you put no wheat under it, it grinds on, but wears itself away. If you put the proper amount of nutritious food in the stomach it will grind it into strength and energy—if the stomach cannot accept enough food it will wear itself away. Give constant attention to your stomach, and, if it is too weak, use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. This remedy is very strengthening, both to the stomach and to the bowels and will soon regulate the digestion. It will relieve many difficulties, like loss of appetite, weakness, vertigo, heart-burn, eructations, constipation, headache and backache, flatulence, nervousness, paleness. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Frank Slavecek and daughters, Helen and Agnes, were passengers to Omaha on the morning train today, where Mrs. Slavecek will spend the day, returning this afternoon, while her daughters will remain for a few days' visit.
