THE MONROE-STULL CASE COMPLETED

Mrs. Monroe Gets a Judgment for $400 and the Jury is Discharged.

From Saturday's Daily.

The jury in the case of Amelia Monroe vs. C. Lawrence Stull, was sent out yesterday afternoon after listening to extended arguments by counsel on both sides. W. A. Robertson opened for the plaintiff and made a clear and forcible argument, reviewing the evidence from first to last in a masterly way. He was followed by Mr. Gering for the defendant, who argued the case from his client's viewpoint. He was followed by ex-County Attorney C. A. Rawls for the plaintiff, who took up the thread of the argument where Mr. Robertson left off. Mr. Rawls' address to the jury extended well into the afternoon and was a logical and eloquent review of the whole case, his earnest manner and eloquent sentences and convincing arguments appealing to the jury, which patiently listened to the lengthy speeches of counsel, while they fanned themselves in an effort to keep comfortable.

The court instructed the jury as to what the law of the case was in case they should find the facts to be as assumed, and directed the jury to retire and select a foreman and bring a verdict according to the facts and the law.

After being out for nearly an hour and balloting frequently, the jury agreed that $400 would be suitable compensation for the damage received by plaintiff. The amount prayed for was $15,000, and while the verdict was far short of this amount, yet, considering the circumstances, it was a victory for Messrs. Rawls and Robertson, who so ably prosecuted the case. The question of permanent injury was eliminated by the instructions of the court, as none were proven.

Installs Gasoline Tank.

John Hall & Son, the main street grocers and produce dealers, yesterday installed a 150-gallon gasoline tank under the sidewalk in front of their store. The tank will be convenient to the street for the supply of gasoline to automobiles, as well as very convenient for their own use.

Marion Smith of Emerson, Iowa, arrived on the morning train today and will look after business matters at the farm for a short time.

Death of Mrs. Frank Hajek.

Mrs. Frank Hajek died Tuesday night, June 25, 1912, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Lotshaw, 499 Marshall avenue, St. Paul, Minn., after a lingering illness of over three years.

Mrs. Hajek was in her 56th year and had always enjoyed the best of health until about three years ago, when her heart began to trouble her and then, during the last few months, kidney trouble developed, and even with the best of medical care no permanent relief was given. The funeral was held from the house at 2:30 Thursday afternoon, the services being conducted by Dr. Edwards, pastor of the Dayton Avenue Presbyterian church, St. Paul. Interment was made in the Oakland cemetery, St. Paul.

She leaves a husband, one daughter, three grandchildren, one brother, one sister and many friends to mourn her demise. Mrs. Hajek was a resident of Plattsmouth for about twenty-six years, where Mr. Hajek was employed as cabinet-maker in the Burlington shops. They left Plattsmouth about two years ago to be with their daughter in Minnesota. Mrs. Hajek was a member of the Star lodge of the A. O. U. W. in Plattsmouth and retained her membership in same until her death.

Takes Excellent Picture.

Emil Weyrich took a few snapshots of the merchants playing base-ball Thursday afternoon and from them developed some fine poses of the different members of the teams. Mr. Weyrich has a camera which will take objects in motion without a blur, and the pictures of the celebrities of the city playing ball are clear and very natural. Judge Beeson is shown in the act of swinging his bat for the three-bagger, whilst behind him, crouched low, with a mask over his beautiful countenance, is Guy DeLoss McMaken in the act of taking the balls hot from the bat. Herr Henry von Goos is shown with a disappointed cast of countenance just after W. C. Baylor had enticed him to strike at one of his compound curves. Postmaster Schneider is shown in the act of catching one of Mayfield's speedy in-curves, with Smith standing over the home plate with bat in hand, apparently looking over the south fence, never having "teched" the ball, which the catcher holds in his mitt.

Entertains W. Y. T.

From Saturday's Daily.

The members of the W. Y. T., a ladies' organization of the Christian Science church, held their regular meeting at the pleasant home of Mrs. Joe McMaken on Thursday afternoon, and were delightfully entertained. There were eleven members present and three visitors. During their business session, which the ladies held during the afternoon, an election of officers was held and the following were elected. Mrs. Jennie Johnson, president; Mrs. Gertrude Barnard, secretary. For a time the ladies indulged in social conversation and amusements, interspersed with some excellent music. About 4:30 they were invited to repair to the lawn, where an elegant three-course luncheon was served at small tables, which had been placed at various nooks. It was after 6 when the ladies dispersed, indebted to the hostess for the splendid entertainment afforded them.

Fast Train for M. P.

The long-talked-of new train over the M. P. will be a reality on the seventh of July. The initial trip will sure be made on the above date, but the time for arrival in Plattsmouth has not been given out; in fact, the time card has not been issued. Agent Norton has received notice of the additional train, and it is thought that it will pass through here some time between 11 and 12 o'clock a. m., going south, and returning north will arrive about 7:30 p. m. The train will be one of the best on the entire M. P. system and will carry through equipment from Kansas City to St. Paul and will only make stops at county seat towns.

Meet With Mrs. Starkjohn.

The ladies of St. Paul's church held their regular monthly social meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Starkjohn on Thursday afternoon. There were about 60 in attendance. No business matters of any sort are transacted at these meetings and the time, on this occasion, was very pleasantly whiled away in having a genuine good social time. Delicious refreshments, consisting of coffee and coffee cake, were served, and which the guests pronounced as being excellent.

To Whom It May Concern.

We, the Redmen of Missouri Tribe No. 69, to the citizens of Plattsmouth, greetings: We have made arrangements to have a carnival in Plattsmouth, commencing July 8th and continuing until the 13th. We also figure on having special days during the week—Pioneer day, Omaha day, Louisville day, Union day, etc., and to advertise Plattsmouth in the best way possible, and to try to draw one of the largest crowds to town that was ever here during a week of carnival.

But we feel that our plans are somewhat frustrated on account of the street which was granted us being entirely too small to accommodate all of the shows. So everybody can readily see that we are up against it, providing the city council does not grant us more space on which to place the shows, as there are ten or twelve of them, and a merry-go-round, ocean wave and three free acts. Respectively,

Red Men Committee.

White Steamer in Town.

From Saturday's Daily.

W. E. Marten and son of Chicago, and L. D. Marten and son of Buffalo, arrived from Denver in a twelve-passenger Stanley steam power automobile last evening. The party left their car at the Warg & Cecil garage and put up at the Riley hotel. They were making the return trip to Chicago, from whence they left a few weeks ago. They departed this morning for Nebraska City.

Plattsmouth Visitor.

The Northwest Post was visited last week by an old-time friend, Mr. John Hall of Plattsmouth, Neb., who is now traveling for a hot air furnace company of Omaha. Mr. Hall placed an agency in this city for his furnaces in the persons of D. J. Arnold & Co., who will look after the business for the firm in the future. He is honest enough to admit that he has not the best, but one of the best and most economical furnaces on the market. As soon as the company receives a sample, it might be well for those contemplating the installation of a heater before winter arrives, to call around and inspect the same. —Belle Fourche (S. D.) Northwest Post.

Twenty-seven Yesterday.

W. C. Baylor, the coal and ice merchant, passed his 27th milestone yesterday, and in honor of the event his good wife and her mother, Mrs. Reece, surprised the young man and prepared a picnic supper and invited a few friends and Mr. Baylor to appear on the lawn near the standpipe at 7 p. m. sharp. Here supper was served in picnic style, the birthday cake, decorated with 27 candles ornamented the center of the spread. A most enjoyable evening was spent by the congenial company in the open air, away from the tropical heat of any dining room. When the shades of evening were falling the little company dispersed, wishing Mr. Baylor many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. F. A. Renne Sick.

Gave Excellent Satisfaction.

The M. W. A. orchestra of Plattsmouth gave excellent satisfaction with their splendid music Friday night at Philpot hall. The hall was crowded with dancers and they all had a fine time. The young people came from all parts of the county, as distance cuts little figure in auto riding. —Weeping Water Republican.

Councilman John Vondran and J. F. Eischidt boarded the fast mail for the metropolis and Council Bluffs this afternoon.

Cyril Janda Sick.

Commenced Wheat Cutting.

Frank Steppat commenced his wheat harvest yesterday, but this morning had the misfortune to break a part on his binder and had to come to town for the repairs. Frank says he is binding his wheat, although it is too short to make much headway binding it. The yield will be very good, however.
