A Welcome Visit.

A prominent business man visited, several days ago, the large establishment where the well known Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is being manufactured. He paid great attention to all details and upon leaving said: "I wish, Mr. Triner, that every one of our citizens pays a visit to your plant and you will need no other advertisement. I never saw such cleanliness and politeness." The manufacturer believes in the utmost cleanliness in the preparation of medicines and in using the best material and help. This explains why Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine grows in popularity from year to year. It has a decidedly beneficial effect in diseases of the digestive organs. It improves the appetite, promotes digestion, allays pain, relieves constipation, distress after meals, nervousness and headache. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 S.
