

Murray Department.

PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS.

[If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will mail same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest.—Editor Journal.]

Murray State Bank

MURRAY, NEBRASKA

Capital $10,000

Surplus $5,000

CHAS. C. PARMELE, President
F. L. NUTZMAN, Vice-President
W. G. BOEDEKER, Cashier

We Solicit Your Banking
Business

Our Deposits are protected by the Depositor's Guarantee Fund of the State of Nebraska.

Interest Paid on Time Deposits.

Levi Stagle was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday.

Lee Nickels drove to Nehawka Saturday on business.

Walter Gilmore was a guest of Roy Klaurens Sunday.

J. D. Lewis and wife were visiting Mrs. R. H. Fitch Sunday.

A. F. Nickels and family were Plattsmouth visitors Saturday.

Lee Allison and wife were calling on friends in Union Friday.

Etta M. Nickels was looking after business in Plattsmouth Saturday.

G. E. Nickels was looking after business in Omaha Saturday afternoon.

Frank Dugay was looking after business in Plattsmouth Saturday evening.

G. M. Minford and family were guests of Nick Klaurens and family Sunday.

J. D. Shrader and family were transacting business in Plattsmouth Saturday.

Arthur Copenhagen and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. A. J. Stokes.

George Oldham of Plattsmouth was down Monday to look after his farming interests.

Don't forget it! That you are expected to come to the social at Jim Tigner's July 20.

A force of men are putting in the new concrete bridge over at Frank Latta's this week.

F. D. Rhoden and wife spent Sunday with the latter's parents, G. W. Shrader and wife.

Dr. A. E. Walker and Wes Clark autoed to Murray Tuesday with Mr. James, all of Union.

What? Lawn social. Where? James Tigner's. When? July 20, 1912. For Lewiston church.

Misses Lena and Gladys Burdick of Nehawka are spending the week with Mrs. Nick Klaurens.

Prof. Julius Asch was looking after business and calling on friends in Plattsmouth Saturday.

Lloyd Lewis and Miss Mary Moore were taking in the street fair at Plattsmouth Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. A. Walker and daughter, Mrs. G. H. Gilmore, drove to Plattsmouth Monday to do some shopping.

Glen Boedecker, D. L. Hiatt, Albert Young and Charles Boedecker motored to Plattsmouth Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Ross Williams and Mrs. Berger entertained the Aid society of the Christian church Wednesday afternoon.

Newman Hostetter, the little son of Claude Hostetter, had a severe gash cut in his face while coasting with a small express wagon recently.

Word was received yesterday of the death of Mrs. Louisa Tigner in an Omaha hospital. Mrs. Tigner had been a resident of Murray several years ago.

We hear the distant chimes of wedding bells. We guess who will be married. No, we don't have to guess, because we know, but promised not to tell. So please don't get so inquisitive.

Wayne Lewis was calling on Union friends Tuesday.

H. G. Todd was a business visitor in Omaha Tuesday.

Mark White and wife were county seat visitors Saturday.

The little daughter of Robert Fitch is reported on the sick list this week.

Miss Fern McBride visited a few days at the home of W. D. Wheeler this week.

James Fitch and daughter, Anabel, were calling on the Murray merchants Tuesday.

Frank Schlietemeier shipped a carload of hogs to the South Omaha market Wednesday.

Mrs. Walter Sans and Mrs. Ted Barrows were calling on Plattsmouth merchants Saturday.

Mrs. Court of Omaha arrived Monday for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. E. G. Lewis.

Mrs. Hughes of Havelock is visiting her sister, Mrs. Grace Chambers and family, this week.

Work on the new store room of Hiatt & Tutt will soon begin and will be rushed to completion.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Pell, six miles southeast of Murray, Wednesday, a fine girl baby.

Postmaster A. L. Baker and daughter, Miss Opha, attended the carnival in Plattsmouth Monday night.

Mary Ann, put on your old gray bonnet and let us go to Jimmy Tigner's to the lawn social Saturday, July 20.

Mrs. James Allison, Mrs. W. E. Dull, Mrs. H. L. Oldham and Miss Pauline Oldham were Omaha visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Dooley of the telephone exchange went to Beatrice Sunday to visit friends, returning home Wednesday morning.

Miss Grace Porter departed Tuesday for an extended visit with her brother, Wade Porter and family, at Plainview, Neb.

The Journal scribe desires to thank Mr. S. O. Pitman for a most pleasant and enjoyable ride in his auto from Murray to Plattsmouth Wednesday. Sam has a fine car and knows how to manage to get over the road.

Mrs. McDonald has received word from Mrs. Grace Mellinger at Kansas City that Rev. Mellinger's improvement is very slow, if any, and that Mr. Mellinger will have to remain at the hospital for some length of time.

The carpenters began work on O. A. Davis' new home this week, with that prince of good fellows, Will Hamilton, in charge, and they expect to rush it through to an early completion. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will have a grand home when entirely completed.

Wheat near old Mt. Pleasant is turning out better than expected. A number of fields threshed over 25 bushels per acre, the lowest average of any field in that section being 17 bushels per acre. And Joe Lloyd, who is running the engine for one threshing outfit, says the grain is of a most excellent quality.

The K. N. K. will meet with Miss

Bertha Nickels Thursday, August 1, 1912, where the day will be spent in quilting and sewing carpet rags and will have a real picnic dinner. Each lady will bring a basket "filled with fried chicken," we hope. Every member is requested to be present and bring your friends.

Will Philpot shipped hogs Wednesday to the South Omaha market.

Mrs. A. L. Baker and daughter, Opha, were Omaha visitors Tuesday.

WANTED—100 head of cows and heifers. John McDonald, Murray.

Dr. B. F. Brendel and Torrence Fleming had business in Omaha Tuesday.

Miss Truda Long and her nephew, Master Chester Shrader, were Plattsmouth visitors Tuesday.

Little Miss Helen Nims of near Plattsmouth is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. Ed Tutt.

Charles Countryman shipped four cars of cattle to the South Omaha market Monday evening.

The Journal is pleased to learn that its friend, John Porter, is recovering nicely from his recent ailment.

John Jenkins, George Benedict and Dick Pitman attended the carnival at Plattsmouth Tuesday night.

John Tutt, after spending a few days with his son, Ed Tutt and wife, returned to Plattsmouth Monday.

Mrs. Glen Boedecker and son, Charles H., jr., are visiting her mother, Mrs. Joseph Sands, east of Murray.

Will Smith spent Sunday with his wife, returning to his work as traveling salesman, going south Monday.

Both Grandma Nix and Grandma Wiley are up and around, much to the delight of their friends and relatives.

We regret to learn that our old friend, C. Bengen, is again on the sick list. We trust this illness is of but short duration.

Jesse Moore, Clara Wohlfarth and Teressa Kelley of Plattsmouth were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Demmy Hiatt.

Mrs. Minnie Hiatt was a guest of her parents in Plattsmouth Tuesday night, returning to Murray Wednesday morning.

The patrons of the Murray postoffice will find it open on Sunday mornings from 10 to 11 o'clock until further notice.

C. C. Parmele and family of Plattsmouth autoed down Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Parmele to look after some business matters in Murray.

T. W. Fleming was over from near Weeping Water Monday night visiting old friends. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brendel while here.

A nice little baby girl made its appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Adams Tuesday. May the little lady live long to comfort her parents.

Mrs. B. F. Brendel is assisting her daughter, Mrs. Will Seybolt, in preparing the necessities of life for threshers at the Seybolt home, west of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel will soon be "at home" to their friends in their new residence. When finished it will be one of the finest homes in this section of Cass county.

Grandma McNurlin is here visiting her son, Otis McNurlin and wife. She was accompanied to town by John McNurlin, another son, whom she had been visiting.

John Kinser of Plattsmouth is here this week, engaged in lathing and plastering Dr. J. F. Brendel's new residence. They all employ John when they desire good, honest work.

J. F. Jameson of Weeping Water came over Monday and completed the front entrance steps to Dr. J. F. Brendel's new home. Mr. Jameson is the father of Mrs. Brendel.

County Surveyor Fred Patterson was here Monday doing some work in the way of straightening out the street line, previous to the erection of Hiatt & Tutt's new store room.

J. E. McDaniel, F. G. Egenberger and Bernard Wurl stopped in Murray a short time Wednesday to look after some business matters. They were en route in Mac's touring car to visit other towns of the county.

Everybody invited to come and have a good time at the Cosmopolitan club dance Saturday evening at Coates' hall. Admission, 50c; ladies free.

Don't forget to ask your best girl Sunday night if she doesn't want to go to the lawn social at James Tigner's Saturday evening, July 20, 1912.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Porter were Plattsmouth visitors on Monday of this week, where they were visiting with county seat friends and looking after some business matters. Mr. Porter has been quite sick for the past few weeks and just returned some ten days ago from Lincoln, where he had been taking treatment. He is feeling greatly improved at this time, but still very weak.

Entertains.

Mrs. W. A. Brown entertained a number of lady friends Wednesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Hammond, of Michigan. The afternoon was most pleasantly spent in social conversation and in other ways customary to such an occasion, and at the proper hour a dainty luncheon was spread. Those present to enjoy the occasion were: Mesdames M. Hiatt, Latta, Edmunds, Young, Walker, Oldham, J. D. Pitman, Dull and Allison.

Notice to Weed Owners.

All farmers residing in road district No. 10 are hereby notified to cut the weeds along the public highways adjacent to your premises. Those who fail to do so will have the expense of the same charged up to their lands, as provided by law, and the road overseer will have the weeds cut.

Ben Beckman,
Overseer Road District No. 10.

In Justice Court.

The replevin case pending before Judge Archer's court, in which Thomas S. Kelly is plaintiff and J. Marshall defendant, was called for trial this morning. The controversy is over the possession of some of the carnival property, valued by the appraisers at $125. The parties agreed to continue the case until August 17, when both sides hope to be better prepared for the battle.

Takes Two Weeks' Vacation.

Jap Young, one of Uncle Sam's boys that distributes the mail to the farmers on the Mynard route, began a two weeks' vacation this morning. In reality, he will get eighteen days, as there are three Sundays included in the fifteen working days. Adam Meisinger, Mr. Young's genial deputy, will take care of the business while he takes his rest.

To Those Interested.

The notes and accounts due the late firm of Edmunds & Brown are left at the State Bank of Murray for the convenience of those who may desire to settle. This is done because I will not be in Murray all the time, having business on my farm.

J. W. Edmunds.

Cut the Weeds.

The weed cutting time has again arrived and I hereby wish to call the attention of all farmers in road district No. 1 that all weeds must be cut on or before August 15. Let everybody kindly look after this as early as possible.

Mike Lutz,
Overseer.

A Special Teachers' Examination.

A special teachers' examination will be held on Thursday and Friday, July 25th and 26th, 1912, at the county superintendent's office, in all county certificate subjects and in professional and city state subjects. These examinations are to be given at Plattsmouth only.

7-17-71d-31wkly.

Ice Cream Social.

The class of Willing Workers of the Otterbein Sunday school will give an ice cream social at the home of J. A. Davis on Saturday evening, July 27th. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. J. A. Johnson and children of Omaha, who have been guests of Mrs. Johnson's parents, C. B. Sybotham and wife, for a few days, returned to their home this afternoon.

WORKS WILL NOT RESIGN

Says Progressives Have No Right to Make Request.

THEY OBJECT TO CRITICISM.

Exception Taken by Lieutenant Governor Wallace and Others to Statement Issued by California Senator. Call for Illinois Moose Convention.

Los Angeles, July 18.—Because of his criticism of the proposed new "progressive party," as set out in a statement issued by him in Washington two days ago, United States Senator John D. Works was asked to resign by Lieutenant Governor A. J. Wallace, Mayor Lissner, chairman of the California Republican central committee, and other progressive supporters.

The request was telegraphed to Mr. Works in Washington and was signed by forty progressives.

Washington, July 18.—"I shall not resign," said Senator Works, when asked what he meant to do about the Harris & Ewing.

SENATOR WORKS.

telegram from California progressives. "Why should I? These people are not even members of the Republican party—they have no right to ask my resignation."

Roosevelt Stands Pat.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 18.—After reading the statements made by William Flinn of Pittsburgh and E. A. Van Valkenburg of Philadelphia, two of his leaders in Pennsylvania, in support of the plan for placing the same candidates for presidential electors on both the Taft and Roosevelt tickets, Colonel Roosevelt said that he would not recede from the position he had taken in regard to a compromise giving recognition to Taft claims in the primary states. The difference which has arisen will be threshed out at the Chicago convention next month, Colonel Roosevelt indicated.

Call for Illinois Moose Convention.

Chicago, July 18.—Attaches of the headquarters of the Roosevelt forces were busy sending throughout the state the call for a state convention to be held in Chicago, Aug. 3, to elect delegates to the national third party convention to be held here two days later.

HITCHCOCK TELLS OF FUNDS

Taft's Campaign Manager Appears Before House Committee.

Washington, July 18.—Postmaster General Frank Hitchcock told the senate committee investigating campaign contributions of 1904 and 1908 that the record of the funds used in President Taft's election, as filed in Albany, were absolutely correct and that he could not supplement these reports by testimony.

Mr. Hitchcock said the total collected through various agencies of the committee in 1908 was $1,655,518.27.

Mr. Hitchcock promised to furnish the investigating committee with copies of the financial records of the campaign. No contribution was received from a corporation, Mr. Hitchcock said, as congress had just passed a law prohibiting it.

Rebel Forces Robbing Foreigners.

Madera, Chihuahua, July 18.—Having looted the Madera Lumber company's storehouse of $25,000 worth of goods and robbed scores of foreigners of horses and saddles, the rebel command of General Antonio Rojas, comprising 1,000 men, started westward through the state of Sonora for Guaymas and Pacific coast points.

Escaped Prisoners Recaptured.

Centralla, Ill., July 18.—Three prisoners, C. L. McRaven, Otto Laswell and Thomas Tomalson, escaped from the Salem jail by digging a hole through a brick wall. Tomalson was overtaken near Kinmundy, after a running battle with Sheriff Vursell, and the other two were captured in the woods near Salem.

Jenks Offered Peking Post.

Peking, July 18.—Professor Jeremiah Jenks of Columbia university and formerly of Cornell was offered the post of financial adviser to the Chinese republican government. This marks an important step toward governmental reform and shows the desire of the Chinese cabinet to employ expert foreign talent.

W. H. HOTCHKISS.

Hughes Officeholder
Who Will Lead Fight
For T. R. in New York.

© by Pach Bros.

KIDNAPED BABY NOT FOUND WITH GYPSIES

Recovery of Long Lost Child Was Soon Dispelled.

Bedford, Ia., July 18.—The Taylor county sheriff received a telegram from the sheriff of Kossuth county confirming the report that the child taken from a gypsy couple here was not the missing Marlow child. Acting on the advice the child was restored to its parents and they were given fifteen minutes to get out of Iowa. They left at once for the Missouri line.

AUTO HITS TELEPHONE POLE

Five Persons Injured in Smashup Near Des Moines.

Des Moines, July 18.—Five persons were badly injured when an automobile in which they were riding struck a telephone pole and rolled down a fifteen-foot embankment at the outskirts of the city.

The injured: James Staley, driver of the car; C. M. Russell, Boone, Ia.; Louis Clement, Waterloo, Ia.; Miss Iva Woods, Des Moines; Miss Clara Woods, Des Moines.

They were taken to the hospital, where it was reported all will recover. The party was returning from a camp in the country when the accident occurred. The machine was demolished.

Staley was later arrested, charged with violating the state law by failing to report the accident, and will be held pending an investigation. Other members of the party may be arrested, the police say.

TEN-YEAR-OLD CRACKSMAN

Des Moines Lad Caught in Raid on Safe.

Des Moines, July 18.—Noah Allinkov, a boy of ten years, was caught in the act of tapping the safe of the Siegel Bottling works, at 215 East Locust street. The man in charge of the office had stepped out for a few minutes, and upon his return found the youngster at work on the safe. Allinkov was arrested by Detective McKircher, who found that he was well equipped for the burglary trade, having in his possession a small outfit of tools of the kind usually carried by professional safecrackers.

DEMOCRATS WIN FILIBUSTER

Republicans in Senate Will Agree to Vote on Tariff Bills.

Washington, July 18.—Democratic forces in the senate practically won their demand for consideration of the remaining tariff bills and the excise tax bill. This was the result of conferences on the floor at the opening of a Democratic filibuster.

Senator Simmons, in charge of the tariff bills, told the Republican leaders the Democrats would resort to every device to delay business unless assured there could be a vote on the tariff measures.

Senator Smoot immediately called a number of other Republican leaders in conference in the Republican cloak room. So far as they could the Republican senators present agreed to accede to the Democratic demand, with the understanding that the Democrats abandon their filibuster and agree to allow the tariff bills to go to ballot after comparatively brief discussion.

BODY OF SWARTZ IS FOUND

Slayer of Julia Connors Drowned Himself in River.

New York, July 18.—The body of a man found floating in the Hudson river and taken to a morgue in Hoboken was identified as that of Nathan Swartz, indicted for the murder of the child Julia Connors in the Bronx on July 7. The identification was made by Frank Alexander, Swartz's brother-in-law.

New York, July 18.—The body of a man found floating in the Hudson river and taken to a morgue in Hoboken was identified as that of Nathan Swartz, indicted for the murder of the child Julia Connors in the Bronx on July 7. The identification was made by Frank Alexander, Swartz's brother-in-law.