

The Pollock-Duff BRIDGE

makes possible a delightful Auto ride to Omaha—only 19 miles distant from Plattsmouth.

A drive over Omaha's 25 miles of beautiful paved boulevards and park system will furnish a pleasant surprise and recreation.

Fort Crook's fine macadam drives and regular afternoon and evening band concerts are very enjoyable and are free to the public.

Take a little jaunt over the new Auto and Wagon Bridge. You will like it.

POLLOCK & DUFF

WEeping WATER.

Republican.
Clarence Lau and wife of Sutherland arrived last Friday to attend the funeral of his sister.
William Foltz autoed down from South Omaha last week to look after some business matters on the farm.
Frank Throne and his mother went to Alvo Sunday evening to visit Mrs. Throne's daughter and a new son that arrived of recent date.

Herman Wegener had 50 acres of wheat that average 22 1/2 bushels per acre. He had 25 acres rented to B. Baker and that field averaged 29 bushels per acre.

Last Sunday was the hottest day of the year, 106 in the shade. On Tuesday morning the thermometer registered within 13 degrees of freezing, but that is considerable.

Mrs. John McKay and son, Merle, are visiting relatives in Oral, S. D., and will spend two or three weeks at different places in the Black Hills and in Nebraska.

Earl Hunter spent a month in north and eastern Nebraska on business and then took a short vacation at Hot Springs, S. D. It is quite likely that Mr. Hunter will conclude to soon engage in the newspaper business.

Mrs. Made Barnes and son, Ovid, went to Diller Tuesday on receipt of the news that her father, Mr. Hudson, was stricken with paralysis. Mr. Hudson died about half an hour after their arrival. He was a former Cass county farmer and about 79 years old.

A. E. Jameson's new house on Eldora avenue is beginning to look quite pretentious. It is ready for the roof, which is now being put on. This eight-room house, with an attic containing another room, and every room in the house lighted with large windows, will make a handsome and slightly residence. Mr. Jameson is going to have everything modern.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hygema mourn the loss of their adopted daughter of about three years age. Mr. Hygema was a former pastor of the Mononite church of this place. Mrs. Hygema was visiting her folks in Milford when the baby died. The child was buried July 7th.

EAGLE.

Max Spahnle and wife are the proud parents of a fine new son which registered at their home last Saturday evening.

Homer Knight and family were down from Walton Sunday evening and made a short visit with Charles Renner and family.

Mrs. A. H. Vanlandingham went to Plattsmouth Monday afternoon to spend a few days visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Setz.

Mrs. Mamie Hudson and daughters came down from Lincoln Tuesday morning to spend a few days visiting with relatives and friends.

W. H. Jones and daughter, Miss Electa, of Oskaloosa, Kansas, arrived last Saturday evening to make a visit with George L. Myers and family.

J. G. Johnson and Gilbert Pettit departed Wednesday forenoon for Superior, where the former has several large contracts for carpenter work.

Mrs. William Morrison of Omaha and Miss Nora Jeter of Los Angeles, California, arrived last Saturday evening and are visiting with Claude Benz and wife.

Mrs. Herman Swanson returned to her home at Julian Sunday morning, after having spent several days visiting with her parents, Charles Renner and family.

Rev. A. J. Gumm and wife departed Monday afternoon for Omaha, where Mrs. Gumm will enter the Methodist hospital for treatment and Mr. Gumm will consult Dr. Gifford regarding his eyes.

Last week the livery barn figured in two trades, the owner, W. C. Gunn of Fort Scott, Kansas, trading the barn to George Westlake of Rolfeby for the McCurdy 40 acres south of town.

Mr. Westlake in turn sold the barn to L. L. Greamer, who immediately took possession of the barn and residence property. Mr. Greamer informs us that he intends to devote his personal attention to running the barn and accommodating the general public.

Mail Carriers Will Fly. This is an age of great discoveries. Progress rides on the air. Soon we may see Uncle Sam's mail carriers flying in all directions, transporting mail. People take a wonderful interest in a discovery that benefits them.

That's why Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, Colds and other throat and lung diseases is the most popular medicine in America. "It cured me of a dreadful cough," writes Mrs. J. F. Davis, Stieckey Corner, Me., "after doctor's treatment and all other remedies had failed." For coughs, colds or any bronchial affection it's unequalled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at F. G. Fricke & Co.

A week from Sunday the much-touted bunch of ball players from Cedar Creek will be over here for a game with our local gladiators. Cedar Creek is admitted one of the best teams in Cass county and we are curious to see what happens when they arrive.

E. M. Pollard has built an addition to their packing plant, enlarging the building enough to double the floor space and putting in cement floors throughout. This extra track room will enable them to handle their apple output without congestion or the vexatious wait for cars. The crop promises to be a large one and is in fine condition.

J. W. Holmes of Murray, who represents the L. Burg Buggy company of Dallas City, Illinois, was in town a few hours Tuesday afternoon with a six-cylinder automobile made by the Burg people. Mr. Holmes is very enthusiastic over having the agency for this car, as he thinks he has for the money one of the best cars on the market today.

due time and is now about as well as ever.

J. C. Thygeson and wife of Nebraska City, Mrs. Donelan and Miss Margaret Donelan of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Burgess and Miss Rena Burgess of Cedar Rapids, and Robert Thygeson and Walter Noelling of Nebraska City, were out for a few hours' auto ride Wednesday morning and stopped here to call on some of their friends.

Insect Bite cures Leg. A Boston man lost his leg from the bite of an insect two years before. To avert such calamities from stings and bites of insects use Bucklen's Arnica Salve promptly to kill the poison and prevent inflammation, swelling and pain. Heals burns, boils, ulcers, piles, eczema, cuts, bruises. Only 25 cents at F. G. Fricke & Co.

ELMWOOD. Leader-Echo.
Mrs. Ralph Keckler and son, Richard, of near Manley, drove up to Elmwood Wednesday.
W. E. Rosencrans and sons, Clate and Blythe, motored out from Plattsmouth Friday evening.

Mrs. J. U. DelesDernier was taken to Lincoln Friday evening for treatment in a hospital.

Mrs. William Quinn went to Lincoln yesterday to see her mother, Mrs. Dunkle, who is in a serious condition from an attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. Loren Barrett and children of Aldersyde, Alberta, Canada, came the first of the week to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Waltz.

Mrs. F. W. Lorenz and daughters, Marie and Catherine, and Miss Emma Stirtz leave this week for Council Bluffs and other places in Iowa for an extended visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Sarah Burt and granddaughter, of Aurora, Neb., visited a few days the fore part of the week with Elder and Mrs. Myers. Mrs. Burt and Mrs. Myers were former close friends and neighbors in New York state.

William Caygill was the highest bidder on the Baker eighty Saturday afternoon when that piece of land was disposed of in front of the American Exchange bank by E. B. Wait, guardian of George E. Baker, incompetent. The eighty was purchased by Mr. Caygill at a consideration of $95 per acre.

The Kensington ladies met at the beautiful home of Mrs. L. F. Langhorst last Thursday afternoon and spent the time in fancy work and jolly conversation, also enjoying the kodak pictures Miss Daisy took on her trip east. At about 5 o'clock Mrs. Langhorst refreshed the company with a delightful lunch.

Will Soller and wife of Gothenberg, Neb., and Dick Smith and wife of Kenesaw, Neb., came Sunday night in answer to a summons announcing the serious illness of Grandma Krull. The aged lady is quite feeble as a result of her illness, but she is improving at this writing and hopes are entertained for her recovery.

The Choice of a Husband is too important a matter for a woman to be handicapped by weakness, bad blood or foul breath. Avoid these kill-hopes by taking Dr. King's Life Pills, New strength, fine complexion, pure breath, cheerful spirits—things that win men—follow their use. Easy, safe, sure, 25c at F. G. Fricke & Co.

LOUISVILLE. Courier.
Mrs. G. W. Mayfield, who has been ill for some time, is now able to be up again.

Henry Worthman of Seward is here visiting with his brother, Dr. E. H. Worthman and family.

Mrs. Joe Fitzgerald of Omaha is visiting here with her mother, Mrs. B. W. Tedorski.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Herr of Chotsworth, Illinois, arrived Wednesday for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Yant.

F. H. Nichols and family went to Maitland, Missouri, Sunday in their automobile for a few days' visit with Mrs. Nichols' parents.

Mrs. Frank Johnson and children returned last Friday from Denver, Colorado, where they had been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kahler.

Ditching for the water pipes for the water plant is being pushed rapidly. All the ditching is to be done by hand and as there is five miles of ditching to be done it will furnish work for quite an army of men.

DR. O. SANDIN

Veterinary Surgeon

Plattsmouth, Nebraska

Permanently located at the M. E. Manspeaker Livery Barn, on and after July 22, 1912. Graduate of the Kansas City Vet. College. All calls either day or night, will be given prompt attention.

DEPART FOR THE STATE OF ARKANSAS TO VISIT FARM

Mr. and Mrs. William McCaully and son, Charles, departed for Monticello, Arkansas, last evening on No. 2 for the purpose of taking possession of their farm, build a house upon it and improve it. Mrs. McCaully and Charles may stay several months, while Mr. McCaully will stay for a few weeks. They will leave their dwelling here intact, to be disposed of later should they like the country well enough to make their home there.

Stood Operation Well. From Tuesday's Daily.

Dr. C. A. Marshall returned from Immanuel hospital this afternoon, where his son, Juno, underwent an operation for appendicitis yesterday morning. The doctor stated that his son came through the operation in fine shape, recovered from the effects of the ether without any serious symptoms and appeared to be in good condition physically. He saw him again just before starting for the train this morning and Juno was doing as well as anyone could under the circumstances. Mrs. Marshall remained in Omaha and will look after their son for a few days.

State Fair. The Nebraska State Fair, September 2-6, would not seem natural without the great Liberati Military band and Grand Opera Concert company in their daily concerts. This band is without doubt the peer of any like organization in the United States and music lovers look forward with delight to the rendition of favorite acts from Il Trovatore, Lucia, Cavalleria Rusticana, Rigoletto, Faust, Carmen and other popular operas.

Six months are allowed for the creditors of said deceased to present their claims, and one year for the Administrator to settle said estate, from the 25th day of July, 1912.

Witness my hand and seal of said County Court at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this first day of July, 1912.

(Seal) ALLEN J. BEESON, County Judge.
D. O. DWYER, Attorney.

LEGAL NOTICE.

A. E. Riley and A. C. McGuigan, doing business as the Midwest Carnival and Exposition Company, will take notice that on the 10th day of July, 1912, M. Archer, a justice of the peace of Cass County, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $57.00 for work and labor in an action pending before him, wherein Stanley L. Eaton is plaintiff and the above named parties defendants; that property of the defendants, consisting of awnings, stage scenery, stages inside and out, ticket booths, wooden seats and other material, has been attached under said order. Said cause was continued to the 24th day of August, 1912, at 9 o'clock a. m., at which time trial will be had.

Stanley L. Eaton, Plaintiff.
7-22-3wks.

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS—The fine residence on High School Hill known as the Mae Patterson property, can be bought, if taken soon, at $2,200.00. A cottage on Wintersteen Hill, city water and cement sidewalks, for only $325. The five-room cottage within two blocks of Main street for $350. We have many others for sale at bargain prices and on easy terms.

WINDHAM INVESTMENT AND LOAN CO.
7-11-1f-d&w.

Mow the Weeds. According to the new law all farmers are compelled to cut the weeds along their line of road or the same will be cut by the road overseer and charged up in taxes to land adjacent. Therefore, it is my duty to notify all farmers residing in Eight Mile Grove precinct to cut the weeds on or before the 15th day of August, or I will be compelled to comply with the law. Frank Platzer, Road Overseer.

Shetland Ponies for Sale. I have an excellent team of Shetland ponies for sale. Well broke and at a price that is right. Wm. Gilmour, R. F. D., Plattsmouth.

F. R. Whittaker, Burlington traveling engineer, was in the city today looking after company business.

Ladies' and Misses' White Dresses, worth from $3.50 to $18.00. Summer Clearance Sale price, $2.50 to $12.00.
E. G. DOVEY & SON.

Will Play Baum Iron Company. Secretary A. A. Dotson of the Plattsmouth Boosters ball team has canceled the date with the Dundee Woolen Mills team, as he has been informed that the players are all young, and has secured a game for next Sunday, July 28, with the Baum Iron company team. This team is said to be a strong one and will make a good game for next Sunday afternoon.

Special Rates for Summer Tours

GO SOMEWHERE

TO THE EAST. Excursion rates to New York and Boston, via all routes going one way, returning another. A most attractive tour of the East may be made at these rates.

TO THE PACIFIC COAST. Low excursion rates every day; still lower rate to special dates; the greatest railroad journey in the world and at low rates.

YELLOWSTONE PARK. Special rates for any kind of tour desired; go in via Cody, the scenic entrance, come out via Gardiner; personally conducted camping tours; the Wylie camp tours. Ask agent for Park literature.

MOUNTAIN TOURS. Ask agent for handbook of Colorado resorts. Look up Hot Springs, S. D., ask for Black Hills booklet. You might like the Big Horn Mountains at the Sheridan and Ranchester resorts; ask for leaflet. Get in touch with us. Ask for rates and publications for any kind of a vacation tour.

R. W. CLEMENT, Agent.

W. L. WAKELY, General Passenger Agent, Omaha, Neb.

