Meek Davis is another possessor of a brand new Overland auto just received the past few days. This is the third Overland that has been sold in this locality during the past week.

Mesdames J. D. Pitman, Rose Hennings, S. O. Pittman, O. A. Davis, V. A. Kennedy and Misses Agnes Kennedy, Pauline and Fay Oldham spent Tuesday picnicking and gathering wild plums, but more picnic than plums.

Dr. B. F. Brendel and son, Dr. J. W., autoed to Plattsmouth Wednesday, where Dr. B. F. took the Burlington train for his old home down in Indiana. He will spend his summer vacation among the scenes of his boyhood.

William Troop shipped a car of hogs to South Omaha on Monday of this week.

George Ray was looking after some business matters in the county seat Tuesday of this week.

Ed and Lloyd Lewis were looking after some business matters in the county seat Tuesday of this week.

Dick Pittman has invested in a new Overland auto and was taking in the ball game at Plattsmouth Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilmore and Mrs. J. A. Walker were in Plattsmouth Wednesday, making the trip in the doctor's auto.

The new bridge south of Murray is almost completed and it is certainly a dandy. The Nebraska Construction Co. are doing the work.

Jenkins & Co. have completed the excavation of the Hiatt & Tutt cellar for their new store room and the other work will now move on rapidly.

The dance given in Jenkins' hall last Friday evening was quite well attended. The music was furnished by the Nebraska City orchestra.

The Murray Main street is in rather bad condition at the present time by having so much loose dirt upon it, taken from the Hiatt & Tutt cellar.

The Weeping Water boosters, in all their glory, were in Murray Monday morning with seventeen auto loads, including the band which furnished plenty of music of a very extemporaneous nature.

Frank Schlichtemeier is another one of Murray's citizens who will take his pleasure and business rides in an Overland auto, having bought a new 1913 model the past few days.

Miss Dollie Gregory, daughter of J. R. C. Gregory, pierced her hand last Friday with a sharp peering knife, inflicting quite an ugly wound. She is doing nicely and nothing of a serious nature will result.

Herman Reike is suffering from a badly infected hand, caused from a slight abrasion of the skin and the sting of a poisonous fly. The arm to the elbow has been infected from the poison, and while he has had quite a serious time, he is much better at this time.

J. W. Berger met with a very serious accident at the elevator on Monday of this week. He was engaged in his usual duties, and in working around the machinery he got his hand caught in the boot of the elevator. The injured member was badly lacerated and will require many days to mend.

Frank Gobelman, the boss Plattsmouth painter and paper hanger, has just completed the residence of George Ray, east of Murray. He has now painted the building both inside and out, also paper and frescoing where it was needed, making the comparatively new residence of Mr. Ray one of the finest in this section. Frank Gobelman knows how to do the work and he always does it.

M. F. Moore was a county seat visitor Monday.

J. D. Tigner was transacting business in Plattsmouth Monday.

A. F. Nickels and son were calling on Plattsmouth merchants Monday.

SELLS A FINE

80 ACRE FARM

An Excellent Eighty and Brings the Highest Price of Any Farm Sold Lately.

C. F. Harris has just closed a deal with Charles Spangler for the east half of the late S. J. Fleming quarter section. This land belonged to D. B. Porter and wife and was one of the choicest eighties in that section of the county, lying almost level and only two and one-half miles from Murray and one-half mile from school. This land brought the neat sum of $41,000, and $41,000 means $137.00 per acre, and without a building on it. Stand up for Cass county! Mr. Harris has other good land for sale. See him. He can deliver the goods and is considered an expert on land values, when it comes to Cass county lands. He has a list of more than twenty-five satisfied customers in Cass county. Some of them being Harry Todd, John Edmunds, Silas Long, David Murray, S. W. Copenhaver, John Norris, James Darrow, James Sage, Charles Boedeker, Eli Smith, R. D. Conrad, Abe Becker, Winfield Swan, Ellis Daniel, D. B. Porter, Charles Garrison, Mrs. Davis, Hugh Warden, John Hansell, Elmer Chapman, Wessell Bros. of Nebraska City, Homer Schrader, Nick Klaunens, Ora Davis and many others who have had land trades with him. Talk it over with him if you want to buy or sell. He sells on short time, listing 30, 60 and 90 days. Commission plan. "New plan." See him.

Loyal Berean Class Entertained.

The Loyal Berean class of the Christian Bible school was entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Lloyd Gopen. Many games were played, which caused much merriment. The class has been taking a course of bible study and they all show that they have had very careful training, thus they entered the "Bible Quiz" contest with a great deal of enthusiasm. Miss Vera Hatchett won the first prize, a box of candy, 94 per cent of her answers being correct. Several pictures were taken of the teacher and class with their bibles. At 5 o'clock delicious refreshments were served, which the children particularly enjoyed. The children departed for their homes feeling very grateful to Mrs. Gopen and Miss Villa for being so royally entertained. Everyone wishes the class success in their future course of study. May they do even better in the future than they have in the past. Those present were: Opha Baker, Vera Hatchett, Eva La Rue, Henrietta Creamer, Esther Rice, Frances Moore, Helen Livingston of Myrard, Villa Gopen, Isabella Young, Martin Sporer, Virgil McDaniel, Raymond Creamer, Dewey Read, Oliver Gopen and Mrs. Young and Mrs. Gopen.

George Nickels was calling on Plattsmouth friends Saturday afternoon.

Dr. Gilmore Old Enough to Vote

Dr. G. H. Gilmore celebrated his unstated birthday Tuesday of this week. In asking the doctor his age, all he says is that he is old enough to vote for Wilson this fall and that's enough. There were a number of relatives and friends in to assist the doctor in the celebration. It is needless to say that they were unanimous in wishing the doctor many more such happy occasions, but they did not all state that they were going to vote as the doctor has said he was.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT WHILE ASSISTING IN THRESHING

Glen Campbell met with a painful accident last evening while working with Peter Campbell's threshing machine, doing a job of threshing for Bill Splitt, four miles southeast of Murray, whereby he will lose a part of the fourth finger on his right hand. Glen was working with the chain of the straw carrier when the accident happened. The machine was in motion and the chain of the carrier drew Glen's hand into the cogs of the carrier wheel, mashing the finger so badly that it had to come off between the first and second joint. Glen was brought to Plattsmouth and the injured hand dressed by Dr. Cook. Glen was in this morning again to have the hand dressed and appeared to be getting along as well as could be expected.

Fifteenth Birthday Anniversary.

The fifteenth birthday anniversary of Walter Hamilton and the sixteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton was celebrated Friday evening of last week, by giving Walter a surprise party.

Walter was at work at Mr. Beverages, and after supper it was suggested that all go to Murray to see what was going on, and he found out, much to his enjoyment.

The evening was spent in the playing of numerous games, and at the usual hour partners were secured for refreshments by matching pansy blossoms. Punch was served throughout the evening. A guessing contest was engaged in and Frank Dugay was the fortunate one.

The birthday cake with the name and dates was an attractive part of the party. Walter received numerous presents. Some of the older people were invited to help Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton decide, "If marriage is a failure." The evening was a delightful one for all present.

There will be a series of revival meetings, commencing next Sabbath evening, August 25, at the Lewiston M. E. church. Everybody invited to attend. Rev. T. J. Overstreet, Pastor.

The Trials of a Traveler.

"I am a traveling salesman," writes E. E. Youngs, E. Berkshire, Vt., "and was often troubled with constipation and indigestion till I began to use Dr. King's New Life Pills, which I have found an excellent remedy." For all stomach, liver or kidney troubles they are unequalled. Only 25 cents at F. G. Fricke & Co.

Hazel Clugy Doing Well.

Fred Clugy visited his daughter, Hazel, at St. Joseph's hospital yesterday afternoon, and found her improved very much over the previous day. The physician stated that if the patient continued to improve as much in the days following as she had already, that in two weeks Hazel could come home, which she is very anxious to do.

The Choice of a Husband is too important a matter for a woman to be handicapped by weakness, bad blood or foul breath. Avoid these kill-hopes by taking Dr. King's Life Pills. New strength, fine complexion, pure breath, cheerful spirits—things that win men—follow their use. Easy, safe, sure, 25c at F. G. Fricke & Co.

ENTERTAIN LARGE NUMBER OF FRIENDS

On Wednesday afternoon, August 14, Miss Marjorie Vallery very pleasantly entertained a large number of friends at her beautiful home, in honor of her cousins, Willma and Clarie Cook of Elmwood, Neb., who have been visiting at the Vallery home. All kinds of outdoor games were played on the lawn, also some guessing contests were participated in and thoroughly enjoyed by the guests. Fern Lloyd and Opal Cole won the prizes. Several delightful piano selections were contributed by a number of the guests, which were highly appreciated. A delicious luncheon was served at the usual hour.

Those who enjoyed this happy occasion were: Willma and Clarie Cook of Elmwood, Neb., Opal Cole, Fern Lloyd, Grace and Fern Dill, Mildred Satchell, Myrtle Mossbarger, Janet Young, Vera Vroman, Lola Fitzpatrick, Eva Bailey, Mae and Glenna Barker, Edith Perry, Helen Vallery, Naimonia Adams, Marjorie Vallery.

Flying Men Fall

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that, as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters," he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. It's folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at F. G. Fricke & Co.

Ten-Pound Baby Girl.

A ten-pound baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pittman, 2417 Caldwell street, Omaha, this week. Both mother and little one are doing nicely. Mrs. Pittman's maiden name was Miss Anna Kanka, formerly one of Plattsmouth's school teachers.

Robert W. Herter, Lawrenceville, Mo., who had been bothered with kidney trouble for two years, says: "I tried three different kinds of kidney pills, but with no relief. My neighbor told me to use Foley Kidney Pills. I took three bottles of them, and got a permanent cure. I recommend them to everybody." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Will Hold Annual Picnic.

Council No. 372, Knights and Ladies of Security, will hold its annual lawn social at the home of Hon. R. B. Windham on Friday evening, August 23. The members are expected to be present. After September first the council will hold its meetings in the M. W. A. hall. The regular election of officers will be held Monday evening, September 2.

Back From Hospital.

Mrs. Peter Zeihn of Kenosha, Wis., who came to Plattsmouth last June to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kanka, and two weeks later went to the hospital in Omaha for an operation at St. Joseph's hospital, returned to Plattsmouth last Saturday evening greatly improved in health.

Itching piles provoke profanity, but profanity won't remove them. Doan's Ointment is recommended for itching, bleeding or protruding piles. 50c at any drug store.
