Entertains Sunday School Class.

Last Wednesday afternoon Miss Maude Rusterholtz delightfully entertained the members of her Sunday school class at her home. Games and music made the afternoon pass by all too quickly. Two contests were held, in which Miss Julia Todd and Miss Agnes Lloyd won first prizes and Miss Myrtle Rice and Miss Vera Vroman receiving the booby prizes. Music was furnished by the Misses Esther and Agnes Lloyd and Georgia Massie. Mrs. Lela Tilton furnished several vocal selections. Last, but not least, was the watermelon feast and having the picture of the class taken. Miss Rusterholtz was assisted in serving by Mrs. Lela Tilton. Miss Maude soon leaves for Louisville, where she will be engaged in teaching the present year. At a late hour the guests departed, wishing Miss Rusterholtz much success in her school work. Those present were: Misses Addie and Ethel Dill; Esther and Agnes Lloyd; Myrtle Rice, Vivian and Adele Fitzpatrick, Georgia Massie, Ruth Beverage, Julia Todd, Vera Vroman and Esther Murdock.

The Old Maids Convention.

The members of the Old Maid Convention were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Mira McDonald last Wednesday. Each member came with well-filled lunch basket and one of those grand picnic dinners the editor reads about but never gets to attend, was had. The day was spent in social conversation and visiting, as well as rehearsing the grand success of the "Old Maid Convention," which was given at Murray some time ago, and much success is due Mrs. McDonald for the success of the play. As president of the Ladies' Aid society of Murray, Mrs. McDonald was the organizer of the play, and through her efforts, with the help of others, it was counted one of the "times in Murray." Those present Wednesday were: Mesdames Charles Carrol, Henry Long, Berger, F. Range, A. Range, F. M. Young, Miss Isabelle Young, Mrs. B. F. Brendel, Miss Elta Nickels, Mrs. Joe Cook, Mrs. Ran Minford, Miss Oglia Minford, Mrs. France Mellinger, Mrs. Will Sprorer, Mrs. John Wiles. Sprorer, Mrs. John Wiles.

"Thimble Bee."

Mesdames Dull, Edmunds, Farris and Friedrich entertained the Thimble Bee at the home of Mrs. Dull on Friday afternoon. A large number were present. Ice cream, tea and an abundance of cake were served. The ladies present spent a very pleasant afternoon. The guests of the society were: Mrs. William Sprorer, Mrs. L. D. Hiatt, Mrs. Cuzza Baker of Adair, Iowa, and Mrs. Lloyd Gopen.

Musical Largely Attended.

The musical given at the home of H. L. Oldham Thursday evening by the Library association for the public library, which will open Thursday, September 12, was very largely attended and $20 was added to the fund. The musical was of an outdoor nature, the piano being on the porch and the guests were seated in the yard. After the entertainment sherbert and cake were served in the house from small tables. The talent on the program was above the average. The program opened with a piano selection by Margaret Spangler and a song by Everett Spangler. These little children are great favorites with the public and all enjoy hearing them. Eva LaRue and Lura Lloyd came next. These girls are pupils of Fay Oldham and this was their first public appearance, and many compliments were paid them as to their touch, expression and time used in their playing. This has always been the marked success of Miss Oldham's teaching. The rest of the program was given by older talent. Ralph Kennedy always receives a hearty encore. Miss Puls is a teacher of music and her playing delighted her hearers. Miss Oglia Minford's work was much appreciated. Miss Minford will finish at the musical department of the Weeping Water academy this year. Miss Elsie Gopen is a pupil of Miss Kittie Cummins of Plattsmouth and was qualified to enter the recent contest held at Plattsmouth for a musical scholarship at the Nebraska university. Miss Jamison of Weeping Water and Miss Livingston of Plattsmouth favored the audience with vocal selections. Both have beautiful voices and were heartily encored. Miss Dorothy Britt of Plattsmouth was Miss Livingston's accompanist, and by request gave a musical selection. Miss Oglia Minford was the pianist for Miss Jamison. Miss Manota Perry read in her pleasing way "A Voice From a Far Country." Miss Perry is a graduate of the Wesleyan and is a very finished reader. The audience felt the refining nature of the evening's entertainment and greatly appreciated it.

Library Opens Thursday.

The public library will be open Thursday afternoon. Miss Charlotte Templeton, secretary of the Public Library Commission, and Miss Olive Jones, librarian of the Plattsmouth public library, will be here and will make addresses on library work. Each member of the association and all people interested in the success of the Murray library are requested to come to the library building on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and meet and hear Miss Templeton and Miss Jones. Anyone wishing to donate a book at this time will find it great appreciated and it will be placed to their credit on the accession book. Also magazines. Remember the date—Thursday, September 12, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Picnic at King Hill.

Miss Clara Young gave a picnic at King Hill Sunday in honor of Miss Helen Bock and her brother, Hugh Bock, and Glen Fowler of Berlin. These young people were school friends of Miss Young at Weeping Water. Auto trouble caused them to be a little late, but there was plenty of chicken and watermelon awaiting them. Taking kodak views of the bunch on King Hill was the amusement of the afternoon. Those enjoying this outing were: Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young, Misses Helen Bock, Winnie Hutchison, Pauline Oldham, Lena and Clara Young, Messrs. Hugh Bock, Glen Fowler, Earnest Hutchison, Albert and Rex Young.

S. O. Pitman was a Plattsmouth visitor Monday.

Mrs. J. N. Hill, Homer, Ga., has used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for years, and says she always recommends it to her friends. "It never fails to cure our coughs and colds and prevents croup. We have five children and always give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for a cold, and they are all soon well. We would not be without it in our house." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Mrs. Kittie Tucker of Fort Morgan, Colorado, who has been making a visit with her mother at the home of her uncle, Lig Brown, south of this city, came in yesterday from the country and visited over night with her cousin, Mrs. John Corey and family. She departed this morning for her home at Fort Morgan.

Mrs. Rhoden, mother of George Rhoden, departed this morning for a trip to northern Iowa, where she will make a visit with relatives.

T. L. Parks, Murrayville, Ga., Route 1, is in his 73rd year, and was recently cured of a bad kidney and bladder trouble. He says himself: "I have suffered with my kidneys. My back ached and I was annoyed with bladder irregularities. I can truthfully say, one 50c bottle of Foley's Kidney Pills cured me entirely." They contain no habit-forming drugs. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.
