Fine Corn.

A couple of fine ears of corn, one yellow and one white, was left at this office this morning, which are among the finest specimens we have ever seen in the corn line for a long time. They were grown by Posey Mesersmith, who has twelve acres on the river bottom. The yellow corn was planted on the 7th day of July and the white on the 12th of July. Both ears are nearly matured and the white one contains twenty rows. Posey says he did not look over the field especially to pick these samples, but picked the first he came to. Mr. Mesersmith is sure of some fine corn and of a quality that will do to lay aside for seed next year.

THE FAMOUS CHEYENNE FRONTIER SHOW AT OMAHA

The famous Cheyenne Frontier Day show, the same that has delighted Roosevelt and Taft and made Cheyenne famous for sixteen years, has been engaged by King Ak-Sar-Ben to amuse the multitudes during the last eight days of the fall festival, September 25 to October 5.

In the show are 125 people—the champion rough riders and broncho busters, who won the $500 prize this year at Cheyenne; other champions and ex-champions, women rough riders, real cowboys and a band of Sioux Indians; also "Teddy Roosevelt," "Old Steamboat" and sixty other outlaw horses and a team of buffaloes broken to harness.

There will be broncho busting, buffalo races, steer roping, women's riding races, Indian races, Indian squaw races, cowboy races, wild horse races.

This show will be given every afternoon, September 28 to October 5, at Bourke's base ball park, whose big grand stand and bleachers will seat 10,000, and which is easily reached by two different car lines.

This feature, with three big parades, ten-day street carnival full of new shows, and the coronation ball, assures the most entertaining fall festival in the history of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben.

DAMAGE SUIT FILED IN THE DISTRICT COURT

An interesting case was filed in the district court today, in which Edward VanKleeck is plaintiff and the C. R. L. & P. Railway company is defendant. The plaintiff alleges that he and George B. VanKleeck loaded a car with household goods, machinery and stock, described as emigrant freight, at Keola, Iowa, for shipment to Central City, Nebraska, on March 9th, and on the same evening, while between the stations of Evans and Council Bluffs, Iowa, the defendant company, while switching or while en route, hit the car violently, causing the defendant and his son to be thrown against some machinery, in which the plaintiff received injuries from which he was unable to perform labor; that he was capable of earning $100 a month, and asking damages in the sum of $2,800. The second cause of action is for $200 damages for the property of the plaintiff while en route over the defendant company's property. The total amount of damages asked is $3,000. Matthew Gering appears as attorney for the plaintiff and D. O. Dwyer for the defendant.

Lost Child Saturday.

There was considerable excitement created on Main street Saturday afternoon when the small child of Mrs. Enoch Moreland, living south of this city, disappeared. The mother of the little tot was in a distracted condition for a few minutes, but the police located the child on South Sixth street, where he had wandered, following some other children. The child was restored to its mother safe and sound.

TWO FINE BALL GAMES SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

Saturday Game Won by A. O. U. W.'s, While in Sunday Game Boosters Gain Victory.

There was a real red-hot ball game pulled off at the new park Saturday afternoon that looked for a while like it might have to be called on account of darkness. Barney Bardwell, the former Plattsmouth star pitcher, was in the box for the Boosters and pitched a strong game, although he had not been playing ball this year, and towards the end showed signs of the strain.

The A. O. U. W.'s scored one in their half of the first. In Plattsmouth's half of the inning they started right after the bacon and it looked as if Young, who pitched for Omaha, would have to be taken out of the box. He walked Herold and G. Smith and hit Mason, all of whom scored. Larson, the first man up, hit safe to center and scored on McCauley's Texas leaguer over second. Mann patted a safe one to right field, scoring Herold. L. Smith drove a safe one to center field, scoring C. Smith and Mann. William Mason about this time created some excitement by stealing home, giving Plattsmouth five scores. Arries was put out stealing third.

The Quigleyites scored again in the second. C. Smith and McCauley pulled off a neat double in this inning, retiring the visitors. In the third neither side scored, but Captain Herold made a great play, running clear to the entrance gate to catch a foul knocked by one of the Omaha players. The fourth inning again gave Plattsmouth a score. L. Smith hit safely and scored on Bardwell's hit.

The fifth gave the A. O. U. W.'s a score on errors. In the seventh they gathered in three scores and tied with the Boosters, and in the eighth they forged ahead with two more scores, giving them the lead. In the ninth inning Barney secured a base on balls off of Eisenhart, who had relieved Young in the box. C. Smith hit safe, and about this time Fred Mann got busy and rapped out a two-bagger, scoring both men and tying the score, but in the tenth the Omaha boys were able to push over a score and won the game by a score of 9 to 8.

Sunday's Game.

There was a very large crowd present at the game Sunday to witness the downfall of the mighty A. O. U. W.'s at the hands of the Boosters, who were in great form and played gift edge ball from start to finish. Noah, who pitched for the Boosters, received splendid support from his team-mates and had the game under control at all times, and although the A. O. U. W.'s several times had three men on bases, with only one out, he succeeded in preventing a score.

Plattsmouth began to score in the second, when, on Mann's two-bagger, Herold scored. In the third Beal knocked a safe one over second, Barney walked and made second on McKeag's grounder to first, and then old man McCauley stepped to bat and rapped out a nice safe one over second, scoring both Beal and Barney. After this there was nothing more doing in the scoring line on either side, although the A. O. U. W. team put up a red-hot fight, but this was Plattsmouth's day and the team went right after the game and brought it home.

The game was full of brilliant plays on both sides. L. Young and Stevens of the visitors pulled off several fine stunts in the way of catches, while for the locals McKeag and Herold made some very difficult catches. There is no amateur team in the state that can boast of a better outfield than the Boosters, as with Mason, Mann and Beal in the game there is nothing going to get away from them, and on the batting proposition they are all to the good. The A. O. U. W. team is composed of a fine bunch of young men, and during their visits in this city have always acted as perfect gentlemen.

The Omaha team desires to play here on Sunday, September 29, and it is the hope of the fans that we will again be able to see the Boosters trim them and that the management can make arrangements for the game.

The game Sunday was umpired by France Ballance and he was a great relief from the usual poor style of umpiring. Mr. Ballance is an old ball player himself and his decisions were universally fair and impartial and it is to be hoped he can be secured to umpire the contests in the future.

The next game scheduled is with Cedar Creek on next Sunday and will make an interesting contest, as the boys from Cedar Creek are a fast and snappy bunch of players.

Following was the line-up of Sunday's game:

A. O. U. W. Position. Boosters.
Quigley..... center Beal
Coe..... right Mann
Young..... first McCauley
Kennedy..... second McKeag
McCreary..... third Hughes
Stevens..... short Bardwell
Lyell..... catch Herold
Eisenhart..... pitch Noah

SOUTH OMAHA YOUNG LADIES HERE SATURDAY

There was a jolly party of twelve young ladies, employed in the Gudaby packing house at South Omaha visitors in the city Saturday evening. They made the trip in a large auto truck and made good time on the trip. While in the city they were given a lunch by Mrs. F. H. Dunbar at the hotel Riley, which proved a most delightful treat to the young ladies, who returned to the metropolis about 11 o'clock. Those in the party were: Ellen Johnson, Hannah Ellison, Tekla Johnson, Anna Johnson, Amy Palmquist, Irene Palmquist, Emma Westrand, Alice Westrand, Minnie Hanson, Anna Hanson, Edith Jacobson and Effa Jacobson.

BRUISED HAND BECOMES VERY PAINFUL AND SERIOUS

Joseph F. Hadraba is wearing his hand bandaged today as a result of a bruise received a few days ago while engaged in working at the drug store. At the time of the accident Mr. Hadraba did not pay any particular attention to the wound, but on it becoming quite painful he consulted a physician and discovered that an abscess had formed on the hand, and this morning it was lanced, and although quite painful, is getting along nicely.

One O'Clock Luncheon.

In response to very attractive and unique invitations, a number of ladies assembled at the pretty home of Mrs. Eva Reese Saturday, at which time Mesdames Eva Reese and C. W. Baylor entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon, which was in the nature of a shopping luncheon. The table decorations were very pretty and consisted of a generous use of asters, the place cards being in the shape of shopping parcels and consisted of various articles wrapped. Covers were laid for ten.

Returns Home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chalfant of Union, Neb., who have spent a week with their daughter, Mrs. William Johnston, and family at Fruitdale, left on Monday evening for their home to look after the farm, which they left several months since in charge of their son. Mr. Chalfant's health, which for some time has not been of the best, is considerably improved and he is feeling fine and has gained in weight since his sojourn in Wyoming and South Dakota and it would not be surprising if the early fall would find them again in the west.—Belle Fourche (S. D.) Northern Post.

REV. LOU WALLACE GADE TO LEAVE PLATTSMOUTH

A Pastor Who Has Won the Love, Confidence and Admiration of the Entire Community.

The people of Plattsmouth will learn with regret of the forthcoming departure from our city of Rev. Lou Wallace Gade and his estimable wife. Rev. Gade came to this city two years ago from Cincinnati, Ohio, at a sacrifice in salary, believing that he could better serve the interests of his church, and during his pastorate here has added a great many adult members to the congregation of the church.

There has not been a pastor in the city for many years who has endeared himself to the citizens in general as has Rev. Gade; always pleasant to everyone he met and a friend to all he knew, and it is with regret that he leaves the city, but he believes a greater field of usefulness awaits him in his new charge at Willmar, Minnesota. Rev. Gade has a great reputation throughout the state as a pulpit orator and with his splendid personality and charm of manner will prove a tower of strength in whatever place he is placed.

Rev. Gade made the formal presentation of his resignation to the congregation at the morning services yesterday, and it was universally received by the members with the greatest regret, as it will be a long time before as able a man as our departing friend can be secured. His personal work among the people here has greatly aided the church in attaining its present large membership and in maintaining the pleasant social relations between the members of the congregation.

With the business men of the city Rev. Gade was a man in whom they had the greatest confidence and a man on whom they could rely as a true friend of the city's best interests at all times.

The Journal feels a personal loss in the departure of Rev. Gade and his charming wife, as his relations with this paper have been most pleasant and we wish him success in his new field of labor in Minnesota, for which he will depart in October.
