Avoca Wins in the Fourteenth.

One of the best ball games that was ever played in southeast Nebraska was pulled off here Sunday between Avoca and Cedar Creek. The game was hotly contested, as the teams were evenly matched. Both teams put up some excellent playing, the locals winning in the fourteenth inning by heavy hitting. The only bad feature of the game was that the crowd was not large enough. Remember it takes money to play ball, and the kind of ball our team has been playing they should be better supported financially. The next time the boys have a game attend. Boost, don't knock. Nobody loves a knocker.

Score—Cedar Creek, 5; Avoca, 6. Batteries—Conners and Wolff; J. Gruber and Mead. Umpire—Harmon.

Small Blaze at Avoca.

Wednesday morning the alarm of fire was given and word passed that the barn on the Secat place was on fire. Fire Chief Kuhn-henn, with his gallant fire horse, Carl Schroder, started with the village fire engine on the gallop for the conflagration. When they had gone a couple of blocks Carl lost a shoe. Suddenly the chief recollected the fact that there was nothing in the engine to stop the fire, so it was discarded. John Schmidt came to the rescue with his auto and hauled the engine to the scene. The run was a record-breaker as far as they went, however. The barn was only a flimsy affair and soon burned, but by the heroic efforts of some of Avoca's brave citizens the house did not catch fire, so the loss was small. Henry is ready to back his team against any in the country when it comes to fast work on foot.

Avoca, 0; Murdock, 1.
