HIBERIANS HOLD STATE MEETING IN OMAHA

Father M. A. Shine of This City Elected President for the Ensuing Two Years.

The state organization of the Ancient Order of Hibernians held its biennial meeting yesterday afternoon and evening at the local Hibernian lodge rooms in the Arlington block. Twenty-five delegates and close to one hundred visitors attended the convention, says the Omaha Bee.

Plans for the betterment of the Celtic race in America were freely discussed, the Rt. Rev. Richard Scannell, state chaplain, speaking particularly on the advantages of history and literature as well as the preservation of the native tongue in keeping this movement under way.

Officers for the coming two years were chosen unanimously. Rev. M. A. Shine of Plattsmouth was elected president; Cornelius Sheehan of South Omaha, vice president; T. P. Fitzgerald of South Omaha, treasurer, and M. J. Crowe, secretary. The afternoon session adjourned at 5:30, following a song in the Celtic tongue by John Coffey.

Immediately after the afternoon meeting the delegates were taken on an automobile trip throughout the city, visiting the principal points of interest and a brief stop was made at the Creighton college grounds to allow the visitors a closer inspection of this institution.

A banquet at the Loyal in the evening was attended by a goodly number and a delicious spread left nothing to be desired to make this a gathering long to be remembered. The banqueters were addressed in turn by the Rev. M. A. Shine, president-elect; Rev. John O'Grady, William Bryan, a prominent Columbus attorney, and Colonel P. C. Healy of Omaha. Dr. Thomas K. Mullen, the retiring president, presided as toastmaster.

Ice Cream Social.

The Sunshine Band will give an ice cream social Saturday evening, September 21st, at the Murray Christian church. Everybody invited.

Attends Regimental Reunion.

Hon. W. H. Newell departed Sunday evening on No. 2 for Portsmouth, Ohio, where he will attend a reunion of his old regiment, the Ninety-first Ohio, to be held there on September 19, and renew acquaintance with his old war comrades. Mr. Newell will also visit relatives and friends in that part of the state.

RALLY DAY SERVICES YESTERDAY AT METHODIST CHURCH

During the absence of the pastor of the Methodist church at conference the services have been in charge of the different societies, and yesterday they gave a series of meetings that pleased and delighted those fortunate enough to be present.

The Y. M. B. C., at their lesson hour in the morning, held a Rally day service that was certainly a credit to the committee in charge and to the class; several musical numbers were given and a short address by the secretary proved very pleasing to the large number present.

At the Epworth League services the League room was not large enough to hold all those who desired to enjoy the services. The room was decorated in the League colors, red and white, and the program prepared by President Hill and the cabinet was highly appreciated by the audience.

The regular service hour was devoted to an old-fashioned song service in charge of the choir and Glee club, the members of the congregation requesting the songs, which the choir and Glee club rendered in a most delightful manner, and it was a splendid treat to hear those grand old songs, all of which are so full of memories of other days.

K. & L. of Security, Notice!

"THE ROSARY" AT THE PARMELE SATURDAY EVENING

One of the Most Interesting Plays That Has Ever Been Presented to the Public.

Whatever else may be said of Rowland & Clifford's new production, "The Rosary," which comes to the Parmele theater next Saturday night, the charge of imitation of other plays cannot be made. "The Rosary" practically breaks new ground in the dramatic field and should prove a veritable surprise when the curtain rises upon it.

The play is built upon a thoroughly modern theme, viz: The influence of thought upon the lives and well-being of the men and women of our present day. That thought intangible and evanescent as it is, is still a force, a power, a theory that has for some time past engaged the attention of our foremost psychologists, but its portrayal upon the stage has been neglected heretofore.

"The Rosary" attacks the theme bodily; it deals with the lives and fortunes of a little group of people, living in the beautiful West Chester country, near New York City. The husband is a disbeliever in all religion, his wife a woman of serious convictions regarding faith in the things of life unseen. Strong in his belief and thoroughly human, a priest moves through the subtle story of the play; when doubts come and the man and woman's lives are shattered, seemingly beyond human repair, this priest analyzes the situation and by the power of his faith brings both the people whom he loves back to happiness.

Mingled with the darker colors of human tragedy is a vein of natural comedy evolved from the events which occur during the action.

Dance at T. J. Sokol Hall.

There will be a social dance given Saturday evening, September 21, at the T. J. Sokol hall. Music will be furnished by the M. W. A. orchestra and a good time is assured to all who attend. The public is cordially invited to attend.

In Police Court.

C. H. Weidemeier, a citizen of Iowa, who has been visiting in our little city, was yesterday gathered in by the police for his over-indulgence in the juice of the corn, and today, after hearing the evidence in the case, the judge wisely decided that Mr. Weidemeier should decorate the bar of justice with five large dollars, which he did, and went his way rejoicing.

BLUE CRANE KILLED NEAR WEEPING WATER

C. A. Ogan, who tends the separator on the Tom Heneger threshing crew, brought down some big game at the J. H. Heneger farm one day last week. His victim was a large blue crane which measured 5 feet 1 inch in height, with wings measuring 6 feet 4 inches from tip to tip.

The huge bird had been seen around the farm a number of times during the summer by the J. H. Heneger family and had been found swimming with the ducks in the pond, so that it had become quite a familiar sight. But not so with Mr. Ogan. When he caught sight of it circling around in the air he didn't know what kind of a huge monster it might be, so got out a shotgun that was handy in the granary and shot it on the fly. The bird, if mounted, would make quite a specimen.—Weeping Water Republican.

BIG SOKOL MEETING IN PLATTSMOUTH NEXT YEAR

The local society of the T. J. Sokol has succeeded in landing the next meeting of the western division of that society. This division is composed of the states of Colorado, South Dakota and Nebraska, and the number of turners competing in the meeting will be about 300, besides the other people who will accompany the turning teams. The cities in Nebraska which will be represented in the meet and send delegations here are numerous, as the society has a big membership in this state, especially in Omaha.

South Omaha, Prague, Ravenna, Schuyler and Wilbur, and will be the means of bringing a great number to this city. The local turners are to begin training at once for the event and hope to be able to carry off several of the prizes, as the Plattsmouth boys are there when it comes to the athletic work.

W. T. Strother of Monroe, Nebraska, and his grandson, Kenneth Strother, of Omaha, were in the city today for a short visit with W. T. Strother's mother, Mrs. Shannon, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Virginia McVicker. From here Mr. Strother departed for Chattanooga, Tenn., where he will attend a reunion of his old regiment.

Miss Pearl Arnott of Merriam, Neb., is in the city visiting with Miss Crete Briggs. Miss Arnott is on her way home from Asheville, N. C., where she has been spending the summer. Miss Briggs and Miss Arnott were room-mates at the university during their term in school.

Miss Josephine Murphy, who has been spending the past six weeks of her vacation at various eastern points, a portion of this time being spent at Washington, D. C., is in the city visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Murphy, and sister, Miss Mae, before returning to her duties at Lincoln.
