A GOOD AND TRUE
LADY LAID AT REST

The Funeral of Mrs. W. A. White Largely Attended Sunday Afternoon.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. William A. White were held at the Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. Rev. Austin, the pastor of the church, conducted the services, choosing as his text the first verse of the fourteenth chapter of St. John, "Let not your heart be troubled," and the title of his sermon was, "The Grace of a Quiet Heart." Speaking of the quiet, patient fortitude with which Mrs. White had endured the years of suffering and sickness that had been her lot, of the Christian spirit that she had shown during all these years and of the example she had given to her children and friends by her gentle ways. The choir of the church sang two of the hymns that had been so loved by the deceased lady during her lifetime.

The floral tributes were numerous and magnificent, and silently attested the deep feeling of the friends at her departure from their midst. The pall-bearers were selected from the friends of the deceased lady and her husband and consisted of the following: William Hassler, Henry R. Gering, D. B. Smith, Henry Goos, George Lushinsky and John W. Crabbell. The interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery beside her husband and two children.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our most heartfelt thanks to the many friends who aided us in the last sickness and death of our beloved mother and sister, and for the beautiful floral tributes. May the same kindly treatment be shown them as was given us.

The Children,
David Babbington,
Mrs. Adelia Cornell.

Mr. Kaffenberger was greatly pleased with the conditions there and the crops were never better than this year, and the yield will be large in all varieties of crops.

Visits Old Friend.

William Buster, one of the old residents of Cass county, but now of Ashland, was in the city today for a short time, visiting with his friends, and called at the Journal office to chat for a few minutes. Mr. Buster is en route home from a visit at Elmwood and also at Nebraska City with his old friend Captain Enyart. He reports the captain as not being in very good health.

Entertained at Dinner.

Miss Violet Dodge last evening entertained at dinner in honor of Lieutenant Kelly and Dr. Trinder of the Fourth infantry at her home on South Sixth street. The dinner was an informal affair and was greatly enjoyed by the guests present, as everyone who visits the Dodge home is entertained in the most hospitable manner.

Tired of Engine Resting.

R. L. Propst, for a number of years in the threshing business, has concluded that it was not very profitable to have fourteen or fifteen hundred dollars invested in a steam engine and have it standing idle about ten months during a year. He has purchased from the Reeves Manufacturing company an all steel saw mill, all up-to-date. William Burbee will have full charge of the mill, as R. L. is advancing in years, and says he has done enough hard work and wants to take life a little easier.

The Eastern Star will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening, October 1, at 7:30 o'clock. Please be prompt. 9-30-42L.

Oh, No, Miss Ono!

An exchange says Miss Ono, a Japanese woman, is the prettiest lady on earth. To this exchange we will say, Ono. There are plenty of American ladies who can beat this Japanese beauty a country block, and you won't have to go outside of Plattsmouth to find them. Oh, no, Miss Ono, we are satisfied you are pretty, but you will have to go and hide when the real Plattsmouth article walks up to the looking glass. We not only have one, two or three, but we have a dozen or more who can lay Miss Ono in the shade.

MEETING OF THE GRAND LODGE DEGREE OF HONOR

The Grand Lodge, Degree of Honor, in Session at Lincoln This Week.

The Grand Lodge, Degree of Honor for the state of Nebraska, will hold their biennial session in Lincoln this week, commencing Thursday and continuing for two days. Plattsmouth people will watch this session with considerable interest, especially when it comes to the election of officers, for we have a most worthy candidate for the office of grand recorder in the person of Miss Teresa Hempel, who is a candidate for re-election. There will be a large delegation from the home lodge, Star Lodge No. 4, in attendance, to exert every fair means in securing for their candidate the desired favor at the hands of the numerous delegates in the grand lodge session. This delegation will consist of most of the Past Chiefs of Honor and also a number of other members of the order. Mrs. George Dodge was chosen as delegate from Star Lodge and Mrs. Val Burkel as alternate, and in company with the other ladies who will attend the session, will go to the capital city tomorrow. Miss Hempel has held the position of grand recorder for a number of years and we believe that it would be difficult to find another lady in the entire state of Nebraska that could take charge of this responsible office and adjust the business affairs of the order in a more capable manner than Miss Hempel. We believe that the grand lodge will display good judgment and re-elect Miss Hempel on the first ballot. The Journal certainly joins with the man friends of Miss Hempel over the state of Nebraska and at home in wishing her success.

ANOTHER CUTE CAPER THAT DAN CUPID CUT

Glen Rawls and Miss Helen Klein United in the Holy Bonds of Wedlock.

Two more of Plattsmouth's popular young people have entered the ranks of the newly wedded. Glen Rawls, the popular clerk at Wescott's Sons store, and Miss Helen Klein of Omaha were united in marriage at the First Presbyterian church in Council Bluffs yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock, and the happy young couple returned to this city last evening on the Missouri Pacific and are now "at home" to their friends at their home at Tenth and Pearl streets.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mrs. Louise Kline of Omaha, and has been living in this city for a number of years, while she was attending school, graduating in the class of 1908. The groom is among the most popular and genial young men in the city and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawls. Mr. Rawls and his bride well deserve the many kind wishes that their numerous friends will shower upon them, and we hope their path through life may lie through pleasant ways and sunny days. The wedding was quite a surprise to the friends here, as no one had been taken into the confidence of the happy couple.

To Paint Lutheran Church.

Frank Gobelman, the painter and decorator, and his force of assistants drove out to the new Gorman Lutheran church, about eight miles west of the city, this morning to begin the work of painting the church, parsonage and barn. Mr. Gobelman has quite a reputation throughout the county for the splendid work that he does and always gives satisfaction to those who employ him.

LARSON GETS ANOTHER CHANCE

Burt County Farmer Granted New Trial By Supreme Court.

WAS GIVEN LIFE SENTENCE.

Convicted in Lower Court of Killing His Brother—Germans to Celebrate at Lincoln—To Take Off Motors. Deer Becoming Plentiful.

Lincoln, Sept. 30.—A new trial was granted by the supreme court to Frank Larson, a wealthy farmer of Burt county, convicted in the lower court of killing his brother and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Larson alleged that his brother had debauched his wife and ruined his home, and that brooding over his wrongs had rendered him mentally irresponsible. A physician who testified in the trial court said Larson was insane at the time of the killing.

Campaign Contributions.
That the political campaign contribution proposition is a serious problem in other places than the state house was evidenced when a call was issued for everybody interested in campaign contributions at the Lancaster county court house to meet in the office of County Surveyor Miller. With three committees calling on Republicans there for contributions, the proposition has become serious. However, only two men showed up at the meeting and officials and employees still take the precaution to peep around the corner before making a move to see if the dreaded campaign manager is in sight with his little black book.

Wilson Arrangements.
The Democrats of Lincoln are making great preparations for the coming of Woodrow Wilson, next Saturday. They expect to make it a state-wide affair. Charles Bryan has been appointed by Chairman McAdoo of the Democratic national committee to have charge of the arrangements for Governor Wilson's trip in Nebraska. The Lincoln meeting will be held at the Auditorium and W. J. Bryan will preside.

To Take Off Motors.
At a meeting of the railway commission, General Manager Stenger of the St. Joseph and Grand Island Railway company, and Edson Rich, attorney for the Union Pacific, appeared and asked leave to take off all motor car service on the St. Joseph road. The service, consisting of five cars, was put on as an experiment, with the understanding that if the service did not pay they could be taken off.

Germans to Celebrate.
Great preparations are being made for the German day celebration in Lincoln the coming month and already some of the finest floats ever seen on Lincoln streets have been prepared. The festivities of German day were such a success last year that it was decided to make it an annual fall festival for Lincoln, and in time it is hoped to make it of state-wide importance.

Morrissey Files Appeal.
Morning & Ledwith, representing Andrew M. Morrissey, filed in the district court of Lancaster county an appeal from the decision of Secretary of State Wait that the bull moose candidates be placed upon the ballot. A transcript from the secretary of state's office was filed, together with a petition asking for the reversing of the ruling of Secretary of State Wait.

Deer Become Plentiful.
That deer are becoming more plentiful is shown by the fact that a doe was seen on the Colonel Branson farm, two miles south of Waverly, and a big buck with large horns was discovered about seven miles southeast of Lincoln. Another deer put in an appearance near Greenwood. They are quite tame and unless chased by dogs will probably be seen frequently.

Enrollment at State Farm.
The enrollment of students at the state farm will be greater than any previous year, according to indications. Registration will not begin until Oct. 14, but if the correspondence received by Principal Bradford indicates anything it means a big attendance this year of the school.

Farmer Has Both Legs Broken.
Bloomfield, Neb., Sept. 30.—George Earlow, a farmer living some miles northeast of this city, met with a bad accident while driving a gasoline engine. He slipped and fell under it and the wheels ran over both his legs, breaking them badly. He was taken to the city hospital, and his attending physicians have hopes that his legs will be saved.

Two Kearney Carpenters Hurt.
Kearney, Neb., Sept. 30.—H. J. Wagner and Ernest Sunburg, carpenters, are in St. Luke's hospital suffering with a dislocated hip and a fractured backbone, respectively, as a result of a forty foot fall inside of a silo, on which they were working, the accident happening on the J. W. Kegley farm, fourteen miles northeast of the city.

Mortensen Memorial Booklet.
Ord, Neb., Sept. 30.—A handsome memorial booklet for the late Peter Mortensen, containing his portrait, biography and tributes to him, has been made up by his wife and son for distribution among his friends.
