Overeating.

It seems unnatural that a man should overeat to such an extent as to die from the effects of it. Still it happened. It is the suddenness of such death which shocks us, because overeating is, in this country, a very common thing. Many former delicacies not only do not appeal to us any longer, but we hate them, because we ate too much of them. We long for highly seasoned articles of food and for sharp appetizers. What we need is a course of sensible eating. The restoration of the old digestive power. We need Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. It will prepare the body to accept good, plain food and to digest it thoroughly. It will clean out the body and will not allow the undigestible remains of food to ferment in the intestines and to poison them. It will relieve nervousness, will clear the complexion, will increase strength. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 1333, 39 S. Ashland Ave, Chicago, Ill.

WAR CRY IN BALKANS UPSETS ALL EUROPE

Paris Center of Activities of the Peacemakers.

Paris, Oct. 3.—The urgent necessity of finding a means to relax tension over the Balkan situation has awakened Europe to a display of nervous energy unequalled since the last serious trouble in the same territory, when Austria annexed Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Paris, for the moment, is the center of activity, the arrival of the Russian foreign minister, M. Sazonoff, arousing the expectation that his conference with Premier Poincare will complete the work set on foot at Balmoral and enable the powers to make a joint pronouncement which will satisfy the Balkan states that this time there will be no turning back until the wrongs of Macedonia are righted.

The conference between the French premier and the foreign ambassadors and ministers culminated with a prolonged examination of the whole situation by M. Poincare and M. Sazonoff at the foreign office.

It will demand autonomy for Macedonia, Albania, old Serbia and Crete within three days.

In event of failure to comply with this demand, the Balkan coalition will repeat it, and at the same time address a collective note to the great powers notifying them that after the expiration of another three days Balkan states will enforce the demand by recourse to arms.

Thus there will be a respite of a week before hostilities open. This respite will be utilized by the powers to seek to arrange a compromise with Turkey acceptable to the four states which, it is believed, would prefer a way out without bloodshed.

The whole of the Balkan peninsula is being rapidly transformed into an armed camp. According to dispatches from the capitals of the various states upwards of 1,000,000 men have been ordered to gather to decide for all in a trial by combat the question of changing the conditions of the inhabitants of the European provinces of Turkey.
