IOWA SUFFRAGISTS WILL INCORPORATE
H. G. Gue Requested to Leave Meeting at Des Moines.

Des Moines, Oct. 10.—The state equal suffrage convention decided upon incorporation in order to handle trust funds left by the late Mary J. Coggeshall to be used for the promotion of the cause. This will enable the association to prevent any recurrence of the trouble of last summer in connection with the fund.

H. G. Gue, deposed secretary of the joint equal suffrage political campaign committee, was asked to leave the hall where the suffragists were holding their meeting.

The request to leave was made by Miss Mary Safford, president, following the distribution of pamphlets by Mr. Gue making attacks upon several prominent women. Some of the members could not restrain themselves and sobs and hysterics mingled with the low-voiced request of the chairman that Mr. Gue depart.

As a sequel of the trouble, which has been agitating the suffrage movement for six months, the order was made later in the day for the incorporation of the association, the members desiring to attain a basis where it would be possible to hold property, sue and be sued.

TELEGRAPH MANAGERS THE FIRST WITNESSES

First Attempt of Prosecution is to Secure Telegrams.

Indianapolis, Oct. 10.—Telegram, signed "Pink," alleged to have been the alias of Herbert S. Hokin, and sent to Orrie E. McManigal, directing where to "drop" dynamite bombs on his trips about the country, were sought by the government through the examination of the first witnesses called in the trial of the accused "dynamite plotters."

Managers of telegraph offices in Buffalo, Detroit, Toledo, Chicago, Indianapolis, Evansville and Salt Lake testified. With one exception they asserted that the originals of telegrams asked by the government covering a period as far back as 1908 had been destroyed. The government asserted it has possession of telegrams as received, and it called the witnesses to show the reason why the original messages as sent cannot be reproduced. It was during this period that McManigal and the McNamara formed the "flying squadron of dynamiters," the government charges, off on sending McManigal out alone and equipped with a suitcase filled with explosives to await orders by telegraph as to what he should blow up.

When James W. Noel, one of the counsel for the government, asked why the telegrams were not produced, Senator J. W. Kern, counsel for the defendants, asked the witnesses: "You don't know that any such telegrams ever existed, do you?" The witnesses replied they could not remember individual messages.

NYE MADE $10,000 A YEAR

Former Ohio Lawmaker Implicates Men Higher Up in Legislative Graft.

Columbus, O., Oct. 10.—Following the taking of a full confession, in which he implicates other legislators and men "higher up" to Attorney General Hogan, Dr. George B. Nye, representative in the last legislature from Waverly, pleaded guilty to having solicited a bribe for his vote on the Kimball bill.

The indictment to which he pleaded guilty charged that he solicited a bribe of $1,000 from B. F. Kimball, the author of the bill, on April 18, 1911. The bill provided for the redistricting of the Pike and Adams county judicial districts.

According to information given out by Attorney General Hogan, Nye told a startling story of a certain lobbyist, who absolutely dominated the legislature and of how he had been one of his chief lieutenants. Dr. Nye is said to have declared that his revenue amounted to as much as $10,000 a year from legislative graft, and to have corroborated the stories told at the bribery trials by state detectives.

Hogan also announced that Nye had disclosed the identity of the person who are "putting up the money" for the defense of the accused legislators.

COLLEGES MAKE RADICAL CHANGE

Iowa Courses Are Altered in Order to Avoid Duplication.

STRIKE GROWS THREATENING.

Meeting of Teamsters Called for Friday to Vote Upon General Walkout. Iowa Corn Will Be Represented at Big Land Show.

Des Moines, Oct. 10.—It is expected that the announcement of important changes in the state colleges to avoid duplication of work will raise a storm of protest at each of the colleges, but the state board made the changes as a matter of economy and for better results. The engineering department at the state university is to be abandoned and all engineering work will be done at Ames. Domestic science at the state college is abandoned and all this will be concentrated at Iowa City. The collegiate course at Cedar Falls State Teachers' college will be abandoned and only normal work will be done there. The board took the action after a year of consideration.

Iowa Corn in Big Land Show.
Many Iowa farmers will enter corn exhibits at the second annual land show in New York city, according to information received by G. E. Staynor, secretary of the Iowa Agricultural association. The big New York exhibit will open Oct. 15 and close Dec. 2. The Iowa Agricultural association is co-operating with the management of the land show in securing entries from Iowa. The officials are anxious that Iowa be represented by many grain exhibits, especially corn.

May Vote General Strike.
A meeting was called for the teamsters of the city for Friday to vote upon a general strike. The Building Trades council will also meet to take action on its resolution of a general strike for a general strike unless the trouble is settled. The strike trouble is, therefore, more threatening now than at any time.

CRIME WAVE IN IOWA CITY

Murder and Suicide, Six Forgeries and Five Safe Crackings.

Iowa City, Oct. 10.—Murder and suicide, in which Mrs. John Potter killed herself and crippled daughter, Malzie by jumping into a cistern; the passing of six forgeries to the amount of $75 by two university students on the Commercial Savings bank and five safe crackings in as many factories of the town throughout the night, together with the exciting chase by deputy sheriffs of Esther Brown and Eldon Nebergall, fifteen-year-old sleepers from Davenport to this place, constituted the wave of excitement to which Iowa City has been treated since midnight.

Little Tots Show Fire Drill's Value.

Davenport, Ia., Oct. 10.—An incident of Iowa fire prevention days in Davenport showed the value of fire drills in the public schools. One hundred little children, five and six years old, at the Grant public school were taking part in the exercises on the second floor of the building when the teacher in charge was called out of the room. Just at that time the fire drill alarm sounded and the little tots, without any guidance, formed into line and marched in an orderly manner, downstairs and out of the building without any confusion.

Would Recodify Juvenile Statutes.

Davenport, Ia., Oct. 10.—The Iowa state conference of charities and correction to be held in Cedar Rapids, Nov. 17 to 20, will discuss the question whether a juvenile officer should not be delegated to look after the interests of children in divorce suits of their parents. The program for the conference has just been completed by the president, F. J. Sessions, superintendent of the Iowa soldiers' orphans' home at Davenport. The conference will also discuss the recodification of all the laws affecting the care and custody of children.

Potatoes Sell for 30 Cents a Bushel.

Grundy Center, Ia., Oct. 10.—Potatoes in this section are going 200 bushels to the acre. Some farmers report yields as high as 250 bushels to the acre. The potato season will be short this year. With good weather, the crop will all be in within ten days or two weeks. In former years the season lasted six or seven weeks. The price on the local market has remained at 30 cents. There is little prospect that this price will be much advanced.
