Only a few more days till the great battle. Democrats, are you ready for it?

When you vote for John J. Gustin you can bet your last dollar that you are voting for a good man for the legislature.

Much work can be accomplished for the democratic ticket in the next few days. Do your duty, democrats, and all will be well.

Skinning skunks is not a very desirable business, but we may be called upon to skin one or two, notwithstanding the nastiness of the job.

Come out tomorrow night and hear the great Texas orator. Texas has a great many noted speakers, but Hon. Cone Johnson heads the list.

John H. Morehead is running for governor on the record of what he has done. Aldrich is running on the record of what he promised to do and didn't do.

Of this you may be assured: When John H. Morehead becomes chief executive of this great state, visitors to the executive office will not be compelled to listen to abusive language at political opponents. Mr. Morehead talks like a gentleman and keeps his promises.

If a candidate is for Taft and is a candidate on that ticket, can he expect Roosevelt supporters to vote for him? Or, if a candidate is on the Roosevelt ticket, can he expect a Taft supporter to vote for him? Now, there you are, and you can take your choice. But the best way out of the dilemma is to vote the democratic ticket.

Do the voters want a man for state senator who is out and out just what he is, or do they want a man who is two-sided on matters of public interest? Bill Banning tells the people just what he is for, and he stands by what he says—not one thing in one section of the county and another thing in another section of the county. Senator Banning has always proved faithful to the trust reposed in him, and the people can depend upon what he says.

Farmer Bryan, candidate for assessor, is making friends wherever he goes. He is an excellent man for county assessor.

Every anti-republican administration in Nebraska has reduced the state's floated indebtedness. Every republican administration increased it. That's the record.

It was a democratic legislature that enacted the law which keeps Nebraska money at home by requiring that the state's permanent school fund be invested in state and local securities.

Every straight party vote cast on election day, regardless of which party it may be for, will be an affirmative vote of each of the five constitutional amendments submitted at the election.

"Give them rope enough and they will hang themselves" will apply to fellows who have come to this city to try to kill off business men. They are not worthy of notice, and the best way to treat them is with silent contempt.

The voters are just beginning to learn in earnest the deceitful policy of the State Journal. It endeavors to take the independent dodge when there is no campaign, but when the campaign is on there is nothing too mean for it to say about democratic candidates.

Aldrich is hustling to win back the Taft vote, but he has a big job on his hands. The president's friends in Nebraska haven't forgotten so soon his ranting and "cussing" the president until he saw he had to have the president's friends' support to elect him. This he will never be able to get, and he knows it.

Aldrich has failed to take an active part in the business management of the state affairs, and has devoted too much time up and down the state and out of the state making chautauqua lectures to suit the people of Nebraska, and they are going to elect a man who will give them a purely business administration—Hon John H. Morehead.

George W. Perkins, of Steel trust and Harvester trust fame, the angel of the third-term party, told the senate investigating committee that when election day is over, all accounts between him and the colonel will be "all square." Well, Perkins admitted that it cost him $122,000 to square the account. Pretty neat sum, even for a former partner of the opulent Morgan.

What do the business men and all other citizens think of the audacity of men coming into a community, with not a thing on earth to recommend them, and endeavoring to run a newspaper by running down the business interests of the city? Don't you think they are deserving of condemnation? Well, they are getting it, right and left.

If there is no other reason for the defeat of that man Wait for re-election to the office of secretary of state, the manner in which he has acted all along on the matter of printing the election ballots is enough to consign him to private life after the first of next January. But there are many other reasons why he should be overwhelmingly defeated at the polls on November 5.

"Those who are not for us are against us," is a good motto to adhere to in the prosperity of our city.

Only a little over four weeks till Thanksgiving. Can we all have something to feel thankful for?

Voters, don't get too much interested in the national and state ticket that you will forget the county candidates.

Be on your guard, democrats, and look out for roorbacks. They are in the wind and will materialize as election day draws near.

The laboring voters this year are more independent than ever before in the history of this country and they are going to vote as they please.

Why does the progressive platform shy at the eight-hour day? Why limit it to industries in continuous operation? Will that kind of dope catch workingmen? Not yet.

A Chicago dispatch says the leaders of the "progressive" movement make no pretense of concealing their elation over the possible political effect of the Milwaukee shooting. Is not that making capital out of a crime, to say nothing of gloating over it?

The same articles concocted and sent out from Taft republican headquarters will greatly miss their mark this year. These things were looked for a little earlier in the campaign, but they failed to materialize until a week before the election. They are false as hell, and those who send them out know it, and the honest voters and laboring men in general know they are false.

When their own ox is gored, it is different. The bull moosers are making a great howl because the supreme court of Idaho has held that the new party has no legal standing in that state. It is political robbery, they say. But in California, where the court has disfranchised the entire republican party, they say that it has done only political justice.—Nebraska City News.

It is generally admitted that Morehead is going to get an immense vote in Lancaster county and many men, both republicans and democrats, predict that he will carry this former republican stronghold. The majority of the votes at the state house are for Morehead, as there they know both of the candidates very well. The governorship is a very much one-sided affair this year.—Lincoln Herald.

The only danger to the success of the democratic ticket is in the possible failure of democrats coming out to vote. The feeling of certainty of the election of Governor Wilson may have a tendency to cause some voters to neglect to go to the polls, in the belief that Wilson is sure of election, and that their individual ballots may not be needed. Overconfidence is the only thing which can endanger democratic success this year. Let every democrat stand up and be counted and share in the great victory. Let there be no laggards.

After the decision of the district court had been announced in favor of the Taft electors, Mr. Wait was notified by Taft men that it would be worth 10,000 to 20,000 votes to the republican ticket if no appeal were taken. The Roosevelt faction then served notice that if the case were not appealed, 50,000 to 60,000 votes would be lost. The secretary of state took a day and a half to think over the situation. Then he decided to appeal.—Lincoln Star.

Wilson will win—and we need every democratic vote to make him win.

Vote for John J. Gustin for representative and you will never regret it. He is made of the right kind of material to serve the people rightly.

If you don't like this town move out. There are no strings tied to you. But if you like the town and want to remain here quit your darned kicking.

Victory is within our grasp, democrats, and only depends upon you and every other democrat getting out to the polls and doing your duty—vote for Wilson and Marshall, Morehead and Shallenberger, Banning and Gustin.

The hard times scare trotted out from Taft headquarters is the last straw that will break the president's back. The people have been fooled many times before with chaff, but they won't be fooled this time into voting for Mr. Taft.

The great scare sent out to laborers is ill-timed. The republican party has use for the laborer on election day, but that is the only day in four years. The laboring voters understand this, and they are not going to vote for either Mr. Taft or Mr. Roosevelt this time.

It is not good for democrats to get too confident and remain away from the polls. Be sure to come out and vote and insist that your brother democrats come with you. This is the greatest epoch in the history of the democratic party, because we have a great opportunity to win, and win now—or never. Remember that.

Julius Pitz will make a splendid county commissioner. You know this as well as anyone. And why? Simply because he is able, honest and his integrity will show up with any man in Cass county. Isn't that enough? Well, then, ask his neighbors about him and anybody who knows him will tell you he is just the man for county commissioner.

If Aldrich was half as highly commended by his home folks as John H. Morehead is by his home folks he might possibly think about being re-elected governor of Nebraska. But it is an impossible caper for him to cut. Not only is Governor Morehead indorsed at home, but he is so highly endorsed at Aldrich's home (Butler county) that he will get almost two votes to Aldrich's one.

Notwithstanding the many false reports being circulated about Hon. W. B. Banning, we believe the people have sufficient confidence in him to throw these lies by the wayside and go to the polls on election day and cast their votes for him. No man ever done more hard work in the state senate for his constituents than Senator Banning. He is a citizen of which any community should be proud, and he reveres the confidence of the people too highly to commit one act that would leave a stain upon his good character. There are no better men than Bill Banning. His record in the state senate is as clear as to doing a wrong act as any man who ever had the honor of serving in that body. You can't afford to vote against Bill Banning—and don't you do it. You will regret it if you do.

Fortunes in Faces.
 There's often much truth in the saying, "her face is her fortune," but it's never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. CLARENCE E. HARMAN of Holdrege, Nebraska DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR State Railway Commissioner.
 —His Election Means Something to You—
 You need him—he needs you. He is Pledged to You VOTE FOR HIM!

Don't forget the date—Tuesday, November 5—election day.

Look out for squalls. Wild geese started on their southward journey this morning before day-break.

Vote for Julius Pitz for county commissioner. He is the man who will fill the position acceptably to every taxpayer in Cass county.

No democrat should be fooled into voting for Taft, now that there is such a splendid opportunity for a glorious democratic victory.

Vice President Sherman is dangerously ill and is likely to die before election, and there is talk of substituting another name on the republican ticket.

Democrats, every one of you, have a duty to perform. And that duty is to go to the polls next Tuesday and cast your votes for Wilson and Marshall.

Banning for senator, Gustin for representative, Julius Pitz for commissioner and W. R. Bryan for assessor—make up one of the best tickets ever presented to the voters of Cass county. Don't you forget that.

Julius Pitz should be elected county commissioner, because of his excellent qualifications and his genial personality. He is honest, he is capable, a genuine good citizen, and why shouldn't he be elected?

Democrats have more encouragement to get out and vote this year than ever before. The democrat who fails to vote next Tuesday will lose the opportunity of his life to help in the election of a democratic president.

Charles H. Busch, democratic candidate for floot representative, is a gentleman and scholar, and one of the best men in Otoe county. Having served in one of the most responsible positions in Otoe county, and served with great efficiency and with credit to his friends, makes him very popular in his own county. Charley Busch will represent the people of Otoe and Cass counties most acceptably to the people of these counties, and he should receive an overwhelming majority over his opponent.

Nebraska City News: "William Hayward was in Omaha a few days ago and neglected to run down to Lincoln and congratulate his friend (?) Paul Clark over being the republican candidate for congressman. Hayward owes Paul a debt that he should pay with interest."

Ex-Governor Shallenberger should be elected United States senator, because he will prove a great man in that body. Nebraska will be properly represented with two as able and distinguished senators as Hon. G. M. Hitchcock and ex-Governor Shallenberger. Don't fail to vote for Shallenberger next Tuesday.

President Taft gave out a cheerful statement the other day in which he calmly announces to an anxiously waiting people that he expects to win! Alas! They are deceiving him to the last. It is really cruel and inhuman of the estimable gentlemen who are managing Mr. Taft's campaign to lead the president thus blindly to the slaughter.

Let every democrat stand up and be counted next Tuesday and share in the great victory. There is no danger of defeat if every democrat does his duty. We want to make our victory as sweeping as possible, and to the end that progressive democratic principles may prevail every democrat must vote for Wilson and Marshall.

Here is another utterance from that illustrious statesman and democrat, Champ Clark: "I know Woodrow Wilson. He brings to the discharge of his duties the political vision of Jefferson and the strength and power and courage of Andrew Jackson. In the White house he will be the servant of the people, not of the protected interests."

Hon. Cone Johnson of Texas delivered a great speech here last night. The Parmele theater was crowded to its utmost capacity and everyone who heard his arraignment of the republican and bull moose parties were more than pleased. Many were in from quite a distance in the country to hear the noted Texan. We wish Mr. Johnson could speak in every county in Nebraska before the election.
