OUR CANDIDATE FOR FLOAT REPRESENTATIVE

Chas. H. Busch of Nebraska City is the nominee of the democratic party for float representative in the approaching session of the legislature from the Eighth district, comprising the counties of Otoe and Cass. Mr. Busch needs no introduction to the voters of Otoe county, being personally known to almost every citizen of this county. As deputy in the office of the late Herman R. Young, county clerk of Otoe county, and subsequently for two terms himself county clerk of this county, Mr. Busch discharged his duties as a public officer in a manner to win the unstinted praise and commendation of the taxpayers of all parties, and few men have retired from a county office with so unanimous a feeling on the part of all citizens of the county as is expressed in the familiar saying, "Well done, good and faithful servant." At the insistence of many friends in both parties, who recognize the value of Mr. Busch's splendid business ability, his intelligence in the handling of public business, and his high personal character, he consented to become a candidate for the legislature, and in this wider field to represent the people of Cass and Otoe counties in the important public duties connected with the making of progressive laws for the people of the state and the appropriation of funds necessary for the conduct of the business of the state. For these duties no man is better equipped by experience and ability than Chas. H. Busch, and a deserved recognition of his previous public services to the people of this county should give him the practically unanimous support of the voters of Otoe county.

FUNERAL OF MRS.
 MINERVA JOHNSON

From Wednesday's Daily.
 The funeral of the late Mrs. Minerva Johnson was held yesterday afternoon from the late home on South Fifth street and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, who gathered to pay last tribute to this most worthy lady, whom everyone who knew her had learned to love and esteem. The services were conducted by Rev. W. L. Austin of the Methodist church, Mrs. Johnson having joined that church when a girl. The music consisted of some of the favorite hymns of the departed lady, which she so delighted in while living. The floral tributes were numerous and very beautiful and expressed the sorrow felt by the friends at her passing. The pall-bearers were selected from the Burlington store department force and were as follows: Frank Warren, F. M. Phebus, Everett Ward, Ed Weaver, Ed Roman and C. W. Hula.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY
 TUESDAY NIGHT

Hon. Cone Johnson of Texas Delivered a Masterly Speech at the Parmele Theater.

The largest political meeting that has been held here this year was that held last evening at the Parmele theater, the house being filled with the audience who came to hear the discussion of the public questions of the day by Hon. Cone Johnson of Texas. Mr. Johnson is one of the ablest speakers that has appeared in this city and his address was right to the point.

The speaker was introduced by D. O. Dwyer, president of the Wilson and Marshall club, in a few brief remarks, and Mr. Johnson at once proceeded to get down to business. He stated that the republican party had sold the privilege of making the tariff laws to the great interests that had contributed millions to the campaign funds of the republican party. That these same interests had been allowed to grow and flourish under the Roosevelt regime; that their violations of law had been winked at by the republican president and in return for their money in the campaigns the common people had been delivered over to them for the purpose of taxing the many to benefit the few. Mr. Johnson also stated that the struggle in the republican convention at Chicago was not whether great principles should be placed in their platform—it was not whether the people should have relief from the high cost of living through legislation by the republican party—but it was simply a contest for the office of president between Taft and Roosevelt, Roosevelt claiming he had simply loaned the office to Taft, while Taft claimed Roosevelt had given him the office.

Mr. Johnson pointed out the position of the democratic party, which for all these years has contended for the right of the great masses of the people to have an equal voice with the great protected interests in the affairs of government—that under the democratic party no manufacturer of an article will have the privilege of writing a tariff to be placed upon that article, regardless of the interests or welfare of the great common masses of the people. The democratic party today stands between the country and socialism; it represents all that our form of government stands for, and if it is defeated it will be but a few years until the republican form of government founded by Washington and Jefferson, will be forced to give way to one founded on ideas imported from Europe. If the socialists have their way we will be swallowed up by a so-called co-operative commonwealth, and if the republicans or bull moosers are successful we will be swallowed up by the great interests of monopoly, and in either case the citizens would lose their individual rights and become mere cogs in a great machine. On the other hand the democratic party stands for the rights of the individual that he is entitled to the protection of the law or to be punished by the law, whether he be president of the Steel trust or a common chicken thief.

Mr. Johnson was greatly pleased with his reception in this city and well pleased with the large audience that greeted him. There were a great many farmers in from all sections of the county and there was great enthusiasm manifest for the principles of the democratic party and for the ticket headed by Woodrow Wilson. Cone Johnson is not only a great orator, but also one of the leading lawyers in Texas, and two years ago was a candidate in the primary for governor. He is very popular, but failed of nomination in consequence of the three-cornered race.

The committee in charge of the meeting feel very grateful to John Bauer, jr., for the courtesy shown the committee by placing his automobile at their service for the use of Mr. Johnson.

Mrs. T. A. Town, 107 6th St., Watertown, S. D., writes: "My four children are subject to hard colds and I always use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound with splendid results. Some time ago I had a severe attack of la grippe and the doctor prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it soon overcame the la grippe. I can always depend upon Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and am sure of good results." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

These are stirring times in the political world. It's been a long time since so many candidates, so many platforms, so many different and opposing ideas confronted the voter. You men will soon go to the polls and vote—some one way, some another. That's the way in politics. But in the matter of clothes, you know our platform is based on value giving—that's the one best plank for you. There's no question of your future gratification and satisfaction if you vote for this store. Polls are open now.
