The people want a change.

Be sure you are right, then go and vote.

Thanksgiving only three weeks from next Thursday.

The democratic state ticket is much better than the republican state ticket in every way considered.

Our county ticket is one of the best ever placed before the people of the county.

The cold wave that struck here Monday night gave us a gentle warning that Old Winter was not very far away.

Democrats, be up and doing. Every democratic vote in Cass county should be counted for Woodrow Wilson.

When you vote for Wilson and Marshall you will be voting for what you have been clamoring for—a change in the running affairs of this government.

John J. Gustin will make an able representative of Cass county in the legislature, and should be elected. Every voter who desires a clear, level-headed man to represent their interests in the legislature will vote for Mr. Gustin.

Bear in mind that W. R. Bryan, the honest old farmer, whom you should vote for, will perform the duties of assessor faithfully and efficiently. He possesses the qualifications to do the business required of him, and he is one of the best men in Cass county.

Governor Wilson can be elected, and he will be elected. But this is not enough. He should be elected by a majority so great that there can be no mistake as to the meaning of the people's mandate. He will go into office with a democratic house, and if his majority is large enough he will have a democratic senate as well. This will make President Wilson the leader of a united party in full control of both branches of congress and in a position to carry out all the progressive policies to which it is pledged.

Remember next Tuesday is election day. Don't fail to come out and vote.

Every voter who desires a capable man for county commissioner will vote for Julius Pitz.

Senator Norris Brown is now proposed as to successor to the late Vice President Sherman. Norris is all right, if they want a standpatter "from away back."

Pay no attention to roorbacks on the very eve of the election. There is no truth in them or they would not wait till the last moment to engage in such work.

Business men of Chicago are not frightened by the republican calamity howl, intended to scare the timid. They realize that in the election of Governor Wilson to the presidency lies the safety and prosperity for all classes.

Who was Paul Clark before he went west to make his home and returned to Lincoln especially to run for congress? A corporation attorney, and he is running because they have use for him in congress.

George W. Norris, bull moose candidate for United States senator, is so bitter against Taft and his supporters that state candidates on the republican ticket shun his meetings as much as possible. He addressed about 200, reports say, at the Auditorium in Lincoln, and the candidates refused to sit upon the stage from which he spoke. It looks like Norris "is in the soup."

In considering the qualifications of each of the applicants for the presidency of the United States it behooves us to take care to select a man who will be able to act in harmony with his assistants. Without doubt Governor Wilson will be able to bring about the much needed reforms because he will have the undivided support of a democratic congress.

The "scarecrow" sent out from Omaha under the signature of Nathan Merriam, president of the Merriam & Millard Co., is a daisy, in the way of an effort to intimidate voters. Like everyone else who sends out such balderdash, he is a man who expects to "feather his own nest" a little more in case Theodore is elected for the third term. His tommyrot will miss wide of its mark—as it should.

Ex-Governor Shallenberger is as good a man as there is in the state for United States senator. He is able and fearless, and if elected next Tuesday the people of Nebraska can always depend upon their interests being well guarded in Washington. Then go to the polls next Tuesday and vote for a safe and sane man for the United States senate, in the person of Hon. A. C. Shallenberger.

Paul Clark, bull moose candidate for congress, had hard work to get anyone to preside at one of his meetings the other night in Havelock. One man selected said that he was a republican, and as he was not going to support Clark he could not preside. The second one asked said the same thing. Two or three others were solicited before one could be induced to preside. This carrying water on both shoulders won't go with the people.

Be Sure and Read.

So much effort has been made to befog the facts relative to the submission of a workable initiative and referendum law that it might be well to make them so plain that he who runs may read. In the first place, there was no division of sentiment upon the one fact that Nebraska should have such a law. Second, the only division of sentiment was upon the percentages that should be fixed for initiation, referring or adopting constitutional amendments. It is doubtless true, as charged, that some reactionaries sought to minimize the good effects of the law by fixing the percentages unreasonably high. It is just as true that some over-enthusiastic advocates of the law wanted to fix the percentages so low that any fool proposition could get on the ballot. The sensible thing to do, then, was to make the percentages reasonable—first, to permit of the initiation of good measures without too much difficulty; second, to make it reasonably difficult to initiate measures calculated to bring the law into ridicule; third, to make it reasonably easy to refer without making it too easy and thus permit the law to be brought into disrepute. There was one element ostensibly enthusiastic for the adoption of such a law, that was so blindly partisan that it sought to secure the enactment of a measure that would be ridiculous, thus enabling them to charge the democratic legislature with being incompetent.

The bill as introduced provided for a 5 per cent petition to initiate a law or to have a law referred. The bill as finally enacted provides for a 10 per cent petition. These amendments were supported and voted for by Senator Skiles, introducer of the measure, and Senator Morehead. The conference committee of March 17 recommended that the house recede from its amendment providing that initiated measures should have only a majority of the votes cast thereon, and providing for a majority equal to 35 per cent of the total vote cast at the election. It also recommended that the senate concur in the house amendment requiring 15 per cent of the voters to propose a constitutional amendment. On the same date three-fifths of the members in both houses agreed to the report of the conference committee. The votes of Senator Skiles and Senator Morehead were identical. The record shows that every amendment adopted was calculated to make what is admitted to be the very best measure of its kind in any state. It is so admitted by the governor of Oregon and the governor of South Dakota. In view of the attempt to deceive the voters as to Senator Morehead's attitude toward the initiative and referendum it is only necessary to refer to the printed record, which proves that the votes of Skiles and Morehead to be the same in every particular, and that the amendments supported by Morehead were supported by Skiles, the introducer of the bill.

Hon. W. B. Banning should by all means be re-elected to the state senate, if the people of Cass county desire an able and energetic worker to represent them in that body. The Journal appeals to its friends in every section of the county to be sure and vote for Senator Banning. Where will you find another man who will serve you better? No man can be elected to either house or senate without making some mistakes, but Bill Banning has made less mistakes than any man who ever went to the legislature from this county. It is a duty that every man owes to himself, to the reputation of the county and to the honor of a faithful public servant to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote for W. B. Banning.

G. P. EASTWOOD,

"A PLEASURE TO SHOW GOODS"

Successor to John Bauer

Plattsmouth, Neb.

The voters of the First congressional district will return John Maguire for another two years because they know he has done his duty and proved true to ever proposition he has promised the people.

Now comes Miss Henrietta Rodman and declares that the high cost of living is largely caused by the lack of proper training of our girls in colleges. Girls learn more about individual recipes for fancy fudge than they do about making a batch of muffins for breakfast.

Remember how much more good Governor Wilson can do for the common people as president of the United States if he can have the assistance of both a democratic house and senate. Then how necessary it is to vote for Shallenberger for senator and John Maguire for congress? Don't you see!

Paul Clark does not claim to be a republican. He says himself that he is out and over for the third party, and can never affiliate with the republican party again. Then no Taft supporter can consistently support Paul Clark for congress. When you cast your vote for Congressman Maguire you will have supported a man who has served his constituents faithfully and well, and you will know right where to find him at all times.

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at F. G. Fricke & Co.

Petition in Partition.

A petition in partition was filed in the district court today entitled Tabitha Thacker vs. William Albin, incompetent. The plaintiff is a daughter of the late Benjamin Albin, who died in this county in 1894, leaving as his heirs the plaintiff, Frank Albin, Alice Shrader, Carter Albin, William Albin. The plaintiff has purchased the interests of all the heirs except William Albin and asks that the estate be divided between plaintiff and the defendant, William Albin.

"There could be no better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My children were all sick with whooping cough. One of them was in bed, had a high fever and was coughing up blood. Our doctor gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the first dose eased them, and three bottles cured them," says Mrs. R. A. Donaldson, of Lexington, Miss. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR FLOAT REPRESENTATIVE

When you go the polls next Tuesday vote for Julius Pitz, a farmer full of energy and with a will to his whole duty to the people of the whole county. He is a young man, honest as the day is long, and will make a county commissioner, not only creditable to himself, but one upon whom every tax-payer can look with pride. Vote of Julius Pitz next Tuesday, and you will be proud of your act to the day of your passing from this earth.

Sale Very Successful.

From Saturday's Daily. The sale of fine Duroc-Jersey hogs held at the farm of Verner Perry, near Mynard, Wednesday, was largely attended by farmers from all over the county and all of the animals offered brought a good price. The receipts of the sale were over $1,500. These hogs are the finest that are raised in this part of the country and Mr. Perry has always been very careful in selecting the animals he has put on sale.

Funeral of Grant Cotner.

From Saturday's Daily. The funeral of the late Grant Cotner was held this afternoon at the home of James Higley and the interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery. The pall-bearers were selected from among the brothers of the deceased. The family have the deepest sympathy of the entire community in this, their hour of grief.

Rev. Ross Williams of the Christian church of Murray conducted the services.

For Sale Cheap.

My residence, splendid, well built house, in good condition. Two full lots. Water in house. Mrs. Emily Dickson, Mordock's Store, Sixth street.

CHARLES H. BUSCH

familiar saying, "Well done, good and faithful servant." At the insistence of many friends in both parties, who recognize the value of Mr. Busch's splendid business ability, his intelligence in the handling of public business, and his high personal character, he consented to become a candidate for the legislature, and in this wider field to represent the people of Cass and Otoe counties in the important public duties connected with the making of progressive laws for the people of the state and the appropriation of funds necessary for the conduct of the business of the state. For these duties no man is better equipped by experience and ability than Chas. H. Busch, and a deserved recognition of his previous public services to the people of this county should give him the practically unanimous support of the voters of Otoe county.
