

THE HYDRO-PLANE PASSES OVER CITY

Tony Jannus, the Aviator, Experiences Some Trouble North of Town.

Tony Jannus, the aviator, who is traveling in his hydroplane from Omaha to New Orleans, started from Omaha yesterday afternoon on scheduled time and passed this city about 4:05, sailing several hundred feet in the air over the Missouri river, which is to be his guide in his trip to Kansas City. The flight made a beautiful appearance from this city, flying high in the air like a great bird and heading for the southeast, he was soon lost from sight in the distance. A large crowd gathered at the Burlington station to witness the passage of the aviator and all were highly pleased with the flight made.

The aviator met with a little difficulty several miles north of this city, when his engine did not work in good shape and he was compelled to float on the water for about 15 minutes until he could get the machine in working order. While giving an exhibition at Nebraska City yesterday afternoon he ran his hydroplane on a sand bar and it was necessary to get a motor boat to pull it off. He left this morning for St. Joseph, his next stopping place.

THE PLATTSMOUTH PLAYER'S CLUB MEET

Large Attendance and Nice Social Time—Will Give Minstrel Show Soon.

The Plattsmouth Players' club met last evening at the M. W. A. hall and the meeting was largely attended and the members were treated to a jolly social gathering, as well as the regular business of the club.

The membership of the club has grown so large that it is impossible to meet at any private home, so that it has become necessary to secure the Woodman hall for the first and third Wednesdays of each month for the meetings.

A most delightful program was given last evening after the business session of the club, consisting of vocal solos by Miss Zelma Tuoy and Mrs. H. S. Austin, in a most charming manner, as well as two very pleasing readings by Misses Ellen Windham and Bernice Newell, who are both possessed of great talent along this line. Following the program three new members were initiated into the mysteries of the club and then a delightful informal social time was spent by the members of the club.

The club is preparing for their new minstrel show, to be given soon, and have worked up an entire new second part entitled "The Colored Suffragette," and it promises to be one of the best attractions that has been produced in this city since their successful minstrel last season. New songs will be secured for the tuneful first part, and with the talent lately added to the club, it ought to be an immense success.

SHOULD BE TAKEN IN HAND BY AUTHORITIES

Several days ago C. C. Cook, who tries to observe the law in regard to running his automobile, was coming down Chicago avenue at a slow rate of speed when a couple of boys jumped on the steps and proceeded to bend the guards so that it required considerable trouble to get them back into shape. Anyone who will do an act of this kind ought to be taken in hand and taught to respect the property of other persons. Mr. Cook is a very careful driver and is not in the habit of speeding his machine and such acts as these very naturally cause him a great deal of annoyance. If such things are continued the parties ought to be turned over to the authorities, as they are not only injuring the property of others, but also are endangering their lives in jumping on these machines when in motion.

J. P. Falter was a passenger yesterday afternoon for Omaha, where he looked after business matters for the day.

Meet at H. C. VanHorn Home.

The Helpers of the Christian church were entertained in a most delightful manner at the pretty home of Mrs. H. C. VanHorn in South Park yesterday afternoon. There was a large number in attendance and during the business session, which the ladies held, it was decided to hold an apron bazaar on December 14. Following the business session a few moments was then devoted to a very pleasant social time and then an excellent three-course luncheon was served by Mesdames M. S. Briggs, G. P. Eastwood, B. F. Crook and Mrs. Eastwood, which was highly appreciated by the large number present. At the hour of 5 the ladies dispersed, voting this occasion one of the most splendid they had participated in for some time.

"THE MAN, THE GIRL AND THE GAME"

Another Great Musical Comedy at the Parmelo Theater Wednesday, November 13.

This is one of the greatest musical comedies on the road today, and having an open date, Manager Shlaes jumped at the opportunity of getting the company here on Wednesday night, November 13. The company is composed of 40 people and every actor is an artist in his or her line.

This is said to be a greater amusement attraction than "The Prince of Tonight," which gave such great satisfaction to our people a few nights since. The Journal desires to congratulate Manager Shlaes on his good luck in securing such a noted company and feel almost assured that his efforts will be rewarded by the presence of a large audience next Wednesday night.

Having noticed in the papers the grand satisfaction "The Man, the Girl and the Game" have been giving in other cities, we can truthfully recommend it in advance to our people as one of the greatest musical comedies ever presented in this city. This company does not make a practice of playing at small cities as Plattsmouth, and therefore our people should appreciate Manager Shlaes' effort in getting the best, to patronize them to the extent of giving him a big house, that other big shows may be induced to come to Plattsmouth. Remember the date—Wednesday, November 13—and don't fail to make your arrangements to attend.

MORE QUEER CAPERS OF DAN CUPID

Miss Olga Sattler and Mr. Harley Burdick United in Marriage Yesterday in Omaha.

Another of Plattsmouth's charming young lady has fallen a captive of Dan Cupid in the person of Miss Olga Sattler, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. J. P. Sattler of this city. The first definite news of the wedding was the notice in the Omaha papers of the marriage license of Harley M. Burdick of that city and Miss Sattler, although the family and friends have been expecting the wedding for some time, but the young folks succeeded in putting a surprise over on their friends in this city. The wedding occurred in the metropolis yesterday afternoon.

The bride is one of the most popular young ladies in the city, where she was born and reared to womanhood, and their friends are legion among the young people of the city. The groom is quite well known here, having been a frequent visitor here at the home of his brother, Roy Burdick and family. He has a very good position with one of the leading wholesale houses of Omaha, and it is expected that the young people will make that city their future home. The newly wedded pair are expected in the city this evening on No. 2 for a short visit with their relatives. The friends of the young couple in this city will join in wishing them a wedded life full of sunshine and happiness.

Mr. Fight is justly proud of this splendid specimen of horseflesh and hopes to see her carry off a great many more purses during the next racing season. The horse was taken to the farm of Mr. Fight, near Mynard, for the winter season.

PENNSYLVANIA EDITOR FILES HIS STATEMENT

Fred Newell, owner of the Canton, Pa., Sentinel, pokes fun at the new postal law in his statement sent to the postoffice authorities at Washington. After giving the information that he is the owner, managing editor, business manager and publisher of the Sentinel, Mr. Newell says: "It is not required by the act of congress, but we do not mind telling the postmaster general that we also own a lawn mower, and have a limited amount of stock in two different telephone companies. A dog, locally known as Nigger, takes us around sometimes, but we disclaim all ownership or responsibility for him. Said dog sleeps on the mat by our front door when he doesn't sleep somewhere else. He comes to our house when we have chicken for dinner, and he climbs up and licks our hands and face when he wants a favor. At other times he don't know us. Said dog is a pretty good politician. We don't know what he is running for, but the last we saw of him he was running from a chunk of wood which we threw at him because he played tag with our undershirt hanging on the clothesline. We are a Taft man and we wear false teeth. We used to go to Sunday school. If there is any further information that the postmaster general wants in regard to us or the Canton Sentinel, he is respectfully referred to the police."

Mrs. Blish Operated Upon.

Yesterday Mrs. Earl R. Blish was operated on in one of the Omaha hospitals, and although the operation was a severe one, she stood it nicely and came out from under the influence of the drugs in splendid shape. This will be pleasing news to Mrs. Blish's many friends here, who have been greatly worried over her condition, and it is to be hoped that she will be able to return home in a short time.

Mrs. A. W. White and Mrs. J. A. Donelan were in Omaha today, being passengers for that city on No. 15 this morning.
