JOHNSON'S GOLDEN
SMILE ENTIRELY GONE

Bondsmen Offered by Pugilist
Not Accepted by Court.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, occupies a cell in the county jail, due to his failure to furnish a $30,000 bond for his release on a charge of violating the Mann act.

No longer is Johnson's "golden smile" visible. His hard, losing fight in Judge Landis' court dejected him greatly. As he left the federal building, handcuffed to Deputy Marshal Northrup, after a futile plea to not have his wrist manacled, his shoulders were stooped and his head hung down. He said nothing.

In the course of his extended battle for bond, Johnson shed tears, pleaded, offered cash bond in almost any amount and employed two attorneys, David Backrach and Edward Morris, in an effort to obtain his release. Three prospective bondsmen failed to qualify, and one of them, Albert Jones, was sent to jail after he had failed to obtain a bond of $10,000 for his appearance in court next Monday to answer a charge of contempt complaint which was lodged against him by the court when he attempted to schedule property said to belong to his wife. Tony Mann, another prospective bondsman, was ordered out of court because he gave answers to questions which the court considered untruthful.

"Give cash bond in any amount, but for goodness sake keep me out of jail," Johnson pleaded with his attorneys.

Both District Attorney Wilkerson and Judge Landis refused to consider a cash bond.

"An unparalleled attempt to swindle this court by offering unqualified bondsmen has been made," said Judge Landis. "I will not consider a cash bond."

FARMERS' CONGRESS MEETS

High Living Cost Is Not Their Fault, Says President Sanford.

New Orleans, Nov. 9.—Charles F. Sanford of New London, O., president of the Farmers' National congress, in his address to the thirty-second convention of the organization here, said that "farmers have no conscious or intentional connection with the high cost of living in towns and cities."

He declared that many of the complaints came from people who "are trying to maintain standards built upon sundry luxuries and that the frugal and economical are not walling about the high cost of living."

Mr. Sanford said this was an era when brain more than brawn must be developed on the farm. He advocated a system of farm credits, similar to farming land bonds in France and Germany; the building of good roads; more intensive and less wasteful farming, and the continuation of the government's experimental work in agriculture.

Passengers Take Long Walk on Ice.

Dawson, Y. T., Nov. 9.—The steamer Vidette, which left here four days ago with 100 passengers for White Horse, ran into heavy ice on Indian river and is now stalled. The river is closed this side of Indian and the steamer cannot return. The passengers, including ten women, started back over shore ice twenty-eight miles.

VERY EASY ROAD
IMPROVEMENTS

Don't Let Up on the Road Work
Where They Need It Badly.

From Saturday's Daily.

There has been so much good roads agitation recently and so much discussion of the split log drag, proper methods of grading, etc., that a great many farmers are giving more or less attention to the roads past their farms. The results are easily noticeable wherever anything like systematic work has been done.

There is one point in road building, however, that the farmers all over the country are neglecting. This is the sunken or raised culvert and the dangerous little washout where no culvert exists.

The automobile driver, or the traveler in a horse-drawn vehicle with anything like a heavy load, dreads these little "jumpoffs" more than a long stretch of really rough road. Hundreds of springs are broken every year by just these little places, and many an auto or team has been "stalled" through dropping into one of these holes and being unable to get out.

There is probably no bad feature of the country road which could be so quickly and easily remedied if the farmers would only give their attention to it. The very worst of these ditches or bumps could be put in condition so that a rig or auto could pass over without checking speed by one man working a few minutes with a spade or shovel.

Don't stop working the country roads where they need it, and most of them do. But when you are going to town or over to one of the neighbors and know you will cross a bad "jumpoff" take along the spade, stop a moment and fill in that hole with dirt from the roadside. You will be surprised at the improvement you can make with a few minutes' work, and you will be voted a public benefactor by both your neighbors and your city brothers who travel the road.

A Want Ad in the Journal will bring what you want.

Arrives From Kansas.

From Friday's Daily.
Mrs. Allan G. Wilson, wife of the rector of St. Luke's parish church in this city, arrived last evening on No. 2 to begin house-keeping in this city. Mr. Wilson met his wife in Omaha and brought her to her new home, she having been visiting for several weeks with relatives at Clay Center, Kansas. The members of the church will be pleased to welcome her to her new home and trust that she may find her residence here most pleasant.

From Friday's Daily.
R. L. Propst was a passenger this afternoon for Council Bluffs, Iowa, where he goes to get some parts for his side delivery hay-rack, which was stolen and damaged several nights ago. The machine was valued at about $60 and Mr. Propst was greatly inconvenienced in having it broke, as well as the outlay for repairs, which will amount to quite a good deal.

Visits Old Home.

From Friday's Daily.
Clare Thomas, of Long Beach, California, came in this noon for a visit with his relatives and friends in this city and vicinity. Mr. Thomas has been traveling for the past few months and has spent the greater part of the summer in Canada, and on his way home decided to stop and pay a visit to his old home here.

GREAT MUSICAL
COMEDY FEAST

With the Well Known Comedian,
Billy Clifford, in the Lead, at the Parmele.

From Saturday's Daily.

"The Girl, the Man and the Game," a musical comedy feast (served in two courses), with Billy "Single" Clifford in the leading role, will be the offering at the Parmele theater Wednesday night. The play is bright and breezy, full of ridiculous situations caused by Billy (as Charles Pointer), who to get financial assistance from his rich uncle, Cattermole, in the Philippines, tells him that he is married and has a baby daughter.

The rich uncle, who is possessed of the globe trotting fever, decides to visit his nephew, and the letter which was to inform them of his coming being delayed, he arrives very unexpectedly upon the scene; Billy just has to have a wife, so he borrows the wife of his friend, to whose sister he is betrothed. Many are the complications which arise therefrom, but the merriest one is when the uncle asks for the infant, Clifford having neglected to mention to his friends that he had told his uncle he had a child also, and once more his friend, Dr. Morry, is appealed to, and whether for revenge at having to stand idly by and see his wife caressed by another or just out of a pure spirit of fun, the doctor produces the baby, but it is of the unbleached American type. This causes further complications, all of which keep Charlie in "hot water" all the time. The doctor, growing weary of the deception, goes to the French hall and invokes the aid of Charlie to help him square himself for remaining away from home all night. As usual Charles makes a bungle of the explanation, causing a rupture between the doctor and his wife. Finally finding that further elaborate lies are useless the uncle is enlightened as to the truth of the condition of affairs and forgives all for their deceptions and all's well that ends well.

Billy has surrounded himself with an excellent company, headed by petite Mae Collins, who the past season proved herself to be one of the cleverest soubrettes of the year by her exceptional work in the title role of the New York success, "The Pink Lady." She is possessed with a beautiful voice, is an excellent dancer and has an abundance of personality. Jack Trainor will again be seen in the role of the eccentric old uncle and his work would be very hard to improve upon.

Filed in District Court.

From Saturday's Daily.

George E. Perry filed in the district court today a petition asking a restraining order against the mayor, councilmen, chief of police and street commissioner. The plaintiff is a property owner in South Park and seeks to restrain the city authorities from tearing down his fence and opening up Isabel street, which runs through his property. The street was recently ordered opened by the city council.

Go to Union for Game.

From Saturday's Daily.

This morning a party of young men departed for Union, where they will take on the basket ball team of that place for a game this afternoon, and expect to give the Union boys a run for their money, although the local boys are handicapped by the fact that they are not used to playing out of doors. Those in the party were: Elmer Frans, Carl Dalton, Will Kyle, Frank Marshall and Harris Cook.

"There could be no better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My children were all sick with whooping cough. One of them was in bed, had a high fever and was coughing up blood. Our doctor gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the first dose eased them, and three bottles cured them," says Mrs. R. A. Donaldson, of Lexington, Miss. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

MAKE PLATTSMOUTH
AND CASS COUNTY

Make Plattsmouth and Cass county a better place to live in. How? By interesting yourself in the Chopie Gasoline Engine Company (Limited). Get in and boost for yourself by buying some stock in this plant. The man who really boosts is the one financially interested. By so doing you are helping to bring thousands of other dollars to remain here. Dollars invested in foreign lands and stocks go out of the county never to return. Let's reverse this. The Chopie Gasoline Engine has proved itself in this county as a wonderful gasoline engine, so help us to send this engine all over the world. Let's make our land not $100, but $500 per acre land. This plant is the foundation that will get other industrial plants here.

We are incorporated for $200,000. Most of this stock will be sold out of Cass county, but we want you all to take a small quantity of our stock. It is issued in common and preferred. We think it as safe an investment as a government bond. Come in and share the profits with us. Our preferred stock guarantees you seven per cent. Common stock shares in the further profits of the company. All stock is non-assessable and limited in liability to the money you invest. All stock is issued in share at $10.00 each, and if you cannot take but one share, take it now; we want your boost. We know we can make this community a big manufacturing center if you help us. We know we have the best engine in the United States.
