

THE MARRIAGE OF MISS FERN M'BRIDE

The Happy Event Occurred at the McBride Home in South Omaha Saturday Evening.

Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents in South Omaha, occurred the wedding of Miss Fern McBride and Mr. Howard Holmes of Omaha, Rev. J. W. Kirkpatrick performing the ceremony that made them one. The rooms of the McBride home were decorated in a most lavish manner and presented a most beautiful background for the happy event. The Sunday Omaha Bee gives the following account of the happy event:

"Miss Helen Herold of Lincoln sang 'As the Dawn,' which was followed by the entrance of the bridal party, who took their place in a bower of palms and yellow chrysanthemums. The wedding march was played by Miss Wilhelmina Herold of Lincoln.

"The bride wore a white embroidered net gown over white satin. Orange blossoms, a gift of Miss Hazel Schaffer of California, held the long tulle veil in place, and she carried a shower of bride's roses. The only ornament the bride wore was a chain and locket, an old heirloom of the groom's family, a gift from the groom.

"Miss Ethel Ballance of Plattsmouth was maid of honor and wore yellow ornaments, with an overdrape of white crepe de chine, trimmed in pearls.

"Miss Bess Clifton was bridesmaid and was gowned in yellow charmeuse, with an overdress of white chiffon, embroidered with pearls and rhinestones.

"Little Miss Margaret McBride sister of the bride, was ring bearer and wore a white lingerie dress over blue. Mrs. J. McBride wore Alice blue trimmed in white point lace.

"Richard Brunn of Omaha was best man.

"The bride's gifts to the bridesmaids were friendship pins with a forget-me-not design.

"Assisting at the reception following the ceremony were Mrs. C. S. Johnson and Mrs. L. A. Davis, besides the wedding party.

"Mr. and Mrs. Holmes left during the evening for a honeymoon trip in the east. They will be at home at the Lafayette apartments after January 1."

While a resident of this city Miss McBride made a host of friends by her lovable and charming manner and they will rejoice to learn of her new found happiness and trust that her wedded life may be as a cloudless day.

Plattsmouth Club.

It isn't everyone in Plattsmouth that knows that Lincoln has a Plattsmouth club. Well, it has, and as will be seen by the following from the society column of the Sunday Journal, they have regular meetings: "The Plattsmouth club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Kate Davis, Mrs. F. T. Darrow being the assistant hostess. Twenty-five ladies were present. Mrs. Davis had recently visited Plattsmouth and gave an entertaining talk, in which the latest news from that city was related."

T. B. SMITH HAS ARM OPERATED UPON IN OMAHA

Some few weeks ago T. B. Smith, who resides near Murray, had the misfortune to have one of his arms broken in an accident with a threshing machine upon which he was working. The broken member did not heal as it should and upon examination it was found that a small muscle had in some manner gotten between the two broken bones and prevented their knitting together as they should. Mr. Smith was taken to Omaha, where the arm was operated upon today and the muscle removed. His wife and Mrs. Clara Smith and his brother, J. L. Smith, of near Nehawka, were passengers this morning for Omaha to be present at the operation.

THE ART EXHIBIT AT HIGH SCHOOL A GREAT SUCCESS

The art exhibit, which closed at the high school building Saturday afternoon, was quite a success, both socially and financially, and the programs which were given by the pupils of the seventh and eighth grades Friday evening and the lower grades Saturday afternoon were excellent and the young people are to be congratulated on the pleasant entertainment furnished the visitors. The schools secured $103, which will be used to purchase new pictures for the different school rooms and it will go a long way towards beautifying the rooms. About one-fifth of the people of the city bought tickets to the exhibit and assisted the good cause along by this means.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mr. Monroe in the loss of his beloved brother.

BIG DOINGS AT THE GERMAN TURNER HALL

Fine Dance Saturday Night, and Fine Exhibition of Turning by Visitors Yesterday.

Saturday evening and yesterday afternoon were gala occasions at the German Turner hall. Saturday evening the society gave a grand ball that was one of the most enjoyable given so far this season and was largely attended by a merry crowd, who enjoyed themselves in the delights of the dance until a late hour. The M. W. A. orchestra was on the job with their usual excellent music, which added greatly to the success of the dance.

Sunday the society was visited by a large delegation of turners from Fremont and the South Side Turn-Verien of Omaha, who gave a splendid turning exhibition at the hall in the afternoon under the direction of Prof. Koslan of Fremont. There were some very fine turners in the delegation and the audience was delighted with the various stunts given by the class.

A number of "bears," including Mayor Sattler, demonstrated to the active turners that they had not forgotten how to perform upon the various apparatuses used by the turners. The visitors were a fine, genial crowd of gentlemen, and it is to be hoped that they will visit us again and give another of their exhibitions.

Already Have Silk Hat.

Lee Mayfield of the Louisville Courier was in Plattsmouth last week, and among other things he said in his paper about Plattsmouth is the following: "We saw Col. Bates at a distance, but he was so busy planning how he is going to have a new silk hat and a red necktie when he gets to be postmaster that he failed to see us. In fact, he passed us up; we don't hold it a-gin' him either. He has a perfect right to feel dignified. He's a democrat."

Enjoyable Dance.

Saturday evening a very pleasant social dance was given at the K. S. hall on West Locust street and a most enjoyable time had by the large crowd present. The music was of a very high order and the dancers enjoyed the evening waltzing to the delightful strains furnished by the musicians.

He was a very pleasant and most welcome visitor at the Journal office during his brief stay today.
