3—"What Appealed to Me in the Calling of Wild," by Jack London, Ralph Kennedy.

4—"Paper of Vocational Education in the Public Schools," by Lloyd Gopen.

5—Refreshments, under the direction of Miss Harriett Adams.

All members are urged to be present.

In a Critical Condition.

Washington Dillehay, the 41-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dillehay, who was struck by a baseball at Rock Creek school house a few weeks ago, the result of which the lad received an injury of the jaw that necessitate an operation, is at this time in a very critical condition. He is still in the hospital at Omaha, but there are no hopes of his recovering. The lad was operated upon for sarcoma, but there has been a recurrence of the same and the tumorous growth has greatly increased and passed into the young man's neck. Relief is beyond the skill of all modern surgery, as the trouble increases very rapidly.

The Bazaar.

The bazaar of the Missionary society will be conducted in the dining room of the church on Saturday, December 7th, all day and evening. Dinner will be served at noon. The booths will be open for sales at 2 o'clock. Nothing will be sold before. You will find some very pretty Xmas presents here, such as guests' towels, dollies, pin cushions, pillow cases, aprons, hand-painted china, rag rugs. The prices will range from 10c to $10. Remember that you can get your supper any time after 5:30. A good time all day and evening.

Has Thumb Amputated.

Byron Read, who has been suffering from blood poisoning for the past five weeks, caused from an injury he received upon his thumb, had the injured member amputated Wednesday of this week. Dr. Gilmore of Murray performed the operation. Mr. Read has suffered a great deal for the past five weeks, and while his condition at this time is quite serious, every hope is entertained for his permanent recovery.

Box Supper and Corn Show.

At the Buck school house, Saturday, November 30th, at 8 p. m. Prizes as follows:

For the best 3 ears of corn... $1.50
Second best 3 ears of corn... 1.00
Third best 3 ears of corn... .50
Corn to be sold to pay for premiums.

Accepts Position in Bank.

Elmer Hallstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hallstrom of Plattsmouth, has accepted a position as assistant in the Murray State bank and enters upon his duties this week.

One way to relieve habitual constipation is to take regularly a mild laxative. Doan's Regulents are recommended for this purpose. 25c a box at all drug stores.

A Pleasant Evening.

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. George Fitzpatrick, three and one-half miles west of Murray, was the scene of much merriment last Saturday evening, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of their son, Arnold Fitzpatrick. The evening was spent in music and games, in which the merry visitors indulged quite freely, and the host looked well to the end of perfect enjoyment of all. The dining room was very tastefully decorated in bitter-sweets and Indian berries, and the parlors with evergreens and chrysanthemums. During the evening a delicious three-course luncheon was served, to which all did ample justice. At a late hour the guests departed for their homes, congratulating Mr. Fitzpatrick upon his ability as an entertainer and wishing him many happy returns of the day. Those in attendance were: Misses Agnes Lloyd, Ethel Murdock, Addie Dill, Ruth Beverage, Adele Fitzpatrick, Ester Lloyd, Vivian Fitzpatrick, Margaret Beck, Myrtle Rice, Birdie Johnson, Ethel Dill, Lela Fitzpatrick, Helen and Emma Beuchler, Frea Marsh, Messrs. John Rice, Garland Tulson, Oscar Shrader, Jim Erhart, Harold Todd, Adolph Beverage, Lester Murdock, Fred Beuchler, Fred Ulrich, Frank Marler, Arnold Fitzpatrick, Charles Vallery, Marion Delyarnell, Roy Fitzpatrick, Anderson Lloyd, Curtis Fitzpatrick, Albert Gotner, George Shrader, John Buechler, J. O. Beckner and son, B. O. Beckner, of Huntington, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Beck, Stephen Beckner, George Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Margaret Corbett.

Northern Nebraska Fine.

W. G. Boedecker, cashier of the Murray State bank, who spent several days the past week with friends and relatives in the northern part of the state, returned home Tuesday evening. He visited in both Cedar and Knox counties, spending a short time at the home of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Young, at Coleridge. John is again engaging in the cattle business pretty strong this winter. He now has a number on his farm and came to Omaha this week for 200 head more. There is plenty of feed in that locality and they are going to feed it at home. He met our old friend, J. H. Norris, at Coleridge, who was looking fine and enjoying life; likewise Jesse and Gus Lowther and F. W. Kleeping, all former residents of old Cass county. Crops were good in both of these counties and all the old Cass county people are doing fine. Glen returned to Omaha Tuesday evening and drove home with Vilas Sheldon, who was in the metropolitan with his car.

Miss Nickels Entertains.

Miss Elta Nickels entertained a company of friends last Saturday evening at a "tacky party." The guests all came just as "tacky" as possible and many excellent costumes were out. Games and social conversation whiled the short hours away. Frank Rhoden was costumed as a hunchback and carried away the ribbon. Miss Vera Moore, as Topsy, also won a ribbon. The "tacky" lunch consisted of cornbread, bacon and onions, and caused much merriment, the hostess exerting every effort to the end that the guests might enjoy the repast, by withholding a nice two-course luncheon until every scrap of dodger had disappeared. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ost, from near Nehawka; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rhoden, Fritz Tigner, John Rhoden, Gussie Good, Glen Hackenberry, Walter Read, Wayne Lewis, Fred Campbell, James Tigner, Lee Nickels, George Nickels, John Hobscheidt, Lloyd Lewis, Frank Dugay and Exa Frans from Union, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Copenhaver, Ella Harris, Clare Copenhaver, Esther Ray, Willa Moore, Elizabeth Campbell, Margaret Moore, Anna Ryst, Vera Moore, Pearl Dugay, Bertha Nickels, Heurella Creamer, Ethel Sherwood, Vera Yardley, Mrs. E. R. Queen.
