

FAMOUS BRIDGE CASE SETTLED

Sarpy County Pays Cass County $3,000 and the Costs of Litigation.

The famous bridge case that has been in litigation between Cass and Sarpy counties for the last twelve years, and which has been in the supreme court of the state five times, has finally been settled by Sarpy county paying Cass county $3,000 and the costs of the case, which will amount to considerable.

The case started over repairing the bridge at Louisville, in which this county sought to have Sarpy county pay their share, and it has been fought through all the courts and the supreme court has granted new trials several times. This is a very favorable settlement and reflects great credit upon County Attorney Taylor, who looked after the interests of Cass county in the matter.

The bridge over which the controversy started has long ago been washed out, and the toll bridge over the river at Louisville is owned by a stock company.

WEDDED BLISS AT HENNINGS HOME

Mr. Will H. Meisinger and Miss Louise Hennings United in the Holy Bonds of Wedlock.

Yesterday at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hennings, near Cedar Creek, occurred the wedding of Mr. Will H. Meisinger and Miss Louise Hennings, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. Huebner of the German Lutheran church. The wedding was attended by the relatives of the contracting parties and was very simple and impressive. The bride was very charming in an Alice blue chamoise silk, while the groom was garbed in the conventional black.

The bridal couple, accompanied by Miss Helen Hennings and Allie Meisinger, came to Plattsmouth, where the bride and groom departed on No. 2 for Pekin, Peoria and Chicago, going from there to Beloit, Wisconsin, visiting relatives in these cities for a few weeks before returning to their homes.

These young people are members of two of the most prominent and worthy families in Cass county and their wedding will be a source of much pleasure to their hosts of friends who have known them all their life. The bride has been one of the most popular and charming young ladies in the county and her friends will hasten to extend their best wishes to her on her wedding. The groom is a son of our worthy friend, J. H. Meisinger, and is one of the most highly esteemed young men in his locality, where he has made an enviable reputation by his manly and upright character, and is also one of the most genial young men in the county to meet.

The Journal extends its congratulations to the newly wedded pair and trusts that their future through life may be free from trouble and that their pathway be strewn with sunshine.

TURNING CLASS START THE SEASON'S WORK

The turning classes started the season's work last evening at the German Turner hall with a very good attendance, and everyone was enthusiastic over the prospect for a very successful work in this line this winter. The society has made a number of very important improvements in the hall, including a new shower bath, which will be a very important addition to the hall. There is at present only the various turning societies in the city where the young people can secure scientific exercise that will develop and strengthen the body and where they can indulge in good, clean, healthy games and sports. There will be at least two basket ball teams at the German hall, as well as indoor base ball, hand polo, etc., during the winter. The ladies' class will organize Monday evening at the hall.

Meet at Crook Home.

The Helpers of the Christian church held their social meeting yesterday afternoon at the pretty home of Mrs. B. F. Crook, in the southwest part of the city, and were very pleasantly entertained. The ladies of this organization are planning to hold an apron bazaar on December 14, and consequently spent a portion of the afternoon in making and did complete all the aprons. They held their usual business session, at which time they made further plans for this bazaar, in that they will also conduct a market on that date. Excellent refreshments were served at a convenient time, and it was quite a late hour when the large number in attendance dispersed, voting Mrs. Crook a splendid entertainer.

THE INSANITY BOARD IN SESSION TO-DAY

Two Parties Pronounced Insane and Will Be Taken to the Asylum at Lincoln.

Today was a very busy time with the insanity board, consisting of District Clerk Robertson, Dr. E. D. Cummins and J. M. Leyda. The first case brought was that of Mrs. Rosa Wise of Weeping Water, who was brought in this morning by Constable Noel from that village. Mrs. Wise arrived home last evening from Omaha and at once proceeded to raise several varieties of excitement by announcing her intention of killing her family, as well as the neighbors, and it was with difficulty she was overpowered. This morning when brought before the board she was very quiet and would not talk to any extent, but was evidently very much downcast and morose. Mrs. Wise has been subject to these violent outbreaks several times, and not long ago, while living in Omaha, she struck a woman with a baseball bat, breaking her hip and almost killing her. The trouble which her daughter has had is supposed to have contributed largely to her mental trouble. The board, after hearing the evidence, committed her to the asylum.

J. R. Denson was also brought before the board to be examined for his sanity. Mr. Denson was very sick recently and his sickness seems to have affected his mind, for he appears irrational at times, and not long ago left for Omaha without a word to his family, which caused them great alarm and the police were notified to search for him, which they did unsuccessfully, and he appeared home the next morning, claiming he had fallen down and injured himself quite badly in Omaha. The family has been very much worried over his condition and finally concluded he would be safer where he could be kept under surveillance.

ONE OF THE MOST CAPABLE COMPANIES EXTANT

One of the best dramatic organizations on the road at present, according to press reports from all parts of the country, is the one that appears here Saturday night in that well and favorably known play, "Thelma." Every member of this company has been chosen for his or her peculiar fitness for the part they are required to portray. The result is that each character will be a living reality, resulting in a perfect performance. The attraction has met with a hearty welcome wherever it has appeared and the local manager is pleased to announce to the public that he has had the good fortune to secure it for this city. The date has been set for Saturday, December 7, and we do hope the patrons will demonstrate their appreciation of a real dramatic attraction.

Some Live Chickens.

This morning Rev. W. L. Austin shipped a coop of his fine thoroughbred white Plymouth Rock fowls to Ashland. There were five pullets and two cockrels in the coop, and they are some of the finest chickens that have been raised in this section, and Rev. Austin takes a very pardonable pride in his fine thoroughbred stock. The chickens are very handsome, being pure white and of excellent size and weight.

REPORTS MUCH EXAGGERATED THROUGHOUT THE COUNTY

There has been a great many wild-eyed rumors circulating throughout the county concerning the prevalence of contagious diseases in this city and that there were a great number of cases of scarlet fever and diphtheria here. There has been a small number of these cases, but in every instance they have been very mild cases, in fact in many of them the parties having the disease have not even been confined to their beds for more than a day or so, and the physicians and health department have placed quarantines on the homes so afflicted. That the diseases are not very numerous can be shown by the fact that the attendance in the public schools has not fallen off, with the exception of a few children whose families are quarantined. These reports in regard to the spread of the diseases are entirely without foundation and should be so regarded by all to where they are told, as the general condition of the health of the city was never better.

HANDSOME LINE OF CHRISTMAS PRESENTS AT CRABILL'S

John W. Crabill, the jeweler, has placed in his store one of the largest and most handsome lines of Christmas gifts that has ever been carried here and the person who cannot find what they desire in the line of beautiful and lasting gifts must surely have something the matter with him. The line of watches carried by Mr. Crabill is very large and they range from the fingersoll to the most costly makes and nothing in the world would make as welcome a gift as one of these beautiful timepieces. The silverware display in the store would simply dazzle the eye with its beauty and is complete in every way, from spoons and fancy novelties to the most exquisite toilet sets in solid and sterling silver, and they are in a large number of beautiful patterns. THE PLAYERS' CLUB ENTERTAIN THEIR FRIENDS

Last evening the Plattsmouth Players' club enjoyed one of the most delightful social times that has been held here this season. The club held a short business session, after which a most pleasing program was given by the members of the club, consisting of musical numbers and readings. Miss Zelma Tney gave a very pleasing vocal number in her usual charming manner, and Misses Ellen Windham and Bernice Newell gave two of their delightful readings, and as they are among the finest elocutionists in the city the auditors were delighted with their offering to the evening's entertainment. Mrs. H. S. Austin favored the gathering with a splendid vocal number that was much appreciated. Two very charming instrumental numbers were given by Miss Christine Soenmichsen and Miss Jessie Fox in their usual finished manner, which afforded a rare treat to the audience. Following the program the merry party indulged in dancing for a time, each member of the club having invited a guest, and a most enjoyable time was had by the young people. At a late hour the company was invited to the handsomely decorated dining room, where a most sumptuous buffet luncheon was served. The dining room was very handsomely decorated with evergreens and made a beautiful setting for the tables with their decorations and the soft glow of the candles, which formed a part of the decorative scheme. About thirty couples were present at the delightful occasion.

"BOUGHT AND PAID FOR" COMING TO THE PARMELE

The amusement-loving people of Plattsmouth and the surrounding country are to be treated to one of the greatest plays, if not the greatest play, that has ever visited our city. "Bought and Paid For" is known in all the big cities and there is a great demand for it in the smaller cities. Manager Shlaes of the Parmele has been in correspondence with the manager of "Bought and Paid For" for several weeks in an effort to secure a date for the Parmele, and at last he has been successful in arranging a date for Saturday night, December 14. It was owing to the fact that the company had cancelled a date for three nights in one of the large cities that he was enabled to get the company. "Bought and Paid For" played in New York for nine months and in Chicago six months, and in both places the people were simply wild over the great play. Next Sunday night the company opens at the Brandeis theater in Omaha for a four-nights' engagement, which is sufficient to denote that "Bought and Paid For" is first-class in every particular. Manager Shlaes deserves great credit for securing this great play, as it is just the kind that will please our people.

-Establish a Ranch on Public Land-

High Prices of Cattle Insures this to Be a Good Business for Many Years

It is not generally known, but it is a fact, that one person can now take up 640 acres of Government land in Wyoming as follows:

First, file a Desert land entry on 160 acres where you can catch the drainage from 1000 acres, in a series of small storage reservoirs sufficient to irrigate as much as 81 acres of the entry and at least 5 acres on any 40 of the 160. For this 160 you pay the Government 25 cents an acre at the time of filing and $1.00 an acre which proof is made.

Second, file on 320 as a homestead—no charge for the land, but entryman must reside upon the homestead seven months each year for three years and raise a crop on 20 acres the second year and have 40 acres in crop the third year.

Third, buy 160 acres from the Government at $1.22 per acre. This 160 must join the homestead.

There are hundreds of such locations now open to entry. If you want one of these ranches write me today for map and particulars.
