The New Store Room.
Hiatt & Tutt are at last in their new store room, moving in this week. The boys are stepping around as proud as the only old turkey gobbler that escaped the last Thanksgiving dinner party, and when we say that they have cause to feel proud we believe that we are placing the matter very mildly. Everything is new, bright and clean, and we do not believe there is a finer store room in the county. Who would not feel proud? The people of Murray should all feel proud over the fact that they have two young business men in their midst who have perfect confidence in the future of Murray, and erect a business house like this in their town. We believe that it is the duty of the people of Murray and vicinity to lend them encouragement at every opportunity. Messrs. Hiatt and Tutt are young men with a future and that future at this time has been placed in the hands of the people of Murray and vicinity. They realize that their future lies in the gaining of your confidence and good will, that will lead to a share of your patronage, and to that end their future has been cast among you and we venture the assertion that they will exert every effort to gain the fullest confidence of the entire community. They are young men with business ability; they are honest and on the square all the time, and we can almost see where they will be successful to the fullest sense of the term. May they continue to grow is the wish of the Journal.

Pleasant Surprise.

Mrs. W. F. Moore was very pleasantly surprised Monday evening, when the neighbors and friends in the vicinity stepped in at an early hour in the evening and announced that owing to this being the fifty-third anniversary of her birth, they had come with the intention of helping her renew her youthful days. Which we believe they certainly did. The evening was spent with games and music and closed with an elegant "oyster feed." Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames E. R. Queen, F. Rhoden, G. S. Ray, E. G. Lewis, J. D. Lewis, Mrs. Mira McDonald, Mrs. A. Wilson, Lloyd Lewis, Esther Ray, Gussie Good, Frank Dugay, Francis Hoore, Eda Nickels, Mr. and Mrs. John Hobschiedl.

The Bazaar a Success.

The Presbyterian Bazaar was sure one of the successful events of the season, both financially and socially. The ladies worked very hard for many months for this crowning event, and were sure deserving of all the success that came their way last Saturday. The booths were well filled with many very pretty articles, all of which were useful and ornamental, and brought ready sale. The society netted $160. The ladies feel greatly indebted to the numerous buyers from the outside for their generosity.

The Joke on Lee.

Our excellent friend, Lee Oldham, has just passed his sixty-eighth birthday, and in honor of the occasion his many gentlemen friends planned a very pleasant celebration of the affair last Saturday evening. Lee was taking the world rather quietly at his home reading the evening paper, when Dr. Gilmore appeared on the scene and requested that Lee be needed down at the Loughridge hall, where the citizens were gathering to settle the postoffice appointment in Murray. The doctor told Lee that several citizens were up for the place and that he was needed to make the proper selection. Lee did not take much stock in this story, but as he had never had cause to doubt the doctor's word, he proceeded to go down to the meeting and make a scrap for his friends, as he usually does. Arriving at the hall he found just about the number of men present that the doctor had told him of, but the Murray postoffice was the least thing in their minds at that time. Here they had gathered with many good things to eat and enjoy a pleasant evening with Mr. Oldham, and assist him in celebrating his birthday anniversary. It was sure a pleasant time for all.

THE BUSY WOMAN'S DAY.

It begins early, ends late, and is full of work. She often has kidney trouble without knowing it. Her back aches, and she is tired and worn out. Sleeps poorly, is nervous, no appetite. Her bladder gives her trouble, too. Foley's Kidney Pills will cure all that and make her strong and well. They are the best medicine made for kidney and bladder disorders. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Union Man Minus $150.

The Omaha Bee of this morning contains the following: "William Stewart, a rustic from Union, Neb., strayed near Tenth and Capitol avenue Tuesday. As a result he is $150 the poorer. He told Patrolmen Pzanowski and Schwager that he had been robbed by a negro woman. The officers arrested Grace Mason, a negress, identified by Stewart, and she is being held as a suspicious character."

Dr. Wm. Sadler, author of "The Cause and Cure of Colds," says that common colds should be taken seriously, especially when they "hang on." Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is a reliable household medicine for coughs and colds, equally effective for children and for grown persons. Take it when you feel a cold coming on. It will avert danger of serious results and cure quickly. No harmful drugs. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.
