It is not generally known, but it is a fact, that one person can now take up 640 acres of Government land in Wyoming as follows:

First, file a Desert land entry on 160 acres where you can catch the drainage from 1000 acres, in a series of small storage reservoirs sufficient to irrigate as much as 81 acres of the entry and at least 5 acres on any 40 of the 160. For this 160 you pay the Government 25 cents an acre at the time of filing and $1.00 an acre which proof is made.

Second, file on 320 as a homestead-no charge for the land, but entryman must reside upon the homestead seven months each year for three years and raise a crop on 20 acres the second year and have 40 acres in crop the third year

Third, buy 160 acres from the Government at $1.22 per acre. This 160 must join the homestead.

There are hundreds of such locations now open to entry. If you want one of these ranches write me today for map and particulars.
