EXPLOSION OF BOILER AT THE MASONIC HOME

This morning the small boiler in the heating plant at the Masonic Home exploded, the force of the explosion wrecking the boiler and injuring the walls of the building in which the heating plant is located. The escaping steam scalded the fireman, Kenneth Askwith, grandson of Superintendent Askwith, though not severely. Workmen are busy fixing up the larger boiler in order to heat the buildings at the Home, but the small boiler is a total wreck and the damage to the building cannot be fully estimated until the superintendent returns from Omaha, where he was called on business this morning. This accident places the Home in bad shape for heat, and every effort is being made to get the plant in shape as soon as possible.

The small boiler was used for the purpose of the laundry at the Home and had only been fired up a short time when the explosion occurred. The burns of young Askwith were chiefly on the hands and face and were not dangerous, although very painful. The small boiler was connected with the main boiler, and the workmen are employed in fixing up the connections that were injured by the explosion.

DIES OF DIPHTHERIA AFTER AN ILLNESS OF FOUR DAYS

Raymond Rockwell, 13 years old, died about noon Saturday at the Henry DuClos farm south of town with diphtheria, after an illness of four days.

He came from Manley with his sister, Mrs. Howard Johnson, and the family Tuesday evening, and was sick when he got there. Dr. Walker was called from Union, and immediately quarantined the family, but not until after Mrs. DuClos and the children had moved to town.

The little boy was buried privately at Weeping Water Sunday, and the house has been thoroughly fumigated. His father and several brothers and sister are left.

No new cases have developed and it is to be sincerely hoped they do not, as the disease seems to be in its most malignant form.—Nehawka News.

AT THE PARMELE THEATER
 NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The most popular American novel, "The Shepherd of the Hills," has been made into a play by its author, Harold Bell Wright, with the assistance of Elsbury W. Reynolds. This will be good news to the millions of Mr. Wright's admirers. For everyone who has read this popular story will be glad to see "Sammy Lane," "Prechin' Bill," "Young Matt," "Dad Howitt" and all the people of the "Mutton Hollow" take life and appear behind the footlights. "The Shepherd of the Hills" will have its local premiere at the Parmele theater, where it will be presented Wednesday night only.

A SURPRISE AT THE HIGLEY HOME SATURDAY EVENING

Saturday evening Mrs. James Higley was completely surprised by a large crowd of relatives and friends, who marched in on her without a moment's warning and took possession of the Higley home. The relatives had been unable to get home for the holidays and so decided to organize a surprise on this worthy lady, which was an immense success. The evening was delightfully spent in music and social conversation, and at an appropriate hour a most delicious five-course luncheon was served, to which everyone voted one of the finest that they ever had the pleasure of partaking of. The visitors presented Mrs. Higley with a fine coat as a token of the deep affection and esteem in which they held her, and which will be a lasting souvenir of the happy occasion. The out-of-town guests present were: Grover Elledge, wife and daughter, Jack and Harold Elledge and John Richardson, Council Bluffs; Walter M. Laughlin and wife, South Omaha; Misses Daisy and Mary Piatt, Pacific Junction; Mr. and Mrs. George Barr and Mrs. Rhoda Cotner and three daughters of this city.

CHOPIE ENGINE COMPANY TO ENJOY A BENQUET TONIGHT

The stockholders of the Chopie Gasoline Engine company will enjoy a fine banquet this evening at the Riley hotel, tendered by Mr. Chopie, and the occasion will be one highly enjoyable. The management of the hotel has prepared a very sumptuous menu and will spare no pains to give the guests at the banquet a most royal treat. The banquet will start at 7:30 and will serve to bring the different stockholders and the officers in touch with each other and the exchange of ideas will prove of much benefit to all. The company is meeting with great success since its reorganization and the demand for the engines on the market is constantly growing, so that the capacity of the factory is crowded to fill the orders that are pouring in, and the outlook is very bright for the expanding of the business and the enlarging of the factory. This factory will in time prove to be the means of bringing many here to locate and should have the united support of our citizens that this end may be reached.

Nineteenth Annual Ball.

The T. J. Sokol society of this city will give their nineteenth annual grand mask ball Saturday evening, January 18, 1913. These mask balls have grown to be looked forward to by the dancing public, as they always have a most enjoyable time at them. The music will be furnished by the M. W. A. orchestra and a number of very handsome prizes will be given.

Makes the Nation Gasp.
 The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. It's the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25 cents at Rynott & Co.

LITTLE BOY WHO SHOT HIMSELF RECOVERING

John Spangler was in town Thursday afternoon and reports that his little son, who accidentally shot himself with a shotgun a week ago, was getting along nicely and that the attending physician says that the boy has a good chance to recover. In our report of the accident last week we stated that the load of shot passed through the boy's hip. It was more serious, however, for instead of passing through the hip it passed through his side, leaving a hole as large as a silver dollar. The many friends of the family will be pleased to learn that the little fellow is getting along so well.—Louisville Courier.

L. F. LANGHORST HAS BEEN A VERY SICK MAN

L. F. Langhorst was taken suddenly ill Thursday evening of last week and for a time grave hopes were entertained for his recovery. Mr. Langhorst's illness is the recurrence of an old affliction to which he seems subject, this time considerably more severe than ever before. Medical skill and careful nursing are gradually bringing him back to his former self, and we are glad to report that he is improving very rapidly.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

The Journal regrets to learn of the serious illness of its good friend, the first of which we learned through the above-named paper. Lou Langhorst is one of the best citizens in Cass county, and one of that character that his place in any community would be very hard to fill. We hope to see him in his usual health very soon, and with that same benign countenance with which he always greets his friends.

THE Z. C. B. J. SOCIETY ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The Bohemian fraternal society, Z. C. B. J., held a most elaborate entertainment Saturday evening at the T. J. Sokol hall, at which officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Joseph Altman; recording secretary, Louis Jirin; treasurer, Mrs. A. J. Trilety; financial secretary, William Holly. After the business session a most delightful "feed" was given the members, which added much to the enjoyment of the occasion, and following this a social dance was enjoyed by the lodge members and their families. Considerable annoyance was caused to the members of the lodge owing to the announcement made in the paper that the dance was given by the T. J. Sokol's and was public, when it was a lodge dance, and the announcement was made without the knowledge of either organization, who were compelled to turn away several parties. The dance of the T. J. Sokol society will be their big masquerade January 18.

"Uncle Zeke" Saturday Night.

The performance of "Uncle Zeke" at the Parmele theater Saturday evening drew a good audience and many were pleased at the antics of the actors, which, while not by any means particularly clever, kept the audience in laughter. The performance of the country bumpkin was the chief feature of the show, and for a "rube" show it was not so bad, although not pleasing to the usual run of theater-goers. The company had a very good band with them, which rendered several pleasing numbers on the street Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meisinger, from near Mynard, spent New Year's day in Plattsmouth at the home of Mrs. Meisinger's parents. While here John paid the Journal office a brief visit.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that most infectious diseases, such as whooping cough, diphtheria and scarlet fever, are contracted when the child has a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will quickly cure a cold and greatly lessen the danger of contracting these diseases. This remedy is famous for its cures of colds. It contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given to a child with implicit confidence. Sold by F. G. Rricke & Co.

THE MOST POPULAR AMERICAN NOVEL

"The Shepherd of the Hills," a dramatization of Harold Bell Wright's novel of the same name, by Mr. Wright and Elsbury W. Reynolds, is announced for production at the Parmele theater Wednesday night, January 8. Never in the history of publishing of books has a novel attained such a wide-spread popularity in the short space of four years. It has exceeded by over 100,000 copies the sale of the previous biggest seller, "David Harum." In making a play of his story the author, in collaboration with Mr. Reynolds, has retained the big dramatic possibilities of the book, making the love story of "Young Matt" and "Sammy Lane" his big theme. The play would be interesting, even if it only depended upon its excellent character-drawing to entertain, as the characters of the mountaineers of the Ozarks are indeed unusual upon the stage and lend a picturesqueness that is really worth while.

INTERESTING ADDRESS AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

The congregation at the Methodist church last evening had the pleasure of being addressed, both by the young people's meeting and the regular evening service by Captain C. G. Gregory and Captain Thockmorton of Omaha, members of the Volunteers of America, and these gentlemen made very impressive addresses, telling of the experiences they had had in the work among the poorer classes of the different cities. The stories of the lives of the people among whom they worked opened the eyes of their auditors to the real conditions that exist among these people. The remarks of these gentlemen made a very deep impression on their hearers. The Glee club gave two very pleasing selections, and the offertory, "The Ninety and Nine," as played by Prof. Kolbaba, was most beautiful and made one of the most powerful features of the evening services.

F. W. Young and Alex Eaton, from near Union, were county seat visitors last Friday, looking after some business matters and visiting with friends. While here Mr. Young called at the Journal office to renew his subscription for another year.

Frank Hiber returned to his studies at the Creighton School of Pharmacy at Omaha this afternoon, after visiting here with his parents over the holiday.

Seats on sale now at Riley hotel for "The Shepard of the Hills," at Parmele theater one night only, Wednesday.

Attorney C. A. Rawls departed this afternoon for Omaha, where he was called to look after some business matters.

10,000 VOICES

And Many Are the Voices of Plattsmouth People.

Thirty thousand voices—What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. Plattsmouth people are in this chorus. Here's a Plattsmouth case.

Mrs. Adam Kurtz, living one mile west of Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills good for any trouble with the kidneys and back. I was suffering intensely at the time I got them and I could not stoop or stand erect. There was a dull, nagging pain through my back that ribbed me of energy. My sight became affected and dark spots appeared before me. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Rynott's Drug Store and in a short time they relieved all my troubles. Since then I have recommended this remedy to a number of friends."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
