MYNARD.

Mr. and Mrs. Propst made a flying trip to Weeping Water Friday.

Henry Johnson contracted to unload coal from cars received by Propst.

Charles Davis and family visited in Murray over Sunday, guests of Oswald Virgin.

Albert Wetenkamp is on the sick list. We trust it is only for a short duration.

District No. 3 had no school Monday on account of the cold and stormy weather.

William Fight was called to Shenandoah, Iowa, recently to attend to business matters.

Gillespie & Snyder shipped a fine carload of fat hogs to the South Omaha market Monday.

Miss Carrie Newcomer of York has returned home, having visited in the Propst home for the past two weeks.

Lee Cole and Charles Barnard are supplying fresh beef to all that are in need of that article, "providing you have the price."

Weather of the past few days is a reminder of what has become of your last summer's wages, especially if your wraps and foot-gear are limited.

Addison Kiser, after spending the holidays with his family at University Place, has returned to the farm, where he is helping his son, Guy, manage the farm work.

Dr. T. P. Livingston made a visit to see Mrs. Goodwin, who has been rather poorly for the past six months. Mrs. Goodwin has seen 81 birthdays and does not get around as well as she did a few years ago.

S. C. Stevens, one of the members of the sawmill gang operating Propst's sawmill on the farm of Mark White, was in town for provisions last evening. The boys are at home in bachelor's hall, where they do their own cooking.

Calvin Crabtree, living near Avoca, visited with his brother, Lewis, several days last week. Mr. Crabtree has recently returned from the western part of the state, where he purchased a large tract of land at $20 per acre. His nephew, Ray Long, will move on the land in the spring and make improvements.

The holidays are past and the routine of work has again resumed its normal condition. School teachers have returned to their work at various places, relatives have each gone to their respective homes, and 1912 is numbered with the years that are past and gone. Let us try and make the new year more pleasant for ourselves, our neighbors and our friends.

If you have anything to sell an ad in the Journal will sell it.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

All persons interested in the estate of Thomas J. Fountain, deceased, now pending in the County Court of Cass County, Nebraska, will take notice that the administratrix has filed her final account and petition for final settlement in said estate. A hearing will be had upon said account and petition at the office of said County Court on the 18th day of January, 1913, at the hour of ten o'clock a. m., at which time any and all persons interested in said estate may appear and contest said account and petition.

Dated this 26th day of December, 1912.

ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.

Entertained at Roberts' Home.

The Ladies' Auxiliary held a most enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. Roberts yesterday afternoon. The attendance was small on account of the weather being so bad, but nevertheless those who braved the storm felt that they were well repaid.

The ladies held their regular business session, after which they spent some time in discussing the new work which they are planning to take up. Mr. Lorimer was present and explained this new work very thoroughly. The remainder of the afternoon was whiled away in conversation and other amusements. The hostess served dainty refreshments.

Sells Fine Chickens.

C. C. Wescott, the chicken fancier, has just disposed of two of his fine Buff Orpington cockrels to Ed Becker, who is also a raiser of this celebrated breed of chickens. These cockrels are full-blooded and among the finest in Mr. Wescott's pen, and Mr. Becker can feel very proud over securing them, as they are among the finest in the county and will give him a fine start with his stock of thoroughbreds.

The fowls are of good size and weight and are very handsome in appearance.

Return From Stanton.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNurlin returned from Stanton, Neb., Sunday evening, where they had been making a visit of two weeks with Edward Sprick and family. Mrs. Sprick made her home with Mr. and Mrs. McNurlin when a little girl. Mr. McNurlin reports a great deal of snow in the vicinity of Stanton, some of the drifts being three and four feet high.

He also stated that at the time he went out there that there was no snow in this vicinity and when he arrived at Stanton and found so much snow it seemed strange.

They report a most enjoyable visit although Mr. McNurlin suffered slightly with an attack of rheumatism. Mr. Sprick had Mr. McNurlin renew his subscription to this paper.

CHANGES IN OFFICIALS AT THE COURT HOUSE.

Today was moving day in the office of the county commissioner and Julius Pitz succeeded to the office of commissioner from the First district that has been held for the last six years by Martin E. Friedrich. Mr. Pitz is a young man and gives promise of making one of the best commissioners that the county has ever had and he can be depended upon to look after the interests of the taxpayers every jump in the road.

In the county attorney's office Mr. Taylor, who has made a most efficient and able legal representative of the county, will succeed himself, having been elected without opposition at the recent election. W. B. Bryan will take up the duties of the county assessor's job laid down by H. M. Sonnenhosen. These are the only offices that were affected in the recent election, the other candidate being merely on the legislative ticket.
