

HARD COAL!

We Sure Have It
Both Large and Small

And hope to have enough to supply you all.
But to make sure you're not too late call Independent phone 128, and order your coal—either large or small.

—Also a Good Line of Soft Coal—

WATERMAN
Lumber and Coal Company

Local News

Mrs. Louis Jirin was a passenger for Omaha this morning, where she visited for the day.

Guy McMaken departed this morning for Omaha, where he was called on some business matters.

Mrs. Joseph Fetzter was among the passengers this morning for Omaha, where she spent the day.

T. H. Pollock was a passenger this morning for Omaha to visit his wife at the hospital for the day.

Ben Windham came down from Havelock Saturday evening and visited with his folks in this city over Sunday.

Ray Travis, of Omaha came down Saturday evening and visited his parents, Judge and Mrs. H. D. Travis, over Sunday.

John Speck was a passenger yesterday afternoon for Omaha, where he was called to look after some business matters.

R. Glen Rawls was a passenger yesterday afternoon for Omaha, where he visited with his wife at the hospital for the day.

Hon. C. E. Metzger of near Mynard was in the city Saturday attending to business matters and visiting with his friends.

Fred Range was a passenger this morning on No. 15 for Omaha, where he looked after some business matters for the day.

A. S. Will was among the visitors in the metropolis this morning, being called there to look after some business matters.

Marion Armstrong, the old-time Plattsmouth printer, came over Saturday afternoon from Red Oak, Iowa, and visited over night with his friends here, returning to his home yesterday morning. Marion is engaged at his trade in the Iowa city.

Marshall, Dentist, Coates block.

Mrs. Andrew Kroehler and little daughter were passengers this morning for Omaha, where they visited for the day.

A. Hedengren came down this morning from Omaha to look after business in his department of the Burlington railroad.

Henry R. Gering of Omaha came down Saturday evening to visit with his mother and family in this city over Sunday.

W. D. Wheeler and son, Percy, were in town Saturday afternoon attending to some matters of business with the merchants.

Mike Meisinger was in the city Saturday for a few hours, having driven in to look after some trading with the merchants.

George W. Snyder came in from the farm Saturday afternoon and attended to some matters of business in this city for a short time.

Miss Lillian Schuldt was a passenger for Omaha Saturday evening, where she spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. William Fritschman and family.

J. W. Rounds, who is employed in the Burlington offices at the shops, spent Sunday in Lincoln with relatives, returning here this morning on No. 10.

Miss Leona Brady and Miss Jessie Moore were passengers on the early train this morning for Omaha, where they visited for the day and attended to business matters.

Mrs. L. G. Larson and daughter, Miss Alma, were passengers to Union yesterday morning, where they spent the day with the former's daughter, Mrs. R. E. Foster and family.

Charles Ulrich was a passenger yesterday morning for Omaha, where he visited for the day with his wife at the hospital. Mrs. Ulrich is getting along nicely from the effects of the operation which she recently underwent.

E. H. Schulhof departed this morning on No. 6 for Glenwood, where he will attend to business matters.

V. Zucker returned this afternoon from Omaha, where he was called to look after some business matters.

J. E. Gilson returned to Pacific Junction this afternoon after a short visit with his parents in this city.

S. H. Atwood came in this afternoon from Lincoln to look after some business matters here for a short time.

O. P. Monroe was a passenger on the early train this morning for Omaha to attend to business matters for the day.

Fred Weaver of South Bend was in the city for a few hours today looking after some business matters at the court house.

Miss Verna Leonard departed this morning on the early Burlington train for Omaha, where she will visit with relatives.

Max Koehn of Nebraska City came in this afternoon from Omaha and attended to some business matters here for a few hours.

Miss Seva Johnson returned to Omaha this morning on No. 15, after spending Sunday here with her parents, August Johnson and wife.

Mrs. J. B. Martin was a passenger on the early Burlington train this morning for Omaha, where she visited for the day with friends.

Tom Stenderfold of Havelock was in the city over Sunday visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Jake Jones and family, returning to his home this morning on the early Burlington train.

Mrs. E. W. Kennedy was a passenger yesterday morning for Omaha, where she will visit her son, Dr. Charles Kennedy and family, for a short time.

When you want a reliable medicine for a cough or cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

W. H. Heil and son, Rudolph, and daughter, Miss Mabel, and Miss Goldie Noble were in the city last Saturday, spending a few hours with county seat friends. Miss Noble is teacher in the Heil school district.

Harold Williams came up Saturday evening from Falls City and visited with his mother and friends over Sunday. He was a passenger this morning on No. 15 for Omaha, where he was called on business matters.

John P. Meisinger was in the city Saturday attending to the week-end shopping, and while here called at this office and had his subscription to the Daily Journal extended for a year.

Ed Reynolds and wife and Charles Reynolds came down from Havelock Saturday evening, called here by the illness of their mother, Mrs. B. J. Reynolds, who is quite sick, although feeling slightly better today.

H. F. Gansemer and Jake Kraeger of the vicinity of Mynard drove to this city Saturday to attend to some business matters. While here Mr. Gansemer took time to call at this office and renew his subscription to this paper.

FOR SALE—One lot, with fruit trees, outbuildings, modern cottage. Will sell for $1,100 if taken soon. Located in First ward on Third and Oak streets. Inquire of Wm. Henriksen or call up 'Phone Black 149. 12-31-1fd

Mrs. Nettie Stanton came up from Union Friday evening to take the county teachers' examination and visit her sister, Miss Mary Foster. She returned home yesterday morning, accompanied by Miss Foster, who spent the day with her parents.

George W. Shrader, who is one of the pioneer citizens of Cass county, came up Saturday from his home near Union, and visited with his friends here for a few hours, and found time to drop in at the Journal office for a short visit, and we were greatly pleased to see our old friend, and also pleased to note that he is enjoying pretty fair health for one of his age.

"MUTT AND JEFF" NEXT ATTRACTION

Carload of Scenery and Half Hundred Pretty Girls at Parmele
Next Saturday Night.

To quote the opinion of famous critics on the merits of Gus Hill's monster production of Bud Fisher's clever cartoon creation, "Mutt and Jeff," would require more space than this popular newspaper could possibly spare, and would likewise consume more time than the reader would care to give in the reading of it. It will suffice to say that the consensus of critics throughout the entire country is that "Mutt and Jeff" is one of the conspicuous successes of the year. This assertion is based on box-office records, as well as newspaper comments. Not unmindful of the personal expression of its patrons, therefore that which comes to your city backed by such undeniable proofs, surely is worthy of your patronage.

There are times when the people want to be shown. "Mutt and Jeff" has shown the people their goods and the people are buying. Shrieks of laughter greet their every appearance, embellished by a dressing of pretty girls and backed by a carload of magnificent scenery. "Mutt and Jeff" is the most legitimate entertainment now before the public. Your full money's worth or money back would be a good motto, but as no one has ever been dissatisfied there's no necessity. A carload of scenery and furnishings with "Mutt and Jeff" and their "Whole Dam Family" will move into the Parmele theater next Saturday night, January 25. "High Jinks" will be held on that evening. If you can't laugh, see a doctor at once. Now, for goodness sake, don't make the mistake of waiting until the show comes to town before buying your tickets. Get them as soon as the sale opens, which will be at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning. "Mutt and Jeff" never played to empty seats and it's not going to begin here. The house will be full of fun-loving, enthusiastic, howling, shrieking human beings. "A word to the wise is plenty."

"PUBLIC SALE."

Our lease with Uncle Sam having practically expired, and having decided to quit business and retire to private life, we, the undersigned, will offer at public sale at our residence at the Capitol, Washington, D. C., commencing on the 14th day of January, 1913, the following described property to-wit:

One Elephant, about 45 years old; one Financial Panic, old enough to wean, sired by Roosevelt and damned by everybody. One Republican Platform, as good as new, but somewhat moss-worn. One Big Stick, slightly impaired by overwork; also one Bull Moose Platform, only used four months, in poor condition. One Republican Machine, the same being somewhat out of repair. One Financial System, well supplied with clearing house certificates. A Little Cash; about 5,000,000 Old Teddy Bears. A lot of old Dinner Pails that never were filled and other articles too numerous to mention.

Everybody, regardless of past party affiliations or political servitude, is invited to attend this sale. It is expected that most of the articles herein mentioned will be bid on by Stand Patters, but everything will be on the square and all articles will be sold, but there will be no by-bidders. Possession of property will be given March 4, 1913. Roast Bull Moose will be served on the grounds by the Woman's Suffragette club.

This sale will positively take place on the above date, regardless of the weather.

W. J. Bryan, Auctioneer.
Woodrow Wilson, Clerk.
Col. Roosevelt,
Col. Morgan,
Col. Rockefeller,
G. O. P. Managers.

If your children are subject to attacks of croup, watch the first symptoms, hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be warded off. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

John Kaffenberger came in yesterday from the farm west of this city and visited for the day with relatives and friends here.

ANDY HARWICK'S HORSE STARTLES THE NATIVES

This morning while Andy Harwick, the mail carrier, was at the Missouri Pacific depot waiting for the mail, he had occasion to go inside the building and leave the spirited animal that he drives to his wagon unhitched, and the horse decided to startle the natives and started to run away and made some time down Washington avenue until he was stopped by Lester Burrows and tied up until Mr. Harwick could come and get it. The fact that the horse would run away was a great surprise to everyone around the depot, as it never exhibited any very strong signs of being so lively.

MYNARD.

(Special Correspondent.)

C. L. Jean transacted business in town Monday.

William Gillespie transacted business in South Omaha Friday.

W. T. Richardson has shipped a number of crates of chickens to the Omaha market during the last week.

Since the roads have become somewhat frozen and rough our village blacksmith is a very busy man shoeing horses.

W. B. Porter, representative for an investment company of Omaha, transacted business in Nebraska City Tuesday.

Ice or no ice, the weather continues to be fine. Jack Frost may put in an appearance later on and give us all the ice we want.

A number of boys and men from our town attended the wrestling match at the Majestic in Plattsmouth Thursday evening.

Rev. Gould has made the purchase of a fine driving horse for his daughter, that she might be able to attend school in Plattsmouth.

The Cottonwood Threshing company, managed by Guy Kiser, are having a fine run of shelling corn, and the Shears & Sawbrink sheller is doing all that was expected of it.

William Taylor delivered a fine bunch of fat hogs to Gillespie & Snyder Thursday. Mr. Taylor always tops the market with his raising of hogs, for he has the right kind and knows how to take care of them.

We are sorry to announce that Cornelius Bengen is not feeling at all well. He is having another attack of stomach trouble, the same as a few years ago. At that time he spent the winter in California and regained his former health. At this time a specialist from Omaha is taking care of his case and it is hoped that he will soon entirely recover.

Seed Corn for Sale.

Extra good, hand-picked yellow seed corn for sale. F. L. Rhoden, Murray, Neb. 'Phone 8-J.

Seed Potatoes for Sale.

King of the Earliest seed potatoes for sale. F. L. Rhoden, Murray, Neb. 'Phone 8-J.

For Sale.

A 3-year-old registered Percheron stallion. For particulars call on or address Chas. Countryman, Nebraska, Neb., or telephone 7-D, Murray.

HATT'S
RAISON
SALE
—IS NOW ON!—

4 10c Packages of Raisons

25c

Watch Our Ad

3 Cans of Corn for 25c

Hatt-&-Son

PAY TRIBUTE TO THEIR PASTOR

Rev. Dunkleberger and Wife Very Agreeably Surprised by Large Number of Church Members.

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening there gathered at the home of Rev. and Mrs. D. L. Dunkleberger about 50 members of the Christian church to celebrate the passing of the twenty-fifth milestone of the married life of their minister and his good wife. With baskets well filled and their spirits in that condition as would enable them to enjoy the evening, they raided the home a little after 8 o'clock.

While devouring the contents of the evening paper, Rev. Dunkleberger was completely surprised, gracefully acknowledging the fact. The friends immediately went to work to make the occasion one long to be remembered, for the many pleasant numbers on the program which they had prepared. When everything was gotten ready, Rev. Dunkleberger and wife were escorted to a point where they were prepared for the crowning feature of the evening, the wedding ceremony, which was to be performed. The bride wore a long bridal veil and carried white carnations, while the groom was decked with the same beautiful flowers in his buttonhole. The fascinating ring ceremony was used, Miss Helen Foster carrying the ring on a beautiful soft pillow, on which was worked the motto, "Good Luck," in large, artistic letters.

The one who had been selected to officiate has received from those present a silver offering, it being the twenty-fifth anniversary, the gifts aggregating twelve dollars, and as they were transferred to the groom as a token of the love and good wishes of those present for the newly married pair and their family, it was remarked that instead of placing the gold ring on the bride's finger, the silver, each dollar representing a month of blessings, filling the year with gladness, the silver would be placed in the palm of the groom's hand. As the bridal procession appeared Miss Myra Stenner, who presided at the piano, dispersed sweet strains of the wedding march.

Then followed the supper, which had been prepared and with music and games, until a late hour, all departing, wishing the minister and family much joy and happiness. In a guessing game relative to different kinds of food, Miss Katie Foster won the prize, which was a silver fruit spoon.

The happy couple were first married at Warsaw, Indiana, January 12, 1888, this event celebrating the quarter of a century of wedded bliss.

Local News

From Friday's Daily.

R. L. Propst of Mynard was in the city today attending to some matters of business with the merchants.

George A. Kaffenberger was in town today looking after some matters of business with the merchants.

Henry A. Newman of Louisville was in the city today looking after some business matters at the court house.

George J. Meisinger drove in today from his farm and looked after some business matters with the merchants.

L. H. Puls of near Murray drove up this morning from his home and departed over the Burlington for Omaha to look after some business matters.

Mrs. James Allison was a passenger on the early Burlington train this morning for the metropolis, where she will visit for the day.

L. H. McVey and wife drove up this morning from their farm near Union and spent the day here looking after business matters with the merchants.

C. E. Heebner, county commissioner, came in this morning from his home at Nebraska to assist Commissioners Jordan and Pitz in checking up the books of the various county officials.

Charles Miller, the prince of good fellows, drove in this morning from his farm south of this city to look after some trading, and during the course of the day came into the Journal office and renewed his subscription to the Old Reliable for another year.

The Catholic Dramatic Club

—will present a play entitled—

"Ztracena Sestra!"
or "Lost Sister"

—in three acts at

Katolicky Sokol Hall

Wednesday Eve, January 22

Play to Commence Promptly at 8:30 p. m.

Dance to Follow!

Everybody Invited!

Adults 25c —ADMISSION— Children 10c