CUPID AT HIS WORK AGAIN

Marriage of Mr. John Hobscheidt
and Miss Ethel Sherwood,
Father Shine Officiating.

Yesterday morning at St. John's Catholic church occurred the marriage of two very popular Cass county young people—Mr. John Hobscheidt of Murray and Miss Ethel Sherwood of near Union. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father M. A. Shine, and the wedding mass was attended by a large number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bridal couple was attended by Miss Anna Kopia as bridesmaid and Mr. John J. Cloidt as best man. After the ceremony a most enjoyable wedding breakfast was served at the home of C. C. Neff and the young people were showered with congratulations by their friends.

The young people are well known throughout this part of the county, the groom being a very successful young farmer residing near Murray, who possesses the respect and esteem of all who know him, as a man of the highest character. The bride is a very charming young lady and has been an immense favorite in the locality in which she has resided and where she has been reared to womanhood and the best wishes of their many friends will go out to the newly wedded couple for a life of happiness and sunshine, without a cloud to mar the joy of their married life. They expect to reside on the farm near Murray in the future.

SURPRISE PARTY AT THE J. F. CLUGY RESIDENCE

A very pleasant surprise party was given Tuesday evening at the home of J. F. Clugy and wife, when their daughter, assisted by Miss Dorris Winscott, planned and successfully carried out a surprise in honor of Mr. Clugy's fifty-first birthday. The affair was most successful and the worthy recipient of the surprise was very much taken back by the arrival of so many of his friends. A most delightful luncheon had been prepared by the young ladies, and at a proper hour it was served to the merry crowd and proved a most delightful feature of the evening's entertainment. Several musical selections were given by the different members of the company and were warmly received by the crowd, and it was with regret that they departed for their homes, wishing Mr. Clugy many more such happy occasions. There were some twenty-two present at the Clugy home.

CLINT LEACH OF UNION SUFFERS BROKEN LEG

An accident that might have resulted fatally occurred yesterday afternoon, and as a result of it Clint Leach received a broken leg. He was hauling ice on a wagon, and while driving along the tongue dropped down and tipped the wagon, causing Clint to get one of his legs caught in the spokes of the wheel, and the leg was broken in a horrible manner below the knee. The bone was badly splintered and protruded through the underwear and two pairs of overalls when the young man was rescued. He was conveyed to the doctor's office, where the wound was dressed and the attending physician holds out the hope that the limb can be saved.

Woodman Circle Meets.
The Woodman Circle held a meeting last evening at the A. O. U. W. hall and a number of the lodge members from Omaha were present to assist in the work of the order. The local lodge is constantly increasing their membership under the effective work of the local deputy, Mrs. Joseph Droege, and it is one of the leading fraternal societies of the city.

THE GRAND LODGE CATHOLIC WORKMEN

Wednesday's Proceedings Closed
With a Fine Dance Last Evening.

The convention of the Catholic Workmen that is being held in this city this week has brought a large number of delegates to this city to take part in the grand lodge at the K. S. hall in the west part of the city. The meeting Tuesday afternoon and yesterday was devoted strictly to the business interests of the order and matters of interest to the order was discussed by the different delegates present at the session of the grand lodge. This order is one of the strongest financially, as in membership (3,892 members in twenty-six different states). It has a reserve fund of $152,783.94, and has paid out to date in benefits to members and their families the sum of $290,000, which shows the splendid financial condition of the order.

The lodge was founded in 1891 at St. Paul, Minnesota, with twenty-three charter members and was incorporated in that state the following year. Since that time the expansion of the order has been steady and increasing each year, until it has become one of the leading Bohemian fraternal societies in the country. The delegates in attendance from the various states are as follows:

President, John M. Jerousek; chaplain, John Vleck; vice president, Joseph A. Drozda; secretary, Thomas G. Hovorka; treasurer, Frank J. Polak; medical examiner, Dr. M. E. Lorenz; counsellor, C. C. Kolar; trustees, Vaclav Vachal, Anton J. Malek, Anton F. Vana.
North Dakota—Frank Spale, Frank Jelinek.
Minnesota—John Nestaval, Joseph Chalupsky, A. J. Kubec, Rev. Joseph F. Hovorka, Vaclav Kucera, Vaclav Ploghart.
Illinois—V. Kilian, Vaclav Vondruska, Joseph Mahr, Thomas Cervenska, Vac Moravec.
Ohio and Pennsylvania—John Lebecka, Hynek Bastyr, Vaclav Wildman.

Maryland—James J. Valis, E. K. Krabek.
Oklahoma—Joseph Trojan.
Texas—F. J. Parma, Frank Bezdok, Frank Pastnsek.
Iowa—John Pavik, Matt Kobliska, C. Cekal.
Nebraska—Joseph F. Reznicek, J. A. Stuehlik, V. J. Boran, Joseph Pekarek, August Miller, C. F. Hermonek, Joseph Nejebinsky, Vaclav Polak, J. V. Pazdersky, J. V. Tuma, J. M. Machovec, Joseph Kopecky.
South Dakota—Martin Kastal.
Kansas—Vaclav J. Bosh.
Wisconsin—John Nekola.

The lodge will be in session today and tomorrow and the election of officers will probably occur at the session tomorrow. The selection of this city as the place for holding the grand lodge this year was a most graceful tribute to the president of the order, Mr. Jerousek, as well as the grand chaplain, Father Vleck, both of whom reside here, and the city would be pleased to have the grand lodge meet with us again in the future and assures the delegates they will receive a royal welcome here.

Last evening the dramatic club presented a most pleasing three-act play entitled "The Lost Sister," in the Bohemian language, and it was received with delight by the immense audience present to witness it. The acting of the entire company was excellent and reflected great credit upon Mr. F. J. Raek, who had charge of the production. Miss Marie Jelinek, who appeared in one of the leading female roles, as the object of the attention of several rival lovers, was splendid in her acting and made a deep impression on the audience by her graceful stage presence. As the villain, L. Raek made a strong character and won much applause from the audience by his strong and forceful acting, and F. J. Raek, as Josef Novak, the lover, won the entire audience by his pleasing acting. The play as a whole was as clever a one as has been produced here by a home talent company and was very pleasing in every respect to all who braved the disagreeable weather and attended.

During the progress of the play several delightful musical numbers were furnished by the orchestra, consisting of Frank Janda, jr., violin; Miss Pearl Mumm, piano; Anton Toman, drums; Tom Gradoville, clarinet; Tom Swoboda, cornet. This orchestra

GIVE MAIL ORDER HOUSES A WIDE BERTH

Here is Sample of the Beauties of Patronizing Mail Order Houses,
Especially When in a Hurry.

The beauties of patronizing the mail order houses of the great eastern cities was illustrated this week when one of the patrons of these concerns sent an order to the firm that was received on December 14, and a short time afterwards he received from the company a notice that it would be impossible to ship the goods ordered until January 25. During all this time the company had had the use of the money of the person ordering the goods and he had been compelled to wait over a month and has not yet received the articles ordered.

If he had gone to some of the local merchants and procured the articles he could have gotten them at once, or if they were ordered through them, delivered to him, but by ordering through the mail order house he is the one who is compelled to hold the sack and do the waiting.

This is only one of the many little annoyances that come up through doing business in this manner, and the sooner the people wake up to the fact that they can buy cheaper at home and see what they are getting the sooner they will be able to practice true economy, for with a mail order house you take what you can get and be glad that you got anything for your money.

The town in which you live holds all that goes to make up life and you owe it to yourself to make it as good a town as possible by building it up, and the only way to do that successfully is to give the business interests your heartiest support by patronizing them on every possible occasion. No town can thrive whose residents take their money which they have made there and send it to some other place to be spent or invested.

Henry Heil, jr., of Cedar Creek and W. M. Prosch of Murdock, were in the city today and made the Journal a brief, but pleasant visit. Mr. Prosch is a cousin of Mrs. Heil and is a guest of the Heil home. We were pleased to meet both gentlemen.

Moves to Town.

M. A. Hall and family, who have been living south of this city, have moved to town and taken up their residence in the Dr. Hall property in the Third ward. Mr. Hall has for many years been one of the prosperous farmers of Cass county and we are glad to know that he has taken up his residence in Plattsmouth. The young folks of the family are attending the city schools here.

"MUTT AND JEFF" SATURDAY NIGHT

You Can't Keep a Good Thing
Down, and That's Why "Mutt and Jeff" Are So Popular.

You can no more make a success out of bad material than you can keep a good thing down. "Mutt and Jeff" scored a pronounced hit at its first performance. Why? Because the play possessed real merit, and the people instantly recognized the fact. That success has been growing and reaching out until the report from every part of the country says: "The one big hit of the season."

Not only the people, critics and newspaper comment pronounce it a hit, but the heads of the great theatrical syndicate, who control the booking of the thousands of theaters throughout this vast country, send out the report, "Mutt and Jeff" the financial success of the year. Think of it, overshadowing the success of all the great "stars," little "Mutt and Jeff" leads them all. Is it any wonder that everybody wants to see it? The reports of the newspaper critics nor the report from the syndicate did not make "Mutt and Jeff" a success. The people made it a success because it was just the sort of entertainment they wanted to see. Gus Hill knew the wants of the people and gave it to them, that's the answer. Secure your tickets at the Riley hotel now and avoid the rush at the box office.

THE HELPERS DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED AT MILLER HOME.

The Helpers of the Christian church were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Henry Miller yesterday afternoon. There were a large number in attendance and during the business session, which the ladies held, it was decided to serve coffee and sandwiches at the public sale of Grove Livingston, which he will hold on January 28. The remainder of the afternoon was whiled away in social conversation and other amusements, and at the proper time a fine two-course luncheon was provided by the hostess, which was most highly appreciated by the guests.

Here From Primrose.

W. M. Moore, one of the best fellows that ever lived in Cass county, but now residing near Primrose, Neb., arrived in the city this morning for a brief visit with old home friends, departing this afternoon for Lincoln, where he has some business matters to look after. For many years Mr. Moore lived over near Murdock. Several years ago Mill said he had decided to live a quiet life, and took up his residence in Murdock. Now he has gone west and is into the work habit again stronger than ever, looking after his farm interests in that locality.

The Condition of Employment.

Every employment, either physical or mental, depends, in the first place, upon perfect health, because steady work will become impossible when our strength gives out every little while. The main requirement is to keep the digestion apparatus in good condition. As long as we can accept and digest enough food, our earning capacity will not weaken. Should we notice any change we should at once use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. This remedy will act quickly and decidedly. It will drive all impurities from the body and prepare the digestive organs for new food. It will strengthen these organs and make their work regular. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, 1333-39 So.
