I. S. Fries, who has enough of this world's goods to take life easy, left Wednesday for Kansas City on his way to Galveston, Texas, where he will spend the next few months.

Yesterday was a red letter day at the M. E. parsonage. About 100 brothers and sisters of the church together with a numerous sprinkling of brothers-in-law, gathered at the parsonage in an old-fashioned house warming. They brought in enough good things for everyone to eat. They have but lately finished improving the parsonage and now have a comfortable 8-room house of which the congregation is justly proud.

TURKEY YIELDS TO THE POWERS

Agrees to Submit to Proposals for Peace Settlement.

INDEMNITY QUESTION REMAINS

Balkan Delegates in London Are Pleased With News, but Are Not Yet Sure Turkish Government is Entirely Sincere.

Constantinople, Jan. 23.—Turkey submitted to the will of the powers. The grand council of the Ottoman empire decided in favor of accepting the proposals of Europe for a peace settlement between Turkey and the Balkan allies.

As officially announced the grand council "approved the government's point of view, declared its confidence in the sentiments of equity voiced by the great powers and expressed their wish to see their promises and proposed assistance effectively realized."

It also asked the government "to exert all its efforts to ensure in the future the safety of the country and the development of its economic interests."

The question submitted by the Turkish government to the grand council was: "Should the recommendations contained in the note of the European powers be accepted or rejected?" The government frankly confessed itself in favor of agreeing to the suggestion made by the powers.

Allies a Little Doubtful.

London, Jan. 23.—The plenipotentiaries of the Balkan kingdoms are immensely pleased over the decision of the grand council at Constantinople to accept the advice of the powers. This action is so unlike the customary Turkish policy that some suspicion is entertained until supporting proof is received that Turkey still might have cards up its sleeve. The crucial point of difference remains to be settled—the question of indemnity.

350 PILGRIMS LOSE LIVES

Caravan on Way to Mecca Overwhelmed by Avalanche and Flood.

Suakin, Egypt, Jan. 23.—Three hundred and fifty Mohammedan pilgrims from India to Mecca were drowned by a flood which overwhelmed the entire caravan at its encampment midway between the sacred city of Medina, Arabia, and the port of Yembo, on the Red sea.

An avalanche, accompanied by great torrents of water, swept down the mountain near the camp, carrying away people, animals and tents.

Only fifty of the 400 pilgrims composing the caravan were saved and have since reached Yembo.

Hearing Wyoming Contests.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 23.—The house committee on elections of the Wyoming legislature spent its time reading evidence in the contests against three Uintah county Republican members. The report is to be made to the house tomorrow and will be taken up as a special order of business Saturday. The senate referred its contests to a committee composed of two Republicans and one Democrat, with instructions to report Jan. 27, the day before the vote on the senatorial candidates will be taken.

Postmaster Wounded by Mail Carrier.

Brigham City, Utah, Jan. 23.—James M. Morris, postmaster at Rosette, Utah, was rushed here on a special train, having been shot and probably fatally wounded by William M. Cobla, a mail carrier. The two men quarreled over some land Cobla had rented from Morris.

McGoorty Has the Better of Hicks.
